Exhibit A

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 10, 1900.

Mr. William M. Pelham,

Delaware, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of April 2, requesting marriage license and certificate between yourself and Helena Priest, and requesting to have her enrolled as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. You are informed that the Commission cannot hear the petition or file the papers of any applicant for enrollment unless they duly present themselves in person before this Commission for examination and parties applying for intermarried citizenship rights in the Chickasaw or Choctaw Nation are required to conform to the marriage laws of those Nations. The marriage license between you and Helena Priest is a marriage license under the laws of the United States. The same has been duly held by the Commission as a record of your marriage.

Yours truly,

James B. Byrd

Acting Chairman.

Elias W. Tolson,

Delburg, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 17th instant relative to the enrollment of your infant daughter, and in which you desire to be informed if you can have your wife enrolled as an intermarried citizen by coming before the Commission.

There is enclosed you herewith, a blank application upon which can be given all the information necessary for the enrollment of an infant child. In having the same executed, be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and in the event either the mother or attending physician or nurse making affidavit to the birth of the child, are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures are attested by two disinterested parties as witnesses thereto. The Notary Public taking the acknowledgements of the mother and attending physician or nurse must affix his material jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

As to whether or not your wife can be enrolled as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, you are informed that the Commission cannot render an opinion until a personal appearance has been made before the Commission. Such appearance can be made either by yourself or your wife, at the office of the Commission in

NO. 72

Waukegan, Indian Territory, at any time prior to the forwarding of the final rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation to the Secretary of the Indian Territory for approval.

Your attention is invited however, to the following act of the Chickasaw Legislature, approved by the President of the United States in December, 1899:

"Section 1. That before a non-citizen can procure a license to marry a citizen of this Nation, he or she shall be of good moral character and industrious habits, and shall have resided in the county where such marriage license is sought to be procured, for a period of two years immediately preceding such application, and shall be recommended by ten good and responsible citizens by blood of this Nation; and such citizens shall certify that the applicant is of good moral character and industrious habits, and has resided in the county where such license is sought to be procured for a period of two years immediately preceding such application; and the county judge being satisfied with the petition shall grant the license to marry under the existing law, and the person so applying for such marriage license shall pay the sum of one thousand dollars, five of which shall be retained by the County Judge issuing such license, and nine hundred ninety-five dollars shall be placed in the national treasury of the Nation for national purposes; and that this act take effect from and after its passage and the approval by the President of the United States."

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen :

There is enclosed herewith a communication from Messrs. McCurtain & Hill, of August 23, 1904, relative to the claim of Delena Polson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw nation. There are also enclosed certain letters from your Commission, received with the letter of said attorneys.

In order that the matter may come before the Department in regular manner through your Commission, should you still refuse to enroll the party in the Choctaw Nation, it is requested that you allow Mrs Polson to make formal application for enrollment as an intermarried Choctaw, upon which you will take appropriate action. If you reject the application, submit the matter to the Department.

Respectfully,

Thos Ryan,

Acting Secretary.

Aug. 23, 1904.

The Secretary of the Interior,
Washington, D.C.

Sir:

Mr. Elias Folsom, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, was, on February 1, 1900, married to Delena Priest, a citizen of the United States, said marriage being performed under and in accordance with the United States laws.

On April 2, 1900, Mr. Folsom made application by letter to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the enrollment of his wife, Delena Folsom, as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. Mr. Folsom's name having at that time been placed on the Chickasaw roll by the Commission. On April 10, 1900, the Commission replied to Mr. Folsom's letter making application for the enrollment of his wife as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, which said letter is enclosed herewith marked "Ex. A" and stated, among other things, that, "---- parties applying for intermarried citizenship rights in the Chickasaw or Choctaw Nation are required to conform to the marriage laws of those Nations". "The marriage license between you and Delena Priest is a marriage license under the laws of the United States". In the same letter the Commission also informed Mr. Folsom that the Commission could not hear the petition or file the papers of any applicant for enrollment unless they duly present themselves in person before the Commission for examination.

The Secretary of the Interior--2.

Mr. Folsom addressed a letter to the Commission under date of November 17, 1900, in which he made inquiry about the enrollment of his infant daughter, and he also asked to be informed if he could have his wife enrolled as an intermarried citizen by coming before the Commission. Nov. 21, 1900, the Commission answered Mr. Folsom's letter of Nov. 17, 1900, advising him as to the method of procedure to have his infant daughter enrolled, and also stated: "as to whether or not your wife can be enrolled as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, you are informed that the Commission cannot render an opinion until a personal appearance has been made before the Commission". "Such appearance can be made either by yourself or your wife, at the office of the Commission in Muskogee, Indian Territory, at any time prior to the forwarding of the final rolls of the citizens of the Chickasaw Nation to the Secretary of the Indian Territory (Interior) for approval". And in the same letter the Commission called attention to the provision of the laws of the Chickasaw Nation relating to intermarriage, quoting said provision. Said letter is enclosed herewith marked "Ex. B".

December 26, 1900, the Commission wrote Mr. Folsom acknowledging receipt of the application for enrollment of Mr. Folsom's infant daughter as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. Said letter is herewith enclosed marked "Ex. C".

The Commission also addressed a letter to Mr. Folsom under date of August 7, 1902, acknowledging receipt of application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Dennis Folsom, infant son of Elias W. and Delena Folsom. This same letter also acknowledges receipt of an affidavit relative to the birth of Mr. Folsom's child, Willis Folsom. Said letter is enclosed marked "Ex.D".

On May 18, 1903, the Commission addressed a letter to Mr. Folsom acknowledging receipt of a letter from Mr. Folsom to the Commission. In this letter the Commission states, among other things, "receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 11, in which you state that when you went to file on your land you were compelled to file as a Choctaw, but that under the Commission's ruling you were placed on the Chickasaw roll". "You further state that if you are a Choctaw your wife is entitled to enrollment as an intermarried Choctaw".

Said letter is herewith enclosed marked "Ex.E".

July 7, 1903, in answer to a letter from Mr. Folsom of June 3, 1903, addressed another letter to Mr. Folsom relative to the matter of the enrollment of his wife as an intermarried Choctaw, which said letter is practically a repetition of what was stated to Mr. Folsom by the Commission in its letter of May 18, 1903. Said letter is herewith enclosed marked "Ex.F".

From the enclosed correspondence and references thereto it will be seen that the transfer of Mr. Folsom's name and those of his children from the Chickasaw roll to the Choctaw roll was not made by the Commission until a time after which it was too late for application to be made for the enrollment of Mr. Folsom's wife, Delena Folsom, as an intermarried Choctaw, according to the holding of the Commission. The action of the Commission in transferring Mr. Folsom's name from the Chickasaw roll to the Choctaw roll at such a time will, while not so intended, result in depriving Delena Folsom, wife of Elias Folsom, of her right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, unless the error is corrected. That this proceeding was occasioned by error, and error upon the part of the Commission, is evident from the fact that the transfer was considered necessary and proper in the judgment of the Commission, and was accordingly made by the Commission after it had once placed Folsom's name on the Chickasaw roll.

It is true that Delena Folsom never could have been enrolled as an intermarried Chickasaw, because of the fact that the Chickasaw intermarriage law requires that all persons, whether male or female, shall take out a license in the Chickasaw courts and pay one thousand dollars therefor before they can marry a citizen of that Nation and acquire any rights as an intermarried Chickasaw. And this Delena Folsom had not done, but was married in accordance with a license taken out under the United States law. But with a citizen of the Choctaw Nation it is different. There is no provision of the Choctaw law requiring that a non citizen woman who marries a Choctaw citizen shall first take out a license in accordance with the Choctaw law. The Choctaw law upon this subject provides:

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE CHOCTAW NATION ASSEMBLED That the act of Nov. 9, 1875, in reference to the intermarriage of white men with the Choctaw women is hereby so amended, that county clerks only shall issue license for such marriage, and instead of white men paying twenty-five dollars they shall pay one hundred dollars, and the county clerks receiving said one hundred dollars and issuing the license, shall be allowed two and 50-100 dollars of the same as their fees, and the remainder they shall turn into the county treasuries of their respective counties. In all other respects the laws of Nov. 9, 1875, shall be complied with, and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

From the foregoing it will be seen, and as well by reference to the law of Nov. 1875, of which the above quoted act is amendatory. (Durant's Code, P. 225) that the procuring of a license in accordance with the tribal laws to marry a citizen of the Choctaw Nation is not required of non citizen women who marry Choctaw men, but that these provisions extend only to non citizens ~~men~~ who marry Choctaw women.

Thus will it be seen that Delena Folsom is entitled to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, according to the laws of the Choctaw Nation, and but for the error of the Commission in placing Delena Folsom's husband's name on the Chickasaw roll she would have made the proper application in pursuit of her lawful rights, and would doubtless have been enrolled as an intermarried Choctaw. We do not deem it necessary to call attention to that provision of the Act of Congress, approved June 28, 1898, (30 stats., 495) making it the duty of the Commission to enroll "such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to Choctaw and Chickasaw citizenship under treaties and laws of said tribes", further than to emphasize our contention by this support of the lawfulness of Delena Folsom's claim. Delena Folsom has not been guilty of any laches or delay in the prosecution of her claim and no blame can possibly attach to her in the matter of this condition, she did all that she was permitted to do under the erroneous ruling of the Commission in first placing her husband's name on the Chickasaw roll. And for the error of the Commission in this we do not think she should pay any penalty; but we believe that it would be justice saved to allow her to make her application for enrollment as an intermarried Choctaw at this time, and that it be considered a nunc pro tunc application. We would, therefore, respectfully request that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes be directed to give Delena Folsom a reasonable time in which to make such application.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 3, relative to the right to enrollment of your wife Delena Folsom as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it does not appear from our records that any application has been made to this Commission for the enrollment of Delena Folsom as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and under the provisions of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902, the Commission is now without authority to receive or consider any original application for enrollment in the Choctaw Nation.

Relative to the transfer of the names of yourself and your family from the Chickasaw to the Choctaw roll you are advised that it not appearing from the records of the Chickasaw Nation, in the possession of the Commission, that you and your family had been recognized by the tribal authorities of the Chickasaw Nation as citizens of that nation, and your names having been identified upon the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation, Elias Folsom and his children Irene,

Willis and Dennis Folsom have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and their enrollment as such has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Referring to that part of your letter in which you state that you have heretofore made application for the enrollment of your wife Delena Folsom as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation you are advised that it appears from the records of this office that on April 2, 1900 you inclosed marriage license and certificate between yourself and Delena Priest and requested that she be enrolled as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation and on April 10, 1900 you were informed in reference thereto, that the Commission could not receive the application of any person for enrollment until the personal appearance of the applicant before the Commission for examination. On November 21, 1900 in reply to your letter of November 17, 1900 inquiring whether your wife could be enrolled as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation you were informed that the Commission could not render a decision relative to the enrollment of your wife as an intermarried citizen of said nation until personal application was made in her behalf before the Commission. It does not appear that such personal appearance has ever been made by or on behalf of your wife Delena Folsom for enrollment as an

Dear Madam :-

You are hereby advised that under date of September 11, 1904, the Secretary of the Interior directed the Commission to allow you to make formal application for enrollment as an intermarried member of the Choctaw Nation, in order that the matter of your enrollment may come before the Department in regular manner, through the Commission.

You are further advised that Messrs McDermain & Hill, your attorneys at South McAlester, Indian Territory, have been advised of this direction of the Secretary of the Interior, as have also Messrs Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

If you desire to make application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, such application must be made at the office of the Commission, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, within thirty days from the date hereof, notice of the making of such application being first served upon Messrs Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, South McAlester, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen :-

You are hereby advised that on September 1, 1904, the Secretary of the Interior transmitted to the Commission a communication from Messrs. McCurtain & Hill, Attorneys at Law, South McAlester, Indian Territory, under date of August 23, 1904, relative to the application for the enrollment of Delena Folsom as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. The Department directs that the Commission allow Mrs. Folsom to make formal application for enrollment, in order that the matter may come before the Department in regular manner, through the Commission. You are advised, in reference to this matter, that Delena Folsom appeared before the Commission on November 13, 1902, at Ada, Indian Territory, for the purpose of making application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Messrs. McCurtain & Hill have this day been advised that Mrs. Folsom should present herself personally before the Commission at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, within thirty days from the date hereof, for the purpose of making application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, and that notice of

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory. September 21, 1904.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Delana Folsom as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

STATEMENT BEFORE TAKING TESTIMONY.

On November 13, 1902, Delana Folsom, 22 years of age, of Roff, Indian Territory, came before the Commission at its appointment at Ada, Indian Territory, and made application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation; her husband, Elias Folsom, at that time appeared upon the records of the Commission as an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation. The applicant's husband not being identified upon any of the tribal rolls of the Cherokee Nation in the possession of the Commission, and it appearing that he had already been recognized as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, his name was included upon a schedule of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, qualified to and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903--- the name of Elias Folsom appearing upon such schedule opposite number 12667. At the time of the appearance of Delana Folsom at Ada, on November 13, 1902, the Commission refused to entertain her application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Cherokee Nation for the reason that she had not been married to her said husband in accordance with the tribal laws, usages and customs of the Cherokee Nation. This action was taken in accordance with the provisions of the thirty fourth section of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641).

On September 1, 1904 the Secretary of the Interior, in his letter of that date, (I.T.D. 7347-1904) directed the Commission to permit Delana Folsom to make formal application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and that appropriate action be taken upon her application as such.

Notice of this Departmental direction was forwarded to Delana Folsom, Messrs. McCurtain & Hill, her attorneys, and Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nation on September 4, 1904. Mrs. Folsom and Messrs. McCurtain & Hill were advised that Mrs. Folsom should appear before the Commission at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory, within thirty days from September 14, 1904 for the purpose of making such application, notice of the time of making such application being first served upon Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, at South McAlester.

Now on this the 21. day of September, 1904, comes the applicant in person and her attorney, E. P. Hill, and filed the notice to Mansfield McMurray & Cornish, attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, with acceptance of such notice, that the applicant would, on the 21st. day of September, 1904, at ten o'clock A.M., make formal application to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Delana Folsom, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:-

Examination by Commission.

- Q. What is your name. A. Delana Folsom.

- Q. What is the name of your husband. A. Elias Folsom.
- Q. You appeared before the Commission at Ada on November 13, 1902 did not you. A. Yes sir, I do not remember the exact date, but it was in November.
- Q. When were you married to Elias Folsom. A. February 1, 1900.
- Q. Where were you married. A. I believe it was at Iona.
- Q. What Nation is that in. A. Chickasaw.
- Q. How long had you been living in the Chickasaw Nation at the time you were married to Elias Folsom. A. We came there in 1891 and I was married in 1900.
- Q. How long had your husband been living here. I mean prior to his marriage with you. A. I do not know.
- Q. Did you know him before you married him. A. Yes.
- Q. Was he under a license issued by the State of

- the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory. A. Yes sir, I presume so.
- Q. You got the license at Ardmore. A. No, at Pauls Valley.
- Q. Got them from the Clerk of the United States Court. A. Yes sir.
- Q. Were you ever married under the Tribal laws. A. No sir.
- Q. The only marriage ceremony ever performed between you and your husband was performed under the United States license. A. Yes sir.
- Q. Who married you. I never seen the preacher but the one time. It seems to me that it was Yerby.
- Q. Were you ever married prior to your marriage to Elias Folsom. A. No sir.
- Q. Was he. A. Yes sir.
- Q. How many times. A. Once.
- Q. What was his first wife's name. A. Edler Folsom.
- Q. Was his first wife dead when you married him. A. Yes sir.
- Q. Do you know she was dead. A. Yes sir.
- Q. Since your marriage to Elias Folsom in 1900 have you lived together continuously. A. Yes sir.
- Q. Lived together in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations continuously since then. A. Yes sir.

WITNESS EXCUSED.

Elias Folsom, being first duly sworn, testified as follows.

Examination by the Commission.

- Q. What is your name. A. Elias Folsom.
- Q. How old are you. A. About thirty five.
- Q. What is your post office. A. None.
- Q. What Nation. A. Choctaw.
- Q. You are a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. A. Yes.

(Witness is identified as Elias Folsom, Choctaw Card 5395, and upon the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation as approved by the Secretary of the Interior, opposite number 13667.)

- Q. What is the name of your present wife. A. Delana Folsom.
- Q. When were you married to her. A. In 1900.
- Q. What date. A. February 1, 1900.
- Q. You were married to her under a United States license. A. Yes sir.
- Q. Is that the only license you were ever married to her under. A. Yes sir.
- Q. Had you ever been married prior to your marriage with Delana Folsom. A. Yes sir, I had been married once before.
- Q. What was the name of your first wife. A. Edler Folsom.
- Q. Is she dead. A. Yes sir.
- Q. When did she die. A. She died in 1899.
- Q. How long prior to your marriage to Delana Priest. A.

- Eight or nine months. She died in July.
- Q. Was Edler Folsom the only woman you had been married to prior to your marriage to Delane Priest? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Have you and Delane Folsom lived together continuously since your marriage in February, 1900? A. Yes sir.

Witness excused.

Eula Jeanes Branson, being sworn, on oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, she reported the above on September 21, 1904, and that this is a true, full and correct transcript of her stenographic notes in the name.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for enrollment of Delena Folsom as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

ORDER.

It appears from the papers herein that Delena Priest, a white woman, was married on February 1, 1900, to Elias Folsom, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, under a marriage license issued January 30, 1900, by the Clerk of the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory. At the time of said marriage Elias W. Folsom was listed for enrollment by the Commission as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation. On April 2, 1900, Elias W. Folsom transmitted his marriage license and certificate to Delena Priest, and requested her enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. On November 13, 1902, Delena Folsom personally appeared before the Commission at Ada, Indian Territory as an applicant for enrollment by intermarriage as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. The Commission, at that time, refused to entertain jurisdiction of her application for the reason that it did not appear that she had been married to Elias Folsom in accordance with the laws, usages and customs of the Chickasaw Nation, of which she and her husband were both residents, and for the further reason that no personal appearance had been made by her prior to the approval of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641). Subsequent to her appearance at Ada, on November 13, 1902, the name of her husband, Elias Folsom, was transferred from the roll of Chickasaw citizens, being prepared by the Commission, to the roll of Choctaw citizens, so being prepared, and on March 19, 1903, the enrollment of Elias Folsom as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

I am of the opinion that the application made by Delena Folsom at Ada, Indian Territory on November 13, 1902 is of sufficient force and effect to now be considered as an application having been made by her for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It is therefore ordered that the papers in this matter be received and considered as an application for the enrollment of Delena Folsom as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and that disposition be made thereof as such.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Delena Folsom as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on February 1, 1900 the applicant, Delena Folsom (nee Priest), was lawfully married to Elias Folsom, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation whose name appears as number 13667 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Ella Jones (I. T. D. 6818-1904), Delena Folsom should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 26, 1902.

Mr. N. W. Folsom,

Dalberg, Ind. Ter.

Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Vera Folsom, the infant daughter of Elias W. and Delena Folsom, born November 12, 1900, and the same being in proper form, has been duly filed with the records of this Commission, and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Chickasaw 632

Mustang, Indian Territory, March 4, 1902.

Elmer Nelson,

Mustang, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

It does not appear from the records of the Commission that any evidence of your marriage to Edler Nelson has been filed. Please forward such evidence of this marriage as you may possess in support of the application for the enrollment of your children as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

8-230
Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 29, 1902.

Elias W. Fulson,

Wynnewood, Indian Territory.

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 21st. instant enclosing certificate of marriage between Elias Fulson and Helen Wade, and the same has been duly filed with the records of the Commission in the matter of the application for the enrollment of yourself and your two minor children, Irene and Willis Fulson.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Chickasaw 639

Mustoge, Indian Territory, June 4, 1903.

Elias Wilson,

Sanctis, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

It does not appear from the records of this office that evidence of the birth of Willie Polson, infant son of Elias and Edler Polson, has been filed with the Commission. It will be necessary that the same be supplied in the matter of his enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and for this purpose there is inclosed herewith a blank application for the enrollment of infant children upon which you may forward the necessary information. In having the same completed be careful to see that all blanks are filled out, all names written in full, and that the Notary Public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged affixes his name and seal to each affidavit. Signatures by mark must be attested by two disinterested witnesses.

As it appears from our records that Edler Polson, the mother of this child, is dead, the Commission will accept as evidence of his birth, the affidavit of the father, and the affidavit of the physician or nurse who was in attendance at the birth of the child.

Chickasaw 439

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 25, 1902.

Elias W. Folsom,
Wynnewood, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 10th instant, in which you state that you had Willis Folsom enrolled at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, and requesting to be advised if it is necessary for you to appear before the Commission to fill out the birth certificate sent you.

As stated in our letter of the 4th instant, it does not appear that any evidence of the birth of Willis Folsom has been filed with the Commission and it is necessary that the same be supplied in the matter of his enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and for this purpose the blank application for the enrollment of an infant child was sent you. It is not necessary for you to appear before the Commission in order to execute this application.

The Commission has to request that you have these affidavits prepared in accordance with the instructions in our letter of the 4th instant, and return to this office at as early a date as practicable.

Yours truly,

Gentlemen.

There is inclosed herewith a communication from Messrs. McCurtain & Hill, of August 21, 1904, relative to the claim of Delena Folsom as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. There are also inclosed certain letters from your Commission, received with the letter of said attorneys.

In order that the matter may come before the Department in regular manner through your Commission, should you still refuse to enroll the party in the Choctaw Nation, it is requested that you allow Mrs. Folsom to make formal application for enrollment as an intermarried Choctaw, upon which you will take appropriate action. If you reject the application, submit the matter to the Department.

Respectfully,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Eugene A. Hickman as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N ---:

It appears from the record herein that Eugene A. Hickman, on October 11, 1885, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation, to Lucy A. Hickman (nee McKinney), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as Lucy McKinney, number 13672 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Eugene A. Hickman should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Silas W. Bohannon, the infant son of Joe and Mary Bohannon, born September 25th, 1900.

The same is returned to you herewith for the reason that the Commission is unable to identify the mother of this child as having been listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. It is stated in the affidavit of the mother to the birth of the child, that she is a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and is 16 years of age.

You are requested to inform the Commission of your wife's maiden name, the time and place that she appeared before the Commission as an applicant for enrollment, the names of other members of her family making application at the same time and any other information that may lead to her identification.

Upon return of the application and the information requested, the matter will receive further consideration.

Yours truly,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 2nd instant enclosing marriage license and certificate between yourself and Sarah Johnson, and in which you state that your wife is a white woman and you wish to have her and your child enrolled as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation.

The marriage license and certificate forwarded by you has been duly filed with the records of the Commission as evidence of your marriage but you are informed if your wife wishes to make application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation it will be necessary for her to appear in person for the purpose of examination under oath. Such appearance should be made at the office of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory, and can be made at any time prior to the forwarding of the final rolls of citizens of the Chickasaw Nation to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

For the purpose of enrollment of infant children, the Commission uses a blank, one of which is enclosed you herewith, upon which can be stated all the information necessary for the enrollment of an infant child. In having the same executed, be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names

Mrs. Becky Cooper,

Same Place, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:-

The Commission has information of the death of your daughter, Frances Cooper, applicant to the Commission and was made for her surveillance, September 20, 1898.

For the purpose of making the fact of her death a matter of record, there is enclosed you herewith a blank proof of death, which you will kindly have filled out and return to the Commission.

In having the same executed, you will notice that there is a blank for the affidavit of a relative and an acquaintance. Both of these blanks should be filled, all names written in full and the affidavits sworn to before a Notary Public. Should the relative or acquaintance making the affidavit be unable to write, and their signatures are by mark, it will be necessary to have such signatures attested by two disinterested parties as witnesses therefor.

The notary public acknowledging the affidavits must affix his notarial seal and seal to each separate affidavit. The Commission will appreciate your prompt attention to this matter.

An envelope for reply is enclosed you herewith.

Dear Sir:

On March 4, 1902, you addressed a letter to this Commission requesting that your wife a white woman and your infant child be listed for enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw nation. You did not state the name of your wife or that of your child.

There was recently received at this office your affidavit and that of Henry E. Mason dated December 24, 1902, relative to the birth of your infant child Henry E. Cooper April 19, 1900. It appears from your affidavit that your wife died October 31, 1901.

You are kindly requested to state if the infant child referred to in your letter of March 4, 1902, is the same child named in your affidavit of December 24, 1902.

Please give this matter prompt attention.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 18th inst., in reply to our communication dated March 13, 1903, requesting information relative to the name of the infant child referred to in your letter of March 4, 1901.

It appears from our records that on December 27, 1902, there was received at this office your affidavit and that of Nancy E. Mason relative to the birth of Henry E. Cooper, infant child of Robert and Sarah Cooper, April 19, 1902. It is stated in your affidavit that the name of the child is Etta Henry Cooper, and that it is a female; while in the affidavit of Nancy E. Mason it is stated that the child is a male and its name is Henry E. Cooper.

You are advised that it will be necessary that you furnish the Commission with new affidavits and a blank for such purpose is enclosed you herewith.

Be careful to see that the sex and full name of your child is correctly stated in each affidavit, returning same when

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 21st inst., enclosing your affidavit and that of Nancy E. Mason relative to the birth of Henry E. Cooper, infant son of Robert and Sarah A. Cooper, April 19, 1900.

It appears from our records that on March 4, 1901, you addressed a letter to this Commission requesting that your wife, a white woman, and your infant child be listed for enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation. You did not at that time state the name of your wife or that of the child.

It further appears from our records that on December 27, 1902, there was received at this office your affidavit and that of Nancy E. Mason relative to the birth of Henry E. Cooper, infant child of Robert and Sarah Cooper, April 19, 1900.

It was stated in your affidavit that the name of the child was Etta Henry Cooper, a female; while the affidavit of Nancy

M. Kasper, the attending midwife, stated that the child was a male, and that its name was Henry E. Cooper, and a new blank for the purpose of making application, in which the sex of the child should be correctly stated in each affidavit, was enclosed you.

The application now being complete and in proper form, has been duly filed with our records, and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Dear Sir:

It appears from our records that two sets of affidavits in the matter of the application for enrollment of an infant child of Frances and Henry Cooper, born April 19, 1900, have been filed, and there appears to be a question as to the sex of said child, as well as the given name.

In order to remedy the defect in the application heretofore filed, a blank application for the enrollment of an infant child is enclosed herewith and you are kindly requested to see Frances Cooper and assist her in having the same correctly executed and returned to this office at as early a date as practicable in the enclosed envelope.

You will understand that it will be necessary for the mother and the attending mid-wife to execute the proper affidavits and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, the same must be attested by two witnesses.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 4th inst., relative to the enrollment of Henry E. Cooper, infant son of Robert Cooper, as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and you request to be advised relative to the delay in the approval of the application for enrollment of said child.

You are advised it appears from our records that two sets of affidavits in the matter of the application for enrollment of an infant child of Frances and Henry Cooper, born April 19, 1900, have been filed in this office from which there appears to be a question as to the sex of said child, as well as its given name. In order to remedy the defect in the application heretofore filed, a blank application for the enrollment of an infant child was forwarded March 30, 1904, to George Scott, National Auditor, Choctaw Nation, Kinta, Indian Territory, with a request that he assist the parties in having the same correctly executed and returned to this office as early as possible.

We are this day in receipt of a letter from Mr. Scott, from which it appears that he is unable to locate the parents of said child.

A blank application for the enrollment of an infant child, together with an envelope for return of the same is therefore forwarded you, and you are requested to advise Henry Seeger what it will be necessary for him to furnish correct affidavits signed by the mother of the child and the attending mid-wife, same being taken as to the full given name, sex and date of birth of said child.

This matter should receive immediate attention.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 30, 1903, stating that you have a power of attorney from Morris Cooper, who is in prison at Fort Leavenworth for life, to select allotments for himself and his two children, George and Maudie Cooper, and you ask to be advised if the names appear upon the rolls; also whether the power of attorney should be filed with the Commission at this time.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Morris Cooper, and his child, Maudie Cooper, aged six years, have been listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation. It does not appear from our records that application has been made for the enrollment of his son, George Cooper, to whom you refer, under this name. If application has been made for his enrollment, kindly state when, where and under what name the same was made, the names of his parents and other members of his family who appeared at the same time, and any other information you may possess which would enable the Commission to identify him as an applicant, and the matter will then receive further consideration.

You are further advised that the Commission has, at this time, no means of recording the names of citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. Upon the establishment of land offices in the nations the citizens of these two tribes may appear before the Commission at the land office for the nation in which their land is located, and make formal application for the land they desire to select in allotment.

George W. Scott,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter without date, in the matter of the enrollment of George Cooper, son of Elsie and Morris Cooper, and the information contained therein has enabled the Commission to identify George Cooper, twelve years of age, son of Morris Cooper and Elsie Gilbert, as having been enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on January 16, 1903, his enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

You further state in your letter that Morris Cooper, who, you have been advised, is listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, is a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, and thought he was so listed for enrollment.

In reply you are advised that it appears from the records of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of the Commission that Morris Cooper has always been recognized and enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation; that he drew the Leased District Payment in the Choctaw Nation in 1893, and was enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw

Nation on the 1890 census roll of said nation. He has therefore been identified by this Commission from the 1890 Choctaw Census Roll, and his name placed upon a schedule of citizens by blood of the Choctaw

Dear Madam:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations April 1, 1903. The act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at said place on one of the above dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 23, relative to the enrollment of Morris Cooper giving information in regard to the members of his family, and stating that power of attorney has been executed to you by him to file on lands for himself and his children, and you presume you will be allowed to receive any monies which are paid to him by this office out of the Chickasaw Incompetent fund.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the information contained therein has enabled the Commission to identify Morris Cooper and his daughter Maude Cooper as having been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation. On March 19, 1903 their enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

You state in your letter that Morris Cooper is a Chickasaw Indian and you are informed that it not appearing from the Chickasaw tribal rolls in the possession of this Commission that Morris Cooper had been recognized and enrolled by the Chickasaw authorities as a citizen of said nation, and his name having been identified upon the tribal rolls of the Cheetaw Nation he and his child have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Cheetaw Nation, and on March 19, 1903 their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 26, 1907, in which you ask the status of the application for the enrollment of Wesley Daniel as a Choctaw citizen; you state his mother's name was Mary Bond a half blood Indian.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it does not appear from the records of this office that application was ever made for the enrollment of Wesley Daniel as a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation and in this connection your attention is invited to the following provision of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906:

"That the rolls of the tribes affected by this Act shall be fully completed on or before the fourth day of March, nineteen hundred and seven, and the Secretary of the Interior shall have no jurisdiction to approve the enrollment of any person after said date."

You will therefore observe from the above that there is no authority at this time for the enrollment of any person as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 21st instant, enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Greaver Harkins, the infant son of William E. and Annie Harkins, born June 15, 1902, and such application being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of this office and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

In your letter of the 21st instant you inquire if it is necessary for you to furnish affidavits as to the birth of your child, Lillie Harkins, and if so that you be forwarded a blank for this purpose.

You are advised that in the matter of the enrollment of Lillie Harkins it is necessary that the Commission be supplied with evidence of her birth and for this purpose there is inclosed herewith a blank application for the enrollment of infant children.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

On June 23, 1908, a letter was addressed to you by the Commission, acknowledging receipt of your letter of June 21, 1908, enclosing birth affidavit of your infant son, Grever Harkins. In reply to an inquiry in said letter, it was stated by the Commission that in the matter of the enrollment of your infant daughter, Lillie Harkins, it would be necessary that the Commission be supplied with evidence of her birth and for that purpose there was enclosed you a blank application for enrollment of infant children. In reply to said letter of the Commission has been received.

There is enclosed herewith a blank application for enrollment of infant children, which you are requested to have filled out and return with as little delay as possible. In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full, and that the notary public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged attaches his name and seal to each affidavit. Signatures by mark must be attested by two disinterested witnesses. This evidence should be furnished at the earliest practicable date as the same is necessary to determine the rights

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 25, stating that your wife, Annie Harkins, is a member of the Chickasaw Tribe of Indians, and that her name and the names of her children have been transferred to the Choctaw roll without authority of law. That you have been informed that the attorneys for the Chickasaw Nation filed a protest against their enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation, and ask for a copy thereof.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it does not appear from our records that any protest has been filed by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in the matter of the enrollment of your wife and children as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation.

It not appearing, however, from the tribal rolls of the Chickasaw Nation in the possession of this Commission that Annie Harkins has ever been recognized and enrolled by the Chickasaw tribal authorities as a citizen of said nation, and not being been identified from the 1890 Census roll of the Cherokee Nation, she and her children, Willie, Clara, Lillie, and Grover Jackson have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation, and on March 19, 1903, their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that on September 25, 1898 the applicant, Robert A. Morgan, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Alice Morgan (nee Lee), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13706 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they live together continuously as husband and wife in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Robert A. Morgan should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Hon. D. H. Johnston,
Governor Chickasaw Nation,
East, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 18th instant in which you ask if Luther N. Winchester or Alice Morgan or both, have been listed for enrollment as citizens of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations and if so what is their status as shown by our records, stating that you desire this information for use of the Superintendent of the Schools of the Chickasaw Nation.

You are informed that the records of the Commission show that Luther N. Winchester, 14 years of age, and the son of Alfred Winchester, deceased, and Martha Lane, was listed for enrollment by this Commission, September 16th, 1899 as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. Luther N. Winchester appears upon our records as a one sixteenth Indian by blood and the son of Martha Lane, formerly Martha Winchester who was identified by the Commission for enrollment as a Chickasaw citizen on the Ishubutty roll of the Chickasaws.

Alice Morgan, 20 years of age and the wife of Robert A. Morgan, of South Canadian, Indian Territory, was listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, September 23rd, 1896, having been identified as a Chickasaw Indian only enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities on their Census record No. 1, page 221 as Alice F. Lee.

Yours truly,

J. M. V. and J. M. V.

John C. Morgan

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 21, 1901.

Mr. Robert A. Morgan,

Paul, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of William Allen Morgan, the infant son of Robert A. and Alice F. Morgan, born August 12, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Waskagoo, Indian Territory, February 5, 1903.

Robert A. Morgan,

Peoli, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 18, 1903, relative to the possession of an allotment which is now in litigation.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission can not at this time render any opinion relative to the rights of individuals to hold certain tracts of the Choctaw-Chickasaw country. Matters of this character will receive its consideration upon the establishment of land offices in said Nations, at which time the citizens of these two tribes may appear at the land office for the Nation in which their land is located and make formal application for their allotments.

No date has been definitely fixed for the establishment of the land offices, but it is probable that the same will be opened some time between the first of March and the first of April.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Cherokee Nation
Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 16, 1904.

Robert A. Morgan,

Paoli, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 28, asking if you will be permitted to take your allotment in ten acre strips, and in reply your attention is invited to the following provision of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 23, 1902:

"For the purpose of making allotments and designating homesteads hereunder, the forty-acre or quarter-quarter subdivisions established by the Government survey may be dealt with as if further subdivided into four equal parts in the usual manner, thus making the smallest legal subdivision ten acres, or a quarter of a quarter of a quarter of a section."

You are further advised that it is the desire of the Commission that allottees select their land in one body as far as it is practicable to do so.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

McKees, Indian Territory, April 24, 1935.

W. J. Thompson,

Pauls Valley, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 17, designating certain lands which are in dispute between W. J. Thompson and Robert Morgan.

You are advised that it does not appear from your letter for what purpose this description was forwarded, and the Commission is unable to give you any information on this subject.

You are advised, however, that it appears from our records that W. J. Thompson was admitted to citizenship in the Chickasaw Nation by a judgment of the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory, rendered at Ardmore, March 12, 1900.

If you are the W. J. Thompson referred to herein, you are advised that the Commission is prohibited from exercising making any allotment of lands to persons whose rights in the Cherokee and Chickasaw Nations are dependent upon judgments of the United States Courts in Indian Territory, until their rights to such citizenship are finally determined.

You are informed that the Commission will endeavor to pre-test the property interests of so-called court claimants, and should application be made by citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations to select land on which the said court claimants have improvements, not in excess of lawful allotments, they will be satisfied, and will be granted opportunity to institute contest proceedings for the land on which their improvements are located.

You are further informed that the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902, provides as follows:

"All controversies arising between members as to their right to select particular tracts of land shall be determined by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes."

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Chicago, Indian Territory, June 2, 1902.

Mr. Robert A. Morgan,

South Canadian, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Cheate Nation, you do not state, in your testimony taken at Pauls Valley, Indian Territory, on October 21 last, where your wife resided at the time of your marriage to her in 1902. Before any further consideration can be given your application, it is necessary that you forward to the Commission a sworn statement as to where your wife resided at the date of your marriage to her.

This matter should receive your immediate attention.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw 2404

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 3, 1903.

J. George Wright,

U. S. Indian Inspector,

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 11, inclosing copy of letter from Alice B. Morgan, of Paoli, Indian Territory, together with copies of letters from this Commission in the matter of her enrollment. Mrs. Morgan claims the right to participate in the $40.00 per capita payment now being made to the Chickasaws, but states that she has been transferred by the Commission to the Choctaw roll. You ask the status of the enrollment of Mrs. Morgan.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it not appearing from the records of the Chickasaw Nation in the possession of the Commission that Alice Morgan has been recognized or enrolled by the tribal authorities of said nation as a citizen thereof, and her name having been identified from the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation, she has been enrolled by this Commission, together with her children, as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on March 19, 1903, her enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior, as was also the enrollment of her children, Helen Lee Morgan and William Allen Morgan.

When the Commission was in the field in 1898 receiving applications for enrollment in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, Alice Morgan was listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, and her husband, Robert A. Morgan, was listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation; subsequently, applications for the enrollment of their two children, Helen Lee and William Allen Morgan were received, and being in proper form, the children were listed for enrollment with their parents as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation.

When the Commission began the preparation of the final rolls of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations for forwarding to the Secretary of the Interior, in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress of July 1, 1903, (32 Stats., 641), the name of Alice Morgan not appearing in the tribal rolls of the Chickasaw Nation in the possession of the Commission, and her name having been identified on the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation, she and her children were enrolled by the Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, as above stated, and her husband, Robert A. Morgan, was listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. His final right to such enrollment has not, however, as yet been determined.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 11, 1923.

Robert A. Morgan,

Paoli, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your affidavit stating that you were married to Alice F. Lee, September 25, 1898, at South Canadian, Choctaw Nation, which was at that time her place of residence; and the same has been duly filed with our records in the matter of your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

7-5404

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 18, 1903.

Robert A. Morgan,
Pawnee Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the affidavit of Allen F. Morgan and J. M. Naples relative to the birth of Raymond W. Morgan, infant son of Robert A. and Allen F. Morgan, born August 11, 1903, which it is presumed have been forwarded to this office as an application for the enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation of the above named child.

You are informed that under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 611), which was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 18, 1902, this Commission is now without authority to receive or consider the original application for the enrollment of any person claiming even as a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Choctaw-5404.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 15, 1904.

Robert A. Morgan,
Paoli, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

I am hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 6th, in which you ask if you have been approved as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter, you are informed that the Commission is now considering your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, as soon as a decision is reached in this case, you will be notified of the action taken therein.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 8, 1901.

W. A. Thompson,

Attorney at Law,

Seale Valley, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is this morning in receipt of your telegram as follows:

"Wire me quick if Robert Morgan is regularly listed for enrollment as a Choctaw or Chickasaw by marriage and if Alice Morgan is regularly listed for enrollment as a member of either tribe by blood."

The Commission has just wired you in answer thereto, in the affirmative.

Replying further to your inquiry you are informed that our records show that on September 29, 1898, Robert A. Morgan, 30 years of age, an intermarried white person and Alice Morgan, his wife, 30 years of age, a Chickasaw Indian by blood, were listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation, their post office address at that time being given as South Canadian, Indian Territory.

On November 3, 1899, upon presentation of proper affidavits as to her birth, Helen Lee Morgan, the infant child of these two persons, born August 25, 1899, was listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Youth, 14, Is Held In Icebox Slaying

Girl, 6, Is Assaulted,

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., June 23 (UP)—A 14-year-old boy was among a group of suspects questioned exhaustively tonight in the "icebox" slaying of 6-year-old Hazel Laurie. Police said the case "may break any time."

Others questioned about the brutal killing of a child, whose body was found in an unused icebox, included a 5-year-old girl and a drunken man. The girl's possible connection was not disclosed but the man, arrested intoxicated in the neighborhood, virtually was eliminated.

Dead Bloodstained

Police found a bloodstained sofa in a children's playroom in the basement of the apartment house where the Laurie family lives. The abandoned icebox was in the courtyard behind the house, often used by the children as a hiding place. The body was found there yesterday.

Hazel's sweater was in an alley between the apartment house and the home of Mrs. Mary Gilbert, who discovered the body. Her bloodstained, stuffed into a newspaper, were found under the Gilberts' back steps.

District Attorney Charles A. Albert appealed to any person with knowledge of the slaying to aid in solving "the horrible crime."

The child was the victim of a vicious sexual assault Thursday night between 6 p. m. and 10 p. m. She died as the result of the attack, he said.

Died Slow Death

Police said the child's slayer ripped off her clothes, raped her—probably on the sofa in the playroom—and then fled after cramming the body into the icebox.

He has also assisted in the formation of the Peace Research foundation which, under the auspices of the state department, has as its principal purpose the propagation of lasting ideals of universal peace among the youth of all nations.

Hints at Drastic Changes

"In Carl Conner," Hogan said, "the board feels that Muskogee has a man at the helm of its educational system who is wise and progressive. He is in complete accord with our belief that it will be necessary to effect some very considerable changes in our educational methods if our community is to keep pace with the post-war era. He agrees with us that these changes should be wrought as gradually as circumstances will permit and that, in the consideration of the problems of advancement and improvement, every segment of our population must receive equal attention without prejudice toward or discrimination against any racial, political or religious minority.

"The next few years will demonstrate," Hogan said, "that, more than ever before, the success or failure of public education will determine the success or failure of a community. Conner, in his extensive studies of the customs, educational methods and ideologies of many nations, has conceived a broad philosophy which, when brought to bear upon our own community, may be expected to broaden our own horizon and to increase the scope of our thinking on these important problems. Shifts in population trends, property values, capacity of individuals to earn—and therefore to purchase—are all linked with the school system of any community to such extent that education must come to be thought of by the whole public as an investment, rather than merely an expense. The board of education intends to give Mr. Conner a free hand and wide authority

George W. Scott, 73, Prominent Choctaw, Dies at Stigler Home

Special to the Phoenix

STIGLER, June 23 — George W. Scott, 73-year-old Choctaw Indian, prominent in eastern Oklahoma for many years, died at his home here this afternoon.

Born at Hugo March 3, 1872, Scott received his education at the Spencer academy at Hugo. While a student there he received a scholarship to Harvard university, but did not attend.

At the age of 21 he was elected county clerk of Kiamichi county (now known as Pushmataha county). In 1896 he was married to Miss Alice McCurtain, daughter of Governor and Mrs. Green McCurtain. McCurtain was the last governor of the Choctaw nation.

Scott was the last elected treasurer of the Choctaw nation and held that position for 10 years. He was a charter member of the Choctaw council.

A farmer and stockman in the Kinta area for many years, he is credited with naming that city and was founder and first president of the first bank in Haskell county, at Kinta.

Scott moved to Stigler in 1916 and continued farming until 1927, when he entered the real estate and abstract business, in which he was engaged at the time of his death.

He was a Mason and a member of the I.O.O.F. lodge.

Survivors, besides the widow, include four sons, C. B. Stigler; George W. Jr., Port Arthur, Texas; McCurtain, of the army, and Folsom, of the navy; and three daughters, Katherine Stigler; Yvonne, Washington, D. C., and Verona of Stigler.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete and will be announced by the Mallory funeral home of Stigler.

Julius J. Wyman,

Wilmington, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of April 4, giving the names of your wife and child. You have the thanks of the Commission for your prompt attention to this matter.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 11, 1903.

J. J. Watson,
Springtown, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the affidavit of Mary and J. J. Watson relative to the birth of Mary Watson, August 28, 1903, which it is presumed have been forwarded to this office as an application for the enrollment of the above named child as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

You are advised that under the provisions of the Act of Congress, approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 841), which was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, September 26, 1902, this Commission is now without authority to receive or consider the original application for the enrollment of any person where-ever as a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

- Q When were you married to George Turnbull? A I don't remember when I married him; been four years ago.
Q Have you been married four years? A Yes sir.
Q Have you ever, since you married George Turnbull, personally appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, or at any of the appointments that the Commission has ever had in the Chickasaw or Choctaw Nations, and made application to be enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations?
A Not before the Commission.
Q Is this the first time that you have ever personally appeared before the Commission and testified or attempted to testify as to your rights as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Can you read and write? A No.

BY MR. COBB:

- Q Mrs. Turnbull, have you ever yourself or through the assistance of George Turnbull, your husband, ever filed a written application for enrollment? A Yes sir.
Q When and under what circumstances? A I cannot tell you just when.
Q About when? A About three years ago.
Q State whether or not that application was in writing? A Yes sir.
Q Did you make affidavit to it at all? A I don't remember.
Q Did you swear to it? A Yes sir.

Miss Turnbull,

Q Before whom do you remember? A A fellow by the name of O'Bryan.
Q That was about how many years ago? A Three years ago.

BY THE COMMISSION:

Q Did you read that application? A No sir.
Q Was it read to you? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember the contents of it? A No, I don't remember.
Q What became of it after you read it? A I don't know what they done with it.
Q Do you know whether it was ever sent to the office of the Commission at Muskogee? A No sir, my husband said it was.
Q Who told you? A My husband.
Q You do not know what became of it? A No sir.
Q It was read to you? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember what was in it? A No sir.

BY MR. COBB:

Q Do you remember enough of it to know that it was an application for your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Do you remember that you swore to it before Mr. O'Bryan?
A Yes sir.
Q And that your husband told you that it had been forwarded to Muskogee? A Yes sir.

BY THE COMMISSION:

Q Do you remember what sort of paper the application was made on?
A No sir.
Q Was it a printed blank furnished by the Commission? A To the best of my knowledge it was wrote and printed.
Q A printed blank filled in? A I don't remember.
Q Was it a typewritten paper? A I don't remember; it was read to me.
Q It was read to you? A Yes sir; but I didn't look at it.
Q Was the application for yourself and your child too? A Yes.
Q All together? A Yes sir.
Q On one paper? A Yes sir.
Q And you don't remember whether the paper was printed or blank furnished by the Commission? A It was read or printed, I don't remember which.
Q Was it partly written and partly printed? A I don't know.
Q You don't know whether it was partly written, partly printed; or typewritten? A No sir.
Q Who read it to you? A Mr. O'Bryan.
Q Who is he? A Attorney I reckon.
Q Where? A Here, Tishomingo.
Q Was he a public officer or an attorney? A I don't know.

BY MR. COBB:

"I would like to call the attention of the Commission to the fact that J. E. O'Bryan is a Master in Chancery for the District of which Tishomingo is the recording office; and is an officer of the United States Court, and was in 1901, and upon the date which Mrs. Turnbull claims to have made her application for citizenship.

Q Mrs. Turnbull, the records of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes show that on March 26, 1901, there were filed with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes an application for the enrollment of Jesse James Turnbull, infant son of George W. Turnbull. I will ask you if your application was made at the same time that application was made for the enrollment of your son? A Yes sir.

BY THE COMMISSION:

Q The only application that you ever made was the one at the time you made application for your child, Jesse James? A Yes sir.
Q And you only signed one paper? A Yes sir.
Q And that was the only time you were ever before Mr. O'Bryan in regard to enrollment? A Yes sir.
Q Did you ever go before anybody else, and sign any paper in reference to any enrollment? A No sir.

BY MR. COBB:

Q At the time you signed this one paper, before Mr. O'Bryan, did you believe that you were making application for your son, or for yourself, and your son both? A For myself and son both.

Witness dismissed.

GEORGE W. TURNBULL:
.....

George W. Turnbull, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY THE COMMISSION:

Q What is your name? A George W. Turnbull.
Q How old are you? A I am forty-three years old.
Q Where do you live? A I live at Emet.
Q At Emet? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you been living there? A I have been living there exact about seven years, or eight years I have been living in the Chickasaw Nation. I got a place in the Choctaw Nation and a place there; I have been living there and have just backwards and forwards.
Q Emet is your post office address? A Yes.
Q That is in the Chickasaw Nation; you have been living in Emet six or seven years? A Yes.
Q That is where your home is? A My regular home was at Caddo until I moved here about five years ago.

Etta Turnbull,

- Q You have been living over here in the Chickasaw Nation for the past five or six years? A Yes, about five years.
- Q How long have you been married? A Been married over four years.
- Q Who did you marry? A Etta York.
- Q When were you married to her? A Am married first Wednesday in August, 1901.
- Q Married when? A First Wednesday in August, 1901.
- Q How long have you been married? A I have been married a little over four years, now.
- Q What year is this? A This is 1904. Married in 1901.
- Q How long ago has that been? A About four years.

OBJECTION BY MR. COBB:

"I object to the question as he has already stated when he was married, and the Commission or its clerks can very easily compute the time in which he has been married."

OBJECTION OVERRULED BY THE COMMISSION:

- A I do not know the date; I do not keep any record; I do not remember the date my certificate was issued.
- Q Can you read and write? A Read and write some.
- Q Ever keep a bank account? A No.
- Q How many children have you had by your wife? A Two.
- Q How old is the oldest? A Will be four years old next 20th of November.
- Q When was that child born?

OBJECTION BY MR. COBB:

OBJECTION OVERRULED:

- Q When was the child born? A November 20, I think it was.
- Q Did you ever go with your wife before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory or at any of the appointments that the Commission has had in the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations for the purpose of having your wife enrolled? A Yes, the last enrollment up here is the only time I come. I commenced a statement, and they asked me if I had been enrolled, and I said, "Yes, sir." They asked me then if I had made any application for my wife and child, and I said I had. They asked me what more I want, and that is all. I never had any chance to answer my question and never was any question asked.
- Q When was that? A I don't remember just when it was; some time ago, been over four years; been so long, I don't keep any record just what date it was. Long time over two years ago.
- Q Did you vote here at the time they voted on the Agreement, the Supplemental Agreement? A No, sir.
- Q Where were you then? A At Caddo, I voted there.
- Q Was the time you were here before or after that? A After that.
- Q How long ago was the Supplemental Agreement voted on? A I don't remember just exactly; I don't keep any record of it; I think about 1898 or 1899 somewhere along there, I could not say just when it was.
- Q The time that you say you were before the Commission, was your wife with you? A Yes, sir.

Little Turnbull.

Q You brought her with you? A Yes sir.
Q Where was that? A Here, right upstairs here.

BY MR. COBB:

Q Upstairs in this building? A Yes sir.
Q Was your wife up there with you? A Yes sir.
Q Brought her here to the building? A Yes sir.
Q Did you say you wanted to make an application for her? A Yes sir.

Q Who did you go before that time, do you remember any of the people when you were here in this building? A About the enrollment?

Q Yes. A I could not remember any of the officers about all I remember is Peter Maytubby; he was there, and he said they ought to take the record even if they didn't enroll her.

Q What was Peter Maytubby doing there? A I suppose he was interpreter. I could not say, he was in the back side of the office there and and I could not get to him; after he came out, I asked him in regard to this thing, and he asked me if he had any record of it, and he said he didn't, and he said they ought to take the record any how.

BY MR. BIXBY:

Q Did you see me there at that time? A I don't remember, I seen lots of people there.

Q What kind of looking man was it that asked you the questions? A The man looks sort of like him (pointing to Mr. Beall) only a little taller.

Q You don't think it was Mr. Beall? A No, I don't think it was him.

Q Was it a man that looked like him? A Yes sir.

Q Sure it was not him? A No, looked like him.

Q Sure it was not (Mr. Bixby) A No, it was a young fellow.

Q Have any mustache or whiskers? A No sir.

Q Don't know his name? A No, I don't know none of them.

BY MR. COBB:

Q Mr. Turnbull, from a letter addressed to you under date of July 21, 1904, it appears from the records of the Commission that when you made application for the enrollment of your child, James Turnbull that you made application for the enrollment of the child and not for your wife; did you or did you not, at that time make application for the enrollment of your wife? A I made application for both of them together.

BY MR. BIXBY:

Q Did you make application for both of them on the same paper? A Yes sir.

Q Was it a written paper or printed paper? A It was typewriting, just like this (pointing to typewritten letter).

Q Mr. O'Bryan wrote it himself; it was a paper that Mr. O'Bryan got up? A Yes sir.

Q Wasn't it on a blank furnished by the Commission? A No sir, I tried to get one and could not and he made one.

Ettie Turnbull,

- Q Do you know what Mr. O'Bryan did with that paper? A I suppose sent it off to Muskogee, I seen him put it in an envelope and seal it up, in just about sixty days, I suppose, the answer came, and "Your application for your wife and child was enlisted for enrollment". Well, when I seen that, I rest easy for quite a long time until I come here.
- Q But that letter that you got, from the Commission is lost?
- A Yes sir, that is the one I lost.
- Q You do not know what Mr. O'Bryan did with that letter, that application of yours? A He sent it up.
- Q He told you he did, you did not see him mail it? A No, only he put it in an envelope and sealed it up.

BY MR. COBB:

- Q Did you not receive an answer from the Commission stating that your application for enrollment of your wife and child had been received? A Yes sir.
- Q About what time did you receive that letter from the Commission?
- A I have no recollection.
- Q State as near as you can? A I think some time along in March, about the last of March, 1902. No, I will take that back, yes about 1902, I think.
- Q You stated when you appeared before the Commission at this place, you made application in person for the enrollment of your minor son, at that time did you make application for the enrollment of your wife? A Yes Sir.

WITNESS DISMISSED:

I, Violet P. Hilts, stenographer for the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, after having been duly sworn, do certify that the foregoing transcript is a true and correct translation of my stenographic notes taken before the Commission on September ninth, 1904.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 10 day of September, 1904.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ettie Turnbull as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

From the record herein it appears that the applicant, Ettie Turnbull, appeared in person before the Commission at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, on September 10, 1904, and presented testimony relative to her claim that application was made for her enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641).

She testifies that a written application was made for such enrollment two or three years ago; that the application was sworn to before a man by the name of O'Bryan at Tishomingo, Indian Territory; that she cannot read or write, and that the application was read to her; that she does not remember the contents of it, although she knows it was an application for her enrollment, and that she does not know what became of it except that her husband told her it was sent to Muskogee. That it was an application for the enrollment of herself and child all in one paper. She says positively that she only signed one paper, and that she never appeared before any one else to sign any paper in reference to her enrollment except O'Bryan.

Her husband, George W. Turnbull, testifies that he appeared before the Commission at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, "The last enrollment up here" (November 1902) and was then asked if he had made application for the enrollment of his wife and child and he replied that he had. He first states that this was over four years ago, and then that it was after the supplemental agreement was voted on (September 25, 1902); that his wife was with him at the time, and that he stated he wanted to make application for her enrollment. He does not remember any one who was present except Peter Maytubby, whose testimony was not offered.

He further testifies that he made written application to the Commission for the enrollment of his wife and child, and that the application for both was made on a typewritten paper which was prepared by Mr. O'Bryan; that it was not written on a blank furnished by the Commission; that he understood O'Bryan sent it to Muskogee. He also testifies that he received a letter from the Commission sometime about the last of March 1902, in which it is stated that the application for his wife and child had been received and that he had lost the letter.

From the records of the Commission it appears that on March 25, 1901, written application was received at the office of the Commission in Muskogee for the enrollment of Jesse James Turnbull, the infant son of George W. Turnbull and Ettie Turnbull. In said application no mention whatever is made of Ettie Turnbull, except that it is stated that she is the mother of the child for whom application is made. It is not sworn to before anyone by the name of O'Bryan. The records of the Commission do not show that any other application was ever received from George W. Turnbull. The Mr. O'Bryan referred to in the testimony of Ettie Turnbull and George W. Turnbull was not used as a witness, although the evidence shows that he resided at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, on September 10, 1904.

It further appears that on March 28, 1901, receipt of said application was acknowledged by the Commission, and in said letter it is stated that the child had been listed for enrollment. This doubtless is the letter referred to by him in his testimony, and nothing whatever is stated therein relative to any application for the enrollment of his wife or to the effect that she has been listed for enrollment.

The Commission is of the opinion that the evidence fails to establish any application made by or for the said Ettie Turnbull for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and that it has now no power or authority to receive or consider any application for her enrollment, and that it should, therefore, decline to receive any such application, and

PER

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Waukegan, Indian Territory,

Gentlemen:

November 19, 1904, the Commissioner of Indian Affairs submitted the papers in the matter of the application made September 10, 1904, for the enrollment of Ettie Turnbull as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation by intermarriage, and recommended that your decision adverse to the applicant be affirmed.

It appears that the applicant was married to George W. Turnbull, a citizen by blood of the said nation, several years prior to the making of the application of September 10, 1904. Evidence of the marriage was not furnished.

In rejecting the application November 7, 1904, you stated that the evidence fails to establish that any application was made by or for Ettie Turnbull for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of said nation, within the time limited by the act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641).

Whether an application was made for Ettie Turnbull's enrollment by name, at the time asserted by Turnbull and his wife, ^{it} does appear that on March 25, 1901 a written application was received by you for the enrollment of Jeanne Jeanne Turnbull, the infant son of said George W. Turnbull and said Ettie

Turnbull. While, as it appears from your decision, no mention appears to have been made in this application of Etta Turnbull, "except that it is stated that she is the mother of the child for whom application is made", the Department finds the application sufficient to answer the requirements of the act of July 1, 1902. There was at that time no question as to the existence of the child's mother, and the presumption should have been that she was Turnbull's wife.

Your decision is not approved, and the case is remanded, with directions to receive the application and adjudicate the case on its merits.

A copy of the Commissioner's letter is inclosed.

Respectfully,

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I enclose herewith, a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated November 7, 1904, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation by Ettie Turnbull.

November 7, 1904, the Commission decided adversely to the applicant.

The record shows that the applicant first appeared before the Commission September 10, 1904, and made application as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation; that she was married ⁱⁿ August 1901 to George Turnbull, a duly enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

In view of the record, and of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 841), the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicant is recommended.

Very Respectfully,
W.A. Jones,
Commissioner.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ettie Turnbull as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that on August 13, 1900 the applicant was lawfully married to George W. Turnbull, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation whose name appears as number 13724 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the date of said marriage the applicant was a resident in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation and the said George W. Turnbull was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they had lived together continuously as husband and wife in the Chickasaw Nation since said date up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Ettie Turnbull should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of an application for enrollment and citizenship of the Chickasaw Nation of George Eugene Turnbull, the infant son of George Turnbull and Kansas Whalin, and the same is returned to you herewith for the reason that you state Kansas Whalin, the mother of this child, is not your wife, and that she is not a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. The records of this Commission do not show that you have ever been listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. George W. Turnbull, thirty seven years of age, of Cato, Indian Territory, was listed for enrollment by this Commission as a Chickasaw, October 10th, 1895, and if you are this party, the Commission could not accept the application for enrollment of your son unless you were married to Kansas Whalin, and had filed with this Commission either the original or a certified copy of your marriage license and certificate.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 24th ultimo requesting to be advised as to the status of George Turnbull and whether or not the records show him to be part Choctaw and part Chickasaw. You also request to be advised the age of Elmore Tyson at the time he was listed for enrollment.

You are informed that the records of this office show that George W. Turnbull, 37 years of age of Caddo, Indian Territory was duly listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation October 10, 1898. His name was found upon Choctaw census record number 2 page 449, and was transferred from the Choctaw to the Chickasaw roll by this Commission.

You are further informed that the records of this office show that Elmore Tyson, 11 years of age, son of Tyson Gubbish and Sallie Goke, deceased was listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, September 30, 1898.

James M. Johnson,

P. O. Box #294,

Tishomingo, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 15th instant quoting from our letter of March 25, 1901, written to George W. Turnbull acknowledging receipt of the application for enrollment, as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, of Jesse James Turnbull, infant son of George W. and Etta Turnbull, born November 20, 1900; and also acknowledging receipt of the certificate of marriage between George Turnbull and Edie York.

It is stated in your letter that Edie York and Etta Turnbull are one and the same person, and you request to be advised what proof is required in order that Etta Turnbull's rights can be considered by this Commission and she be enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that it does not appear from our records that Etta Turnbull, wife of George W. Turnbull, has ever made an application for enrollment as a citizen of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation, and your attention is invited to the provisions of Section 34 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 641), which was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902, a copy of which is enclosed herewith.

Under the above legislation referred to, you will understand that the Commission is now without authority to receive, or consider, original applications for enrollment of any person who, however, as a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation.

George W. Turnbull,
Tishomingo, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 14, in which you state that application was made for the enrollment of your wife, Ettie Turnbull, as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, at the same time your child, Jesse James Turnbull, was enrolled.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that on March 25, 1901, there was filed with this Commission the formal application for the enrollment of Jesse James Turnbull, infant son of George W. Turnbull, prepared upon one of the blanks distributed by the Commission for this purpose, accompanied by the certificate of the marriage of George Turnbull and Etie York.

It does not appear, however, that any letter was written transmitting this application for the enrollment of Jesse James Turnbull, nor that any application for the enrollment of Ettie Turnbull was made at that time, or subsequently.

Under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, the Commission is now without authority to receive or con-

Dear Sirs:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letters of June 29 and July 7, 1906, relative to the application for the enrollment of Osi Dulaney Turnbull, child of George and Survilla Turnbull.

You are advised that affidavits heretofore forwarded to the birth of this child have been received and filed as an application for her enrollment. You are informed, however, that it will be necessary that affidavits be forwarded to the identity of George Turnbull, the father of said child, and also the affidavit of the physician or mid-wife in attendance at the birth of said child, and affidavits of two disinterested witnesses who know of the date of her birth, the names of her parents, and that she was living March 4, 1906, in lieu of the affidavit of the mother.

It will also be necessary that evidence of the marriage of George Turnbull to Survilla Turnbull be forwarded in the matter of the enrollment of said child.

Respectfully,

Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Bedford Anderson, the infant son of Tandy and Lallie Anderson, born June 25, 1901, and the same is returned to you herewith for further information relative to the mother of this child. It is stated in the affidavit of the mother that her name is Lallie Anderson, that she is 18 years of age, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and the lawful wife of Tandy Anderson, who is a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that the records of this office have been carefully examined and the name of Lallie Anderson is not found therein. You are further requested to state when and where application was made for her enrollment, her full maiden name, the names of other members of her family who were listed for enrollment at the same time, and such other information as you may have which will enable this office to identify the mother of this child as duly listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. In the statement made in the affidavit of the mother be correct, it will be necessary that you supply this office with either your original records license and certificate of marriage, or other legal evidence of the marriage between yourself and Lillian Anderson as the basis for making the enrollment of her child based on that of her married name.

You are further informed that the records of the Commission show that on October 10, 1933, Tandy Anderson, 25 years of age, age of Hilington Anderson, deceased, and Louise Hansen, was listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

Upon review of the application together with the information requested herein, and either your original marriage license and certificate, or certified copy thereof, or other legal evidence of your marriage, the application for the enrollment of your child will receive further consideration.

DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE,
WASHINGTON.

February 19, 1907.

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to communicate to you my opinion in certain Choctaw Indian citizenship cases, the first two submitted by your letter of May 29, 1906, and the others by the direction of the President under date of January 19, 1907.

1. The first case is that of Myrtie Randolph and her brother W. J. Thompson, in regard to which you say:

Myrtie Randolph and W. J. Thompson are children of Giles Thompson, white, intermarried in the Choctaw Nation in Mississippi prior to the treaty of September 27, 1830, (7 Stat., 333), and was one of the parties named by supplementary article II (ib. 340,) as entitled to a section and a half, reserved to him from the ceded lands, to be so selected as "to include their present residence and improvement." His first and second wives were Choctaws. His name appears on page 64, volume 7, American State Papers (Public Lands), as a beneficiary of Article XIX of the treaty of September 27, 1830, and on page 28, volume 1 of the record in suit of the Choctaw Nation v. United States, Court of Claims. He was registered under the treaty as citizen of the Choctaw Nation, Neshulatubbee's District, and with his family was transported under the treaty as Choctaws, at expense of the United States, from Mississippi to the Choctaw Nation, west, prior to October 24, 1833, when he petitioned the President, from Doakesville, near the Red River, in the southern part of the Choctaw Nation, to approve sale of his Mississippi lands to James Gay, of Mississippi, and for issue of patent therefor (copy A enclosed). In the Choctaw Nation, west, in Indian Territory, in 1863, in accordance to Choctaw law, he married a white woman, citizen of the United States, of whom the applicants were born. He was living October 19, 1866, and was paid by the Choctaw Nation for Deeves furnished June, 1865. (Copy of act of Council of October 19, 1865, is enclosed, B). He continued to live in the Nation, and was recognized as a citizen, until his death, aged seventy-six years, and his estate was administered in the Choctaw courts as that of an Indian and within their jurisdiction. The applicants--his children--were born in the Choctaw Nation, were admitted to and attended the Choctaw schools as Choctaws, and in all respects enjoyed and were accorded the privileges of native born Choctaws. The applicants were enrolled by Choctaw Committee on Citizenship in 1892, as Choctaw citizens. The Department is not yet advised whether they are borne on any other of the Choctaw rolls. They settled and improved tribal lands, as the father before had done in Mississippi, as Choctaws, erected homes, and were never ousted or objected to or regarded as intruders.

September 8, 1896, these applicants and others applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for enrollment under the act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321-339) and December 7, 1896, were denied. Applicants appealed to the United States Court, Southern District, Indian Territory which, January 18, 1898, reversed the commission, and admitted the applicants. From this judgment the nation appealed and the judgment was affirmed (reported as Stephens v. Cherokee Nation and Choctaw Nation v. Robinson, 174 U.S., 445, foot-note page 469, case No. 887; same v. Randolph et al.). Subsequently, under the act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641, 646-9), the matter was brought by appeal of the nations to the Choctaw-Chickasaw Citizenship Court, which, November 29, 1904, denied the application--copy of opinion wherein and in Wall v. Choctaw Nation et al. and in F. H. Bounds v. Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, wherein both were founded, are enclosed (C. D. K.).

The validity and finality of the Citizenship Court are therefore a vital feature of this case. In regard to its judgment you say in your letter:

Hearing upon the validity of this judgment, your attention is called to the fact that the act of June 10, 1896, gave no power to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes to purge the tribal rolls, which were by the act confirmed. Power to purge the rolls was first conferred on the Commission by the act of June 7, 1897 (30 Stat., 84), and further by section 21, act of June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495, 502). Wherefore this Department holds that no jurisdiction was given the Commission, or to the courts on appeal therefrom, to exclude persons having tribal recognition and borne on the tribal rolls, but that such persons, notwithstanding prior adverse action by the Commission, or the courts, are entitled to enrollment under the act of 1893 and supplementary acts, unless their inscription on the tribal rolls was procured by fraud or was without authority of law. Such has been the rule of this Department since decision in the case of Wiley Adams, May 21, 1903, discussed and concurred in by the Assistant Attorney-General, Interior Department (Opinions of March 24, 1906), in cases of Benjamin J. Vaughn and Mary Elizabeth Martin. In Vaughn's case counsel for the nation conceded to it as the proper rule.

To determine the validity and the finality of the judgment of the Citizenship Court, as well as other questions arising in these cases, it is necessary to consider carefully the entire legislation of the Congress on this subject.

The act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stat. 321, 336), directed the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes in the Indian Territory to continue the exercise of the authority theretofore conferred upon them to negotiate with such tribes for the extinguishment of the tribal title to their lands, by the cession of the same or a part thereof to the United States, or their allotment in severalty to the members of such tribes, with a view to the ultimate creation of a State or States embracing such lands.

That act also provided:

That said commission is further authorized and directed to proceed at once to hear and determine the application of all persons who may apply to them for citizenship in any of said nations, and after such hearing they shall determine the right of such applicant to be so admitted and enrolled; Provided, however, That such application shall be made to such Commissioners within three months after the passage of this Act. The said Commission shall decide all such applications within ninety days after the same shall be made. That in determining all such applications said commission shall respect all laws of the several nations or tribes, not inconsistent with the laws of the United States, and all treaties with either of said nations or tribes, and shall give due force and effect to the rolls, usages, and customs of each of said nations or tribes. And ~~provided, further,~~ That the rolls of citizenship of the several tribes as now existing are hereby confirmed, and any person who shall claim to be entitled to be added to said rolls as a citizen of either of said tribes and whose right thereto has either been denied or not acted upon, or any citizen who may within three months from and after the passage of this Act desire such citizenship, may apply to the legally constituted court or committee designated by the several tribes for such citizenship, and such court or committee shall determine such application within thirty days from the date thereof.

In the performance of such duties said commission shall have power and authority to administer oaths, to issue process for and compel the attendance of witnesses, and to send for persons and papers, and all depositions and affidavits and other evidence in any form whatsoever heretofore taken where the witnesses giving said testimony are dead or now residing beyond the limits of said Territory, and to use every fair and reasonable means within their reach for the purpose of determining the rights of persons claiming such citizenship, or to protect any of said nations from fraud or wrong, and the rolls so prepared by them shall be hereafter held and considered to be the true and correct rolls of persons entitled to the rights of citizenship in said several tribes: Provided, That if the tribe, or any person, be aggrieved with the decision of the tribal authorities or the commission provided for in this Act, it or he may appeal from such decision to the United States district court: Provided, however, That the appeal shall be taken within sixty days, and the judgment of the court shall be final.

That the said commission, after the expiration of six months, shall cause a complete roll of citizenship of each of said nations to be made up from their records, and add thereto the names of citizens whose right may be conferred under this Act, and said rolls shall be, and are hereby, made rolls of citizenship of said nations or tribes, subject, however, to the determination of the United States courts, as provided herein.

The commission is hereby required to file the lists of members as they finally approve them with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs to remain there for use as the final judgment of the duly constituted authorities.

The act of June 9, 1897 (30 Stat. 62, 64) contained this provision:

That said commission shall continue to exercise all authority heretofore conferred on it by law to negotiate with the Five Tribes, and any agreement made by it with any one of said Tribes, when ratified, shall operate to suspend any provisions of this Act if in conflict therewith as to said nation. Provided, That the words "rolls of citizenship", as used in the Act of June tenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, making appropriations for current and contingent expenses of the Indian Department and fulfilling treaty stipulations with various Indian tribes for the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, shall be construed to mean the last authenticated rolls of each tribe which have been approved by the council of the nation, and the descendants of those appearing on such rolls, and such additional names and their descendants as have been subsequently added, either by the council of such nation, the duly authorized Courts thereof, or the commission under the Act of June tenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six. And all the other names appearing upon such rolls shall be open to investigation by such commission for a period of six months after the passage of this Act. And any name appearing on such rolls and not confirmed by the Act of June tenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, as herein construed, may be stricken therefrom by such commission where the party affected shall have ten days previous notice that said commission will investigate and determine the right of such party to remain upon such roll as a citizen of such nation: Provided, also, That any one whose name shall be stricken from the roll by such commission shall have the right of appeal, as provided in the Act of June tenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six.

The Act of June 28, 1896 (30 Stat. 495, 502-3), provided:

Sec. 21. That in making rolls of citizenship of the several tribes as required by law, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes is authorized and directed to take the roll of Cherokee citizens of eighteen hundred and eighty (not including freedmen) as the only roll intended to be confirmed by this and preceding Acts of Congress, and to enroll all persons now living whose names are found on said roll, and all descendants born since the date of said roll to persons whose names are found thereon; and all persons who have been enrolled by the tribal authorities who have heretofore made permanent settlement in the Cherokee Nation whose parents, by reason of their Cherokee blood, have been lawfully admitted to citizenship by the tribal authorities, and who were minors when their parents were so admitted; and they shall investigate the right of all other persons whose names are found on any other rolls and omit all such as may have been placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law, enrolling only such as may have lawful right thereto, and their descendants born since such rolls were made, with such inter-married white persons as may be entitled to citizenship under Cherokee laws.

Said commission is authorized and directed to make correct rolls of the citizens by blood of all the other tribes, eliminating from the tribal rolls such names as may have been placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law, enrolling such only as may have lawful right thereto, and their descendants born since such rolls were made, with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to Cherokee and Chickasaw citizenship under the treaties and the laws of said tribes.

The rolls so made, when approved by the Secretary of the Interior, shall be final, and the persons whose names are found thereon, with their descendants thereafter born to them, with such persons as may intermarry according to tribal laws, shall alone constitute the several tribes which they represent.

The act of May 31, 1900 (31 Stat. 21,236), provided:

That said commission shall continue to exercise all authority heretofore conferred upon it by law, but it shall not receive, consider, or make any record of any application of any person for enrollment as a member of any tribe in the Indian Territory who has not been a recognized citizen thereof, and duly and lawfully enrolled or admitted as such, and its refusal of such application shall be final when approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

The act of March 3, 1901 (31 Stat. 1066, 1077), contained this provision:

The rolls made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, when approved by the Secretary of the Interior, shall be final, and the persons whose names are found thereon shall alone constitute the several tribes which they represent; and the Secretary of the Interior is authorized and directed to fix a time by agreement with said tribes or either of them for closing said rolls, but upon failure or refusal of said tribes or any of them to agree thereto, then the Secretary of the Interior shall fix a time for closing said rolls, after which no name shall be added thereto.

The act of July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 641) ratified an agreement made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes with the Commission representing the Cherokee and Chickasaw Tribes. This agreement was subsequently ratified by those two nations as required therein. In regard to rolls of citizenship it provided:

27. The rolls of the Choctaw and Chickasaw citizens and Choctaw and Chickasaw freedmen shall be made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, in strict compliance with the act of Congress approved June 22, 1896 (30 Stat., 498), and the act of Congress approved May 31, 1900 (31 Stat., 221), except as herein otherwise provided: Provided, That no person claiming right to enrollment and allotment and distribution of tribal property, by virtue of a judgment of the United States court in the Indian Territory under the act of June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 521), and which right is contested by legal proceedings instituted under the provisions of this agreement, shall be enrolled or receive allotment of lands or distribution of tribal property until his right thereto has been finally determined.

28. The names of all persons living on the date of the final ratification of this agreement entitled to be enrolled as provided in section 27 hereof shall be placed upon the rolls made by said Commission; and no child born thereafter to a citizen or freedman and no person intermarried thereafter to a citizen shall be entitled to enrollment or to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws.

29. No person whose name appears upon the rolls made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes as a citizen or freedman of any other tribe shall be enrolled as a citizen or freedman of the Choctaw or Chickasaw nations.

30. For the purpose of expediting the enrollment of the Choctaw and Chickasaw citizens and Choctaw and Chickasaw freedmen, the said Commission shall, from time to time, and as early as practicable, forward to the Secretary of the Interior lists upon which shall be placed the names of those persons found by the Commission to be entitled to enrollment. The lists thus prepared, when approved by the Secretary of the Interior, shall constitute a part and parcel of the final roll of citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes and of Choctaw and Chickasaw freedmen, upon which allotment of land and distribution of other tribal property shall be made as herein provided. Lists shall be made up and forwarded when contents of whatever character shall have been determined, and when there shall have been submitted to and approved by the Secretary of the Interior lists embracing names of all those lawfully entitled to enrollment, the rolls shall be deemed complete. The rolls so prepared shall be made in quintuplicate, one to be deposited with the Secretary of the Interior, one with the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, one with the principal chief of the Choctaw Nation, one with the governor of the Chickasaw Nation, and one to remain with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

The Secretary of the Interior.

31. It being claimed and insisted by the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations that the United States courts in the Indian Territory acting under the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, have admitted persons to citizenship or to enrollment as such citizens in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations, respectively, without notice of the proceedings in such courts being given to each of said nations; and it being insisted by said nations that, in such proceedings, notice to each of said nations was indispensable, and it being claimed and insisted by said nations that the proceedings in the United States courts in the Indian Territory, under the said Act of June 10, 1896, should have been confined to a review of the action of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, upon the papers and evidence submitted to such commission, and should not have extended to a trial de novo of the question of citizenship; and it being desirable to finally determine these questions the two nations, jointly, or either of said nations acting separately and making the other a party defendant, may, within ninety days after this agreement becomes effectual, by a bill in equity filed in the Choctaw and Chickasaw citizenship court hereinafter named, seek the annulment and vacation of all such decisions by said courts. Ten persons so admitted to citizenship or enrollment by said courts, with notice to one but not to both of said nations, shall be made defendants to said suit as representatives of the entire class of persons similarly situated, the number of such persons being too numerous to require all of them to be made individual parties to the suit; but any person so situated may, upon his application, be made a party defendant to the suit. Notice of the institution of said suit shall be personally served upon the chief executive of the defendant nation, if either nation be made a party defendant as aforesaid, and upon each of said ten representative defendants, and shall also be published for a period of four weeks in at least two weekly newspapers having general circulation in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations. Such notice shall set forth the nature and prayer of the bill, with the time for answering the same, which shall not be less than thirty days after the last publication. Said suit shall be determined at the earliest practicable time, shall be confined to a final determination of the questions of law here named, and shall be without prejudice to the determination of any charge or claim that the admission of such persons to citizenship or enrollment by said United States courts in the Indian Territory was wrongfully obtained as provided in the next section. In the event said citizenship judgments or decisions are annulled or vacated in the test suit hereinbefore authorized, because of either or both of the irregularities claimed and insisted upon by said nations as aforesaid, then the files, papers and proceedings in any citizenship case in which the judgment or decision is so annulled or vacated, shall, upon written application therefor, made within ninety days thereafter by any party thereto, who is thus deprived of a favorable judgment upon his claimed citizenship, be transferred and certified to said citizenship court by the court having custody and control of such files, papers and proceedings, and upon the filing in such citizenship court of the files, papers and proceedings in any such citizenship case, accompanied by due proof that notice in writing of the transfer and certification thereof has been given to the chief executive officer of each of said nations, said citizenship case shall be docketed in said citizenship court, and such further proceedings shall be had therein in that court as ought to have been had in the court to which the same was taken on appeal from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, and as if no judgment or decision had been rendered therein.

32. Said citizenship court shall also have appellate jurisdiction over all judgments of the courts in Indian Territory rendered under said Act of Congress of June tenth, eighteen hundred and ninety six, admitting persons to citizenship or to enrollment as citizens in either of said nations. The right of appeal may be exercised by the said nations jointly or by either of them acting separately at any time within six months after this agreement is finally ratified. In the exercise of such appellate jurisdiction said citizenship court shall be authorized to consider, review, and revise all such judgments, both as to findings of fact and conclusions of law, and may, whenever in its judgment substantial justice will thereby be subserved, permit either party to any such appeal to take and present such further evidence as may be necessary to enable said court to determine the very right of the controversy. And said court shall have power to make all needful rules and regulations prescribing the manner of taking and conducting said appeals and of taking additional evidence therein. Such citizenship courts shall also have like appellate jurisdiction and authority over judgments rendered by such courts under the said act denying claims to citizenship or to enrollment as citizens in either of said nations. Such appeals shall be taken within the time hereinafter specified and shall be taken, conducted and disposed of in the same manner as appeals by the said nations, save that notice of appeals by citizenship claimants shall be served upon the chief executive officer of both nations: Provided, That paragraphs thirty-one, thirty-two and thirty-three hereof shall go into effect immediately after the passage of this Act of Congress.

33. A court is hereby created to be known as the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, the existence of which shall terminate upon the final determination of the suits and proceedings named in the last two preceding sections, but in no event later than the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and three. Said court shall have all authority and power necessary to the hearing and determination of the suits and proceedings so committed to its jurisdiction, including the authority to issue and enforce all requisite writs, process and orders, and to prescribe rules and regulations for the transactions of its business. It shall also have all the powers of a circuit court of the United States in compelling the production of books, papers and documents, the attendance of witnesses, and in punishing contempt, except where herein otherwise expressly provided, the pleadings, practice and proceedings in said court shall conform, as near as may be, to the pleadings, practice and proceedings in equity causes in the Circuit Courts of the United States. The testimony shall be taken in court or before one of the judges, so far as practicable. Each judge shall be authorized to grant, in vacation or recess, interlocutory orders and to hear and dispose of interlocutory motions not affecting the substantial merits of the case. Said court shall have a chief judge and two associate judges, a clerk, a stenographer, who shall be deputy clerk, and a bailiff. The judges shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, and shall each receive a compensation of five thousand dollars per annum, and his necessary and actual traveling and personal expenses while engaged in the performance of his duties. The clerk, stenographer, and bailiff shall be appointed by the judges, or a majority of them, and shall receive the following yearly compensation: Clerk, two thousand four hundred dollars; stenographer, twelve hundred dollars; bailiff, nine hundred dollars. The compensation of all these officers shall be paid by the United States in monthly installments. The moneys to pay said compensation are hereby appropriated, and there is also appropriated the sum of five thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of the Interior, to pay such contingent expenses of said court and its officers as to such Secretary may seem proper. Said court shall have a seal, shall sit at such place or places in the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations as the judges may designate, and shall hold public sessions beginning the first Monday in each month, so far as may be practicable or necessary. Each judge and the clerk and deputy clerk shall be authorized to administer oaths. All writs and process issued by said court shall be served by the United States marshal for the district in which the service is to be had. The fees for serving process and the fees of witnesses shall be paid by the party at whose instance such process is issued or such witnesses are subpoenaed, and the rate or amount of such fees shall be the same as is allowed in civil causes in the circuit court of the United States for the western district of Arkansas. No fees shall be charged by the clerk or other officers of said court. The clerk of the United States court in Indian Territory, having custody and control of the files, papers, and proceedings in the original citizenship cases, shall receive a fee of two dollars and fifty cents for transferring and certifying to the citizenship court the files, papers, and proceedings in each case, without regard to the number of persons whose citizenship is involved therein, and said fee shall be paid by the person applying for such transfer and certification. The judgment of the citizenship court in any or all of the suits or proceedings so committed to its jurisdiction shall be final. All expenses necessary to the proper conduct, on behalf of the nations, of the suits and proceedings provided for in this and the two preceding sections shall be incurred under the direction of the executives of the two nations, and the Secretary of the Interior is hereby authorized, upon certificate of said executives, to pay such expenses as in his judgment are reasonable and necessary out of any of the joint funds of said nations in the Treasury of the United States.

It appears that the agreement in these paragraphs provides for the establishment of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Citizenship Court, and gives it jurisdiction of a test suit to annul and vacate the decisions of the United States courts in the Indian Territory admitting persons to citizenship and enrolling them as citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations, respectively, on the ground of want of notice to both of said nations and because the United States courts tried such cases ~~de novo~~ with a right in the event such judgments should be annulled because of either or both of the irregularities mentioned, on the part of any party thus deprived of a favorable judgment to remove his case to the Citizenship Court, where such further proceedings were to be had therein "as ought to have been had in the court to which the case was taken on appeal from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and if no judgment or decision had been rendered therein; and also appellate jurisdiction over all judgments of the courts in Indian Territory, rendered under said act of Congress of June tenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-six, admitting persons to citizenship or to enrollment in either of said nations." In the exercise of such appellate jurisdiction the citizenship court was authorized to consider, review, and revise all such judgments, both as to findings of fact and conclusions of law, and may, whenever in its judgment substantial justice will thereby be subserved, permit either party to any such appeal to take and present such further evidence as may be necessary to enable said court to determine the very right of the controversy."

It will be noted that the agreement further provides (paragraph 33) that "the judgment of the citizenship court in any or all of the suits or proceedings so committed to its jurisdiction shall be final."

The agreement also contained this provision:

34. During the ninety days first following the date of the final ratification of this agreement, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment only of persons whose names are on the tribal rolls but who have not heretofore been enrolled by said Commission, commonly known as "delinquents", and such intermarried white persons as may have married recognized citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in accordance with the tribal laws, customs and usages on or before the date of the passage of this Act of Congress, and such infant children as may have been born to recognized and enrolled citizens on or before the date of the final ratification of this agreement; but the application of no person whatsoever for enrollment shall be received after the expiration of the said ninety days: Provided, That nothing in this section shall apply to any person or persons making application for enrollment as Mississippi Choctaws, for whom provision has heretofore been made.

By the act of April 21, 1904 (33 Stat. 159, 204), it was provided that the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes should conclude its work and terminate on or before July 1, 1906, and cease to exist on that date, the powers theretofore conferred

By the act of March 3, 1906 (33 Stat., 1042, 1060), it was provided "that the work of completing the unfinished business, if any, of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes shall devolve upon the Secretary of the Interior, and that all the powers heretofore granted to the said Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes are hereby conferred upon the said Secretary on and after the first of July, nineteen hundred and five."

By the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 137), it was provided

That after the approval of this act no person shall be enrolled as a citizen or freedman of the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, Creek, or Seminole tribes of Indians in the Indian Territory, except as herein otherwise provided, unless application for enrollment was made prior to December first, nineteen hundred and five, and the records in charge of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes shall be conclusive evidence as to the fact of such application; and no motion to reopen or reconsider any citizenship case, in any of said tribes, shall be entertained unless filed with the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes within sixty days after the date of the order or decision sought to be reconsidered except as to decisions made prior to the passage of this act, in which cases such motion shall be made within sixty days after the passage of this act. x x x x x

By that act the rolls of citizenship of the several tribes were required to be completed by March 4, 1907.

After very carefully considering this legislation, in the light of the circumstances under which it was enacted, I am constrained to the conclusion that the Citizenship Court had jurisdiction of the cases now under consideration, and that its judgment therein is final.

By the act of June 10, 1896, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes was "authorized and directed to proceed at once to hear and determine the application of all persons who may apply to them for citizenship in any of said nations." It is true that this act also confirmed the then existing rolls of the several tribes, but the question whether an applicant was, as matter of fact, already duly enrolled upon one of the rolls so confirmed constituted, in my opinion, an issue upon which the Commission was authorized and required to pass. The applicant may be fairly held to have waived by his application the conclusiveness of the confirmation of the rolls in his case.

Independently of any such waiver, I do not see how the proposition that the Commission did not have jurisdiction of the case of a person whose name was upon a tribal roll can be maintained, in the face of the provision of the act of June 10, 1896, that "in determining all such applications said Commission shall . . . give due force and effect to the rolls, usages and customs of each of said nations or tribes." I think that act left it to the Commission to determine whether or not the applicant was upon a roll which was confirmed, and evidently it did not so hold in these cases.

It is unnecessary, however, to determine what might have been the effect of an adverse judgment in the case of an applicant whose name was upon a roll so confirmed, for such confirmation was certainly and very materially modified by the act of June 7, 1897, and apparently altogether withdrawn by the act of June 20, 1898. The act of June 7, 1897, provided that the words "rolls of citizenship" as used in the act of June 10, 1896, should be construed to mean the "last authenticated rolls of each tribe which have been approved by the council of the nation." I am informed that there never was any such an authenticated roll of the Choctaw Tribe, either at the time of the passage of the act of June 18, 1896, or subsequently thereto. Moreover, by the act of June 28, 1896, it was provided that in making rolls of citizenship of the several tribes, the Commission should take the Cherokee roll of 1890 as the only roll intended to be confirmed by that and preceding acts of Congress: it seems to be clear from the further provisions of the Act that the Congress did not here refer to the Cherokee rolls only but had in mind those of all the Tribes.

To my mind, however, the decisive consideration is that Congress, knowing there were certain cases of contested citizenship in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, referred these cases, under carefully defined conditions, to the Citizenship Court and made the determination of that Court in these cases final. This provision of law repealed, as to cases in this category, any inconsistent provisions (if any there were) in the act of 1896 or any other prior act. These cases were unquestionably within the terms of the law; the claimants had been admitted to citizenship by decisions of the United States courts, and it seems clear that, under the agreement with the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations ratified by the act of July 3, 1902, it was intended that the Citizenship Court should have a revisory jurisdiction of judgments of the United States courts in the Indian Territory in citizenship cases, irrespective of the grounds on which these suits had been entertained by the said courts. That agreement was made after the confirmation given to the tribal rolls had been qualified if not withdrawn, and, we must presume, with a knowledge of the fact that the Commission, under the act of June 10, 1896, had exercised jurisdiction in the case of persons whose names appeared upon some of the rolls of the tribes. The action seems to show that Congress did not intend to confirm any roll of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes, but, however, that may be when, with a knowledge of all that had gone before, it created the Citizenship Court, this was done, in my opinion, with the evident purpose of giving it jurisdiction of all citizenship cases which had been decided by the United States courts for the Indian Territory on appeal from the judgments of the Commission. As neither Congress nor the Nations made any distinction in the act and agreement referred to as to the cases of persons whose names were on a tribal roll which might have been confirmed by the act of June 10, 1896, if Congress had not decided otherwise, I do not think any other authority can make this distinction. Indeed, as I have suggested, the applicants themselves, having voluntarily submitted to the jurisdiction of the Commission, might be fairly held estopped to now deny it.

I understand that it is not contended, nor do I think it could be successfully maintained, that any authority to review the judgments of the Citizenship Court was intended to be conferred upon you by Congress when it made the rolls, as finally compiled, subject to your approval (see paragraph 30 of the agreement rati-filed by the act of July 1, 1900). Neither do I think that the provision in the act of April 26, 1906, above quoted, as to enrolling persons and entertaining motions to reopen or reconsider citizenship cases, was intended to recognize or confer any such authority the purpose of that provision being simply to limit the time in which the authority previously conferred might be exercised. To hold thus would be to treat the later act as a repeal of so much of the former as expressly declared the judgments of the Citizenship Court to be final, which seems to be untenable.

This disposes of the cases of Myrtle Randolph and her brother W. J. Thompson: whatever their intrinsic merits, these claims have been finally decided adversely to the claimants by the judgment of the Citizenship Court.

2. The second case is that of Cyrus H. Kingsbury and Lucy H. Littlepage, in regard to whom you say:

Cyrus H. Kingsbury and Lucy H. Littlepage are children of John Parker-Kingsbury and wife, Hannah Mariah, white, affiliated by act of the Choctaw Council of November 15, 1894, which enacted:

That all rights, privileges and immunities of Choctaw citizens are hereby granted unto John Parker-Kingsbury and to his wife Hannah Mariah, and they shall enjoy all the benefits to which the citizens of this nation may hereafter be entitled, except in the participation of any sum of money which may now be due the nation under treaty stipulations heretofore made.

Both applicants were born in the Choctaw Nation and have always resided there as its recognized citizens. Both are on the tribal Choctaw 1894 census roll, Atoka County, Nos. 819, 821. September 7, 1894, they applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the act of June 10, 1896, were enrolled, and no appeal was taken. Cyrus H. Kingsbury is on the 1894 Choctaw census roll. Lucy H. Littlepage is on the partial roll of Choctaw citizens by blood, and her husband, Patrick M. Littlepage, is on the roll of intermarried citizens--both rolls approved by the Secretary of the Interior, October 21, 1904. Patent, signed and executed by the principal chief of the Choctaw Nation, conveying to Cyrus M. Kingsbury allotted tribal lands as a citizen by blood, is now before the Secretary of the Interior for approval, but is not yet approved, or delivered. No objection to occupation of tribal lands was ever made against either applicant as an intruder.

Paragraph 27 of the agreement with the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations ratified by the act of July 1, 1906, provides that the rolls of Choctaw and Chickasaw citizens shall be made by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes "in strict compliance" with the acts of June 26, 1898, and May 31, 1900.

Section 21 of the act of June 26, 1898, after providing that in making rolls of citizenship of the several tribes the Commission shall take the roll of Cherokee citizens of 1886 as the only roll intended to be confirmed by that and preceding acts of Congress, and providing for the enrollment of the Cherokees, authorizes and directs the Commission "to make correct rolls of the citizens by blood of all the other tribes, eliminating from the tribal rolls such names as may have been placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law, enrolling such only as may have lawful right thereto, and their descendants born since such rolls were made, with such intermarried white persons as may be entitled to Choctaw and Chickasaw citizenship under the treaties and the laws of said tribes."

It might be held that the only white persons intended to be enrolled by this act were such intermarried ones as were entitled to citizenship under the treaties and laws of the tribes,

if it were not for the reference to the tribal rolls, on which as appears from your statement as to these parties, there were undoubtedly the names of adopted whites. The only names which the Act declares shall be eliminated from the tribal rolls are those placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law, and it is not suggested that the names of these parties were open to either of these objections.

Light, it seems to me, is thrown on this matter by the act of May 31, 1900, which was also directed to be strictly complied with in making the rolls of citizenship of these tribes.

That act is plainly intended to be of a restrictive nature, yet a fair construction of it would seem to authorize the enrollment of these parties. It provides that the Commission shall continue to exercise all authority theretofore conferred upon it by law, "but it shall not receive, consider, or make any record of any application of any person for enrollment as a member of any tribe in the Indian Territory who has not been a recognized citizen thereof, and duly and lawfully enrolled or admitted as such, and its refusal of any such application shall be final when approved by the Secretary of the Interior."

This act recognizes the authority of the Commission to receive, consider and record the application of a recognized citizen of any of the tribes referred to who has been duly and lawfully enrolled or admitted as such, its refusal of the application of any person not so qualified being made final when approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

These applicants appear to possess all of these qualifications. Your letter states that they were born and have always resided in the Choctaw Nation as its recognized citizens; that their names appear upon various tribal rolls, and that they were admitted by the Commission in 1896 as citizens, no appeal from the decision of the Commission being taken by the nation. That they were duly and lawfully enrolled by the tribal authorities would seem to result from the fact that both of their parents had been adopted into the tribe, and the failure to contest the action of the Commission in admitting them would indicate that their citizenship rights were regarded as indisputable.

You say that you would not have doubt that these applicants, born to the allegiance of the Choctaw Nation, are entitled to be enrolled, but for the report of my predecessor to the President of February 24, 1906, in the case of persons without Indian blood, and the order to you of February 27, 1906, that "in the President's judgment, without reference to the act of Congress, it is perfectly clear equity demands that the son of white parents, who has no Indian blood in his veins, even though one of these parents has been adopted into the tribe, should not be treated as an Indian."

The report of Mr. Needy and the order of the President thereon, had reference to the case of children of white persons, one of whom had previously acquired Indian citizenship by virtue of his marriage into the Choctaw tribe, but had afterwards, upon the death of his Indian spouse, married a white person. Mr. Needy was of opinion that the right of citizenship acquired by an inter-married white was a personal right, and could not be conferred upon children by such subsequent marriage, which is also the view taken by the Citizenship Court.

I see no reason to question the soundness of that conclusion, assuming that the matter is still open for consideration. It is expressly provided by the Cheetaw act of November 9, 1873, providing for the intermarriage of whites with Cheetaws, that a white person intermarrying into the tribe in pursuance of the act should forfeit his rights of citizenship acquired thereunder if upon the death of his Indian spouse he married "a white man or woman, or person, as the case may be, having no rights of Cheetaw citizenship by blood."

I am aware that it has been held by one of the United States Courts in the Indian Territory that this law is inconsistent with the treaty of April 20, 1866, but, with great respect for the said court, I do not ^{so} consider it. That treaty provides:

Article 20. Every white person who, having married a Cheetaw or Chickasaw, resides in the said Cheetaw or Chickasaw Nation, or who has been adopted by the legislative authority, is to be deemed a member of said nation and shall be subject to the laws of the Cheetaws and Chickasaw Nations according to his domicile, and to prosecution and trial before their tribunals, and to punishment according to their laws in all respects as though he was a native Cheetaw.

This article merely recognizes a pre-existing custom of the Cheetaw and Chickasaw Nations as to the intermarriage and adoption of white persons, and cannot fairly be said to have been intended to prevent them from desicilianizing an intermarried person for good cause; and what better cause could there be than that the tie which bound him to the tribe, and because of which alone citizenship was granted, was broken?

An act of the Choctaw Nation, approved October 20, 1896, providing for the enrollment of Choctaw citizens, provided that "the Commission shall enroll as citizens all who come under any one of the following heads, and all such persons are hereby declared citizens of the Choctaw Nation:"

V. All white men who have married Choctaw women by blood in strict conformity to the laws of the Choctaw Nation of 1878 regulating inter-marriage, or the Chickasaw law of 1878 regulating intermarriage, and have not been divorced from same nor married any other than a Choctaw woman by blood since said marriage.

VIII. All white women who have married Choctaws by blood legally and have not been divorced from them nor since married any other than a Choctaw by blood, a recognized citizen and resident of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation.

That act further provided that "the Commissions are especially prohibited from enrolling as citizens any persons coming under the following heads:"

II. The children of any marriage where neither the father nor mother are Choctaws by blood, though one or both of said children's parents may have enjoyed intermarried rights.

III. All persons who, though they had at one time intermarried rights, afterwards married a person not a Choctaw by blood (being the father or mother of Choctaw children shall not save a person from this clause).

VI. All white persons who have been admitted to citizenship with their wife or husband by the General Council and afterward the wife or husband, Choctaw by blood, dying, the surviving party, being a white person, has intermarried with a person not a Choctaw by blood.

It is clear that, at least since 1890, the Choctaw Nation never intended that a white person, intermarrying into the tribe, should have power to confer citizenship upon his children by a subsequent marriage to other than a citizen by blood. The informal opinion of Attorney General Moody unquestionably had reference to cases of this character.

The case of the present applicants is quite different from that just referred to. Here both parents were adopted into the tribe. It must have been contemplated that they might have children, and if so, what was to be their citizenship if not that of their parents?

The facts in the present case answer this inquiry. Your letter states that these applicants have always been recognized as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, that their names appear on the tribal census roll of 1885, as well as upon the rolls prepared in pursuance of the Choctaw act of October 30, 1890. It seems clear, therefore, irrespective of the action of the Commission in admitting them as citizens in pursuance of the authority granted to it by the act of June 10, 1896, that they are clearly entitled to be enrolled for allotment purposes.

3. The Case of Loula (or Lula West, et al.

It appears from the papers in this case that Loula West applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, pursuant to the Act of June 10, 1896, for admission to citizenship in the Chothe Nation, and was admitted as a citizen by blood; that the Cheate Nation appealed to the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory, which affirmed the judgment of the Commission; that this judgment was annulled and vacated by the judgment of the Citizenship Court in the test case provided for by the Act of July 1, 1908 (35 Stat. 641, 647); and thereupon she removed her case to that court, which ~~was~~ denied her application.

This case is similar to that of Murtie Randolph and her brother W. J. Thompson, children of Giles Thompson, above referred to, in that it involves the question of the finality of the judgment of the Citizenship Court, it being contended that the Commission in the first instance and the Citizenship Court ultimately on appeal had no jurisdiction of the case because at the time of her application to the Commission her name was upon a tribal roll.

For the reasons heretofore stated, I think this contention is not well founded, and that the Citizenship Court had jurisdiction of such cases, and its judgments therein were final.

4. The Case of William C. Thompson et al.

In this case the record shows that Thompson applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, pursuant to the act of June 10, 1896, for the enrollment of himself, his wife, and children with the exception of a daughter, Mary M. McNeese, who made a separate application for herself, her husband, a white man, and their children. The Commission denied Thompson's application, and also that of his daughter. No appeal was taken from these judgments, and it is contended, on behalf of the Nation, that under the act of June 10, 1896, they were final and conclusive against the right of these parties to be enrolled.

The claimants, however, rely upon the fact that their names appear upon the tribal roll prepared in pursuance of the Choctaw acts of September 18, and October 30, 1896.

In my judgment, the action of the Commission, under the act of June 10, 1896, not having been appealed from was final and conclusive against the right of these parties to be admitted to citizenship, and the Choctaw nation, even if it attempted to do so, had no right thereafter to admit them. It will be observed that the act of June 10, 1896, provided that applications should be made to the Commission within three months after the passage of the act, and that the Commission should decide all such applications within ninety days after they were made; that the rolls of citizenship of the several tribes as then existing were confirmed, and "any person who shall claim to be entitled to be added to said rolls as a citizen of either of said tribes and whose right thereto has either been denied or not acted upon, or any citizen who may within three months after the passage of this Act desire such citizenship, may apply to the legally constituted court or committee designated by the several tribes for such citizenship, and such court or committee shall determine such application within thirty days from the date thereof;" and that "if the tribe, or any person be aggrieved with the decision of the tribal authorities or the Commission provided for in this Act, it or he may appeal from such decision to the United States District Court: Provided, however, That the appeal shall be taken within sixty days, and the judgment of the court shall be final."

As I read this act, it authorized application to be made either to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes or the "legally constituted court or committee" of such tribes, with a right of appeal by the party aggrieved by the decision of either to the United States court. Therefore and in view also of the fact that the act contemplated contemporaneous action by the Commission and the tribal courts, I think it clear that the provision that "any person who shall claim to be entitled to be added to said rolls (the existing rolls of the tribe) as a citizen of either of said tribes whose right thereto has either been denied or not acted upon", had reference to a previous denial or failure to act of the tribal authorities, and not to the subsequent action or non-action of the Commission, the sense of the words "has either been denied or not acted upon", not "shall be denied or not acted upon"-indicating that past action or non-action was referred to. Prior to the passage of this act the Commission had no jurisdiction of these citizenship matters.

Now, therefore, as here, the claimant had applied to the Commission to be admitted and enrolled, and his application denied, his only remedy, under the act in question, lay in an appeal to the United States court. It is true Thompson claims to have received no notice of the denial of his application by the Commission, but that is not a valid excuse.

But aside from this question of jurisdiction in the Chester

Nation to admit persons to citizenship who had been denied by the Commission, it appears that the Nation never undertook to authorize the admission or enrollment of those parties, and that, in any aspect of the case, they were enrolled without authority of law and their names should, in pursuance of the mandate in the act of Congress of June 20, 1896, be eliminated from the tribal rolls.

The Chectaw Nation does not appear to have proceeded under the authority of the act of Congress of June 10, 1896, authorizing the establishment by the several tribes of a court or committee for the purpose of passing upon applications for citizenship as provided therein. It was not until September 15, 1896, ten days after the expiration of the period in which applications for citizenship were to be submitted to the "legally constituted court or committee" of the tribes under the act of June 10, 1896, that the Chectaw Council passed the act above referred to. That act provided for the appointment of census commissioners in each county, with authority "to enroll all recognized citizens of the Chectaw Nation by blood, intermarriage and adoption who are recognized as citizens of the Chectaw Nation under the treaties, constitution and law of the said nation." It further provided that "the rolls when completed by said commissioners shall be certified to by said commissioners and delivered to the Principal Chief of the Chectaw Nation on or before the twentieth day of October, 1896, to be revised and approved by the next General Council of the Chectaw Nation."

It is manifest that this act conferred no power upon such commissioners to admit any person to citizenship, but only to enroll "recognized citizens". Yet in virtue thereof one of the county committees assumed to pass upon a petition prepared by Thompson's attorney, under date of August 1, 1896, and addressed to the General Council of the Choctaw Nation, "at its regular session October 1896, "praying that "all rights, privileges, and immunities of the Choctaw Nation" be granted to himself, his wife, family and certain other relatives, "and they be enrolled with the legal citizenship of said Nation."

This petition does not appear ever to have been presented to the Choctaw Council or referred by any competent authority to the committee which assumed to pass upon it. Upon its back is the following endorsement:

William G. Thompson together with the names appearing on the face of the within application, lineal descendants of Margaret McCoy are hereby recognized and admitted to the citizenship of the Choctaw Nation or Tribe of Indians by the legally constituted Choctaw Census Commission duly assembled at Klean, I.T. this the 8th day of October, 1896, upon the testimony of Henry Perkins, Mrs. Lawinia Franklin, they being enrolled Choctaw Indians by blood. The within named parties not being present were passed for further enrollment.

A. G. Nelson,
Secretary of Census Committee.

This was a manifest attempt to exercise an authority not delegated to the committee.

On October 30, 1896, the Choctaw Council, at its regular session, passed an act creating three commissions, one from each District, one member of each of which to be designated as "Chief Commissioner", "to make a complete roll of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation." By that act it was made the duty of said commissions "to examine the rolls made by the commissions under the act of September 12, 1896, and also to expunge from said rolls of September 12, 1896, the names of all persons whom they shall adjudge not to be citizens". It was further provided:

The Commission shall enroll as citizens all who come under any of the following heads, and all such persons are hereby declared citizens of the Choctaw Nation:

I. All Choctaws by blood born and raised in the Choctaw Nation.

II. All Choctaws by blood who have been admitted to citizenship by the General Council and now residents of the Nation.

X X X X X X X

It was provided that "at the expiration of the time allowed the commissions in each District, the Chief Commissioners shall meet at Tushka House at their earliest convenience and not later than the first Monday in December 1896, and shall revise the rolls made by their respective District Commissions during the succeeding ten days after they meet". The Chief Commissioners were authorized to "enroll the name of any citizen who for any good cause failed to appear before the District Commissions". It was further provided that "the Roll as completed and signed by the Chief Commissioners, when approved by the Principal Chief, shall be the legal and authorized Roll of citizens of the Choctaw Nation".

These parties were enrolled by the registry board, but that their enrollment was unauthorized is clear. The act just referred to only authorized the enrollment of Choctaws by blood who were "born and raised" in the Choctaw Nation or had "been admitted to citizenship by the General Council." The applicants per-posed neither of these qualifications. According to his own statement, William C. Thompson was not raised in the Choctaw Nation, having been taken to Mississippi shortly after his birth, and returning only once during his boyhood for about a year.

It is further stated that he remained in Mississippi until the war, when he went to Texas, not returning again to the Choctaw Nation until 1867. He had never been "admitted to citizenship by the General Council." His wife and children could claim no greater rights than he possessed. The other applicants named in his petition were descendants of his brother, who was born in Mississippi and whose record appears to be otherwise about the same as William C. Thompson's.

Moreover, it appears from the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General for the Interior Department of March 24, 1906, in the case of Mary Elizabeth Martin, that on July 17, 1897, the Principal Chief of the Choctaw Nation advised the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that he had refused to approve the last revised roll made in accordance with the act of October 30, 1896, because he was satisfied there were some names thereon "that have been registered through fraud or misrepresentation." As such approval was necessary in order to make the roll so prepared "the legal and authorized roll of citizens of the Choctaw Nation," it would seem that in no aspect of the case could these parties be said to be lawfully admitted and enrolled.

It further appears that these applicants, or some of them including William C. Thompson, applied in 1906 to the Commission for the Five Civilized Tribes for identification as Mississippi Choctaws under the following provision of section 21 of the act of June 28, 1896:

Said commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end they may administer oaths, examine witnesses, and prepare all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior.

Article 14 of the treaty of September 27, 1830, provided:

ARTICLE XIV. Each head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the States shall be permitted to do so, by signifying his intention to the Agent within six months from the ratification of this Treaty, and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land, to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age; and a quarter section to such child as may be under 10 years of age, to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the States for five years after the ratification of this Treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family, or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity.

The only evidence adduced in any way tending to show a compliance with the terms of this article were statements to the effect that William C. Thompson's grandfather applied for land under the treaty of 1830 but was refused by the Indian agent. Congress, however, by the acts of March 3, 1837, and August 23, 1842, (Stat. 180, 513), appointed Commissioners for the purpose of adjusting claims of this kind, and there was no evidence to the effect that the ancestors of the claimants had endeavored to comply with the provisions of these acts, or received patents or certificates for land as therein provided for. The Commission properly held, therefore, that it was impossible to identify the applicants as Mississippi Choctaws.

Upon the whole case, it seems to me clear that these applicants, and those claiming intermarried rights with them, should be denied enrollment.

The other cases consolidated with this are of a similar nature, and under the views above stated the parties referred to therein are, in my judgment, not entitled to be enrolled.

3. The Case of Richard B. Coleman et al.

The enrollment of the parties referred to in this case depends upon the effect to be given to the following act of the General Council of the Choctaw Nation passed November 8, 1899:

An act to establish the citizenship of R. B. Coleman, his wife and their children.

Sec. 1. Be it enacted by the General Council of the Choctaw Nation Assembled, That Richard Benjamin Coleman, and their children, as follows: Richard St. Clair, age 18 years, Ida Clay, age 13, Bessie, age 11, Bettie Withers, age 9, Henry Allen, age 6, Willie Norma Coleman, age 4 years, are hereby admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation with its rights, privileges, and immunities, and that this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

It is contended that this act was procured by fraud and bribery, and that, therefore, the names of Coleman and his family should be eliminated from the tribal rolls upon which they appear, under the act of Congress of June 28, 1896, which provides:

Said Commission is authorized and directed to make correct rolls of citizens by blood of all the other tribes, eliminating from the tribal rolls such names as may have been placed thereon by fraud or without authority of law, enrolling such only as may have lawful right thereto X X X.

The Commission held that they had no authority to go behind the act of the Choctaw Council referred to, but in an informal opinion rendered you December 7, 1904, Acting Attorney General Day, after quoting the above provision, said:

It appears to me the above quoted provisions of the statute impose upon the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes the duty and gave it the power to determine whether any name appearing upon a tribal roll was placed there by fraud or without authority of law, and that the mere fact that such enrollment was by virtue of an act of the National Council is not sufficient to preclude an inquiry. An act of the Council should be treated with respect as prima facie valid and efficacious, and nothing done as the result thereof should be lightly set aside; but if it clearly appears that the act was procured by deliberate fraud and perjury I do not think that Congress intended that benefits thereunder should be enjoyed.

Mr. Day did not pass upon the facts of this case. Subsequently, the Assistant Attorney-General for the Interior Department, upon a consideration of the record, held that it did not clearly appear therefrom that the act in question had been fraudulently procured.

In my judgment the record in this case clearly shows deliberate fraud on the part of Richard B. Coleman in procuring the passage of the act admitting him to citizenship. It appears that Coleman came into the Choctaw Nation about 1880. In 1887 he made application to the citizenship committee of the Choctaw Council for admission as a citizen by blood, representing by himself and witnesses he brought before the committee that his father was a Choctaw boy named Frank Coleman, the son of a John Coleman and Jaggonia, a full blood Cheetaw, who had lived in Mississippi with his parents prior to the migration in 1830. The boy Frank it was testified, had been sent to Kentucky to school and nothing afterwards heard of him.

The testimony adduced on behalf of the Nation before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes shows that the father of Coleman was Francis S. Coleman, a son of a Francis Coleman who was born and raised in Orange County, Virginia, and was not a Cheetaw. This testimony was given in the form of a deposition by Mrs. Harriet Henry, a sister of Francis S. Coleman, and A. L. Coleman a nephew, residing at Columbia, Missouri. The identity of Francis S. Coleman with the father of the applicant appears from the fact testified to by the applicant as well as the two witnesses just referred to, that he married Ann Elizabeth Redford, the daughter of John Redford, in Kentucky, and the testimony of all parties that Francis S. Coleman went to Denton, Texas, and died there. Although duly advised as to the intention of the attorneys for the Cheetaw Nation to take this testimony, no effort was made by Coleman or his attorney to file cross interrogatories or in any way rebut it, but they confined themselves to an endeavor to have the testimony stricken from the records as not having been taken in accordance with law. The authority of the Commission to take the testimony in this was is clear, under the act of June 26, 1896 (30 Stat., 496), which provides:

Said commission shall make such rolls descriptive of the persons therein, so that they may be thereby identified, and it is authorized to take a census of each of said tribes, or to adopt any other means by them deemed necessary to enable them to make such rolls.

This testimony was further enforced by another deposition of said R. L. Coleman, taken by Commissioner Tamm Nisby, in which R. L. Coleman stated further that he knew the applicant Richard E. Coleman, that he was his cousin. A motion was likewise made to strike this testimony from the record, because taken without notice to the applicant, but it was overruled by the Commission, who held that under the authority of the above act they could take such measures as they deemed necessary to satisfy themselves as to the justice of the applicant's claim. I do not think it is shown that they abused their discretion in this matter.

It appears that the application of Richard E. Coleman to be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Nation, upon the grounds above stated, was passed over by the citizenship committee of the Council in 1887; taken up again in 1888 and a bill of rejection passed by the committee of the council; removed at the session of 1889, and a bill of admission introduced into the House of Representatives which was rejected, and then a new bill introduced and enacted into the law above quoted.

I think it sufficiently appears from the testimony in this case, particularly that given by and on behalf of the applicant himself, that the Council in admitting him and his family to citizenship did so upon the strength of the testimony adduced by him before the Committee on Citizenship that he was a Cheater by blood, descended as he represented. It is to be observed that he and his family all claim that he was admitted as a Cheater by blood.

Some testimony was introduced for the purpose of showing that Coleman had bribed one Harbuck, the member of the Council who introduced the second bill, but the evidence on that point is not sufficient to establish the fact.

In October, 1898, the General Council of the Choctaw Nation passed an act repealing the act of November 8, 1889, admitting Coleman and his family to citizenship. This act was, however, disapproved by President McKinley, upon the recommendation of the Secretary of the Interior, under the authority of the act of Congress of June 26, 1896, which required the approval of the President to all acts of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in any manner affecting the lands of the tribes.

Although this act was thus invalidated, it may fairly be taken to indicate the sense of the Nation at that time that Coleman was improperly admitted. The reason for its disapproval does not appear but it might reasonably have been rejected on the ground that by the act of June 26, 1896, the work of making up the rolls of citizenship and eliminating therefrom those placed thereon by fraud was committed entirely to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

It is to be observed that Commissioner Bixby, who was the only Commissioner who considered this case on its merits, was "clearly of the opinion from such evidence as has been presented to this Commission that the evidence presented to and acted upon by the Citizenship Committee of the Choctaw General Council, which passed upon the petition of these applicants, and upon which evidence their admission to Choctaw Citizenship was based, was fraudulent, false, and misleading."

The Secretary of the Interior--

In my opinion, these parties should be stricken from the rolls

The Case of Ethel Pierson.

This case presents the question of your authority to enroll the children of Choctaw freedmen who were miners living March 4, 1906. The decision of this question turns upon the construction to be given to section 2 of the Act of April 26, 1906 (34 Stat., 197), as amended by the Act of June 21, 1906 (34 Stat., 342).

The act referred to originally provided:

Sec. 2. That for ninety days after approval hereof applications shall be received for enrollment of children who were miners living March fourth, nineteenth hundred and six, whose parents have been enrolled as members of the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, or Creek Tribes, or have applications for enrollment pending at the approval hereof, and for the purpose of enrollment under this section illegitimate children shall take the status of the mother, and allotments shall be made to children so enrolled. If any citizen of the Cherokee tribe shall fail to receive the full quantity of land to which he is entitled as an allotment, he shall be paid out of any of the funds of such tribe a sum equal to twice the appraised value of the amount of land thus deficient. The provisions of section nine of the Creek agreement ratified by Act approved March first, nineteenth hundred and one, authorizing the use of funds of the Creek tribe for equalizing allotments, are hereby restored and reenacted, and after the expiration of nine months from the date of the original selection of an allotment of land in the Choctaw, Chickasaw, Cherokee, Creek or Seminole tribes, and after the expiration of six months from the passage of this Act as to allotments heretofore made, no contest shall be instituted against such allotments: Provided, that the rolls of the tribes affected by this Act shall be fully completed on or before the fourth day of March, nineteenth hundred and seven, and the Secretary of the Interior shall have no jurisdiction to approve the enrollment of any person after said date: Provided further, that nothing herein shall be construed so as to hereafter permit any person to file an application for enrollment in any tribe where the date for filing application has been fixed by agreement between said tribe and the United States: Provided, that nothing herein shall apply to the intermarried whites in the Cherokee Nation, whose cases are now pending in the Supreme Court of the United States.

The amendatory act provided, (34 Stat., 541-2):

That section two of the Act entitled "An Act to provide for the final disposition of the affairs of the Five Civilized Tribes in the Indian Territory, and for other purposes," approved April twenty-sixth, nineteen hundred and six, be, and the same is hereby, amended by striking out thereof the words "Provided further that nothing herein shall be construed so as to hereafter permit any person to file an application for enrollment in any tribe where the date for filing application has been fixed by agreement between said tribe and the United States: Provided further, That nothing herein shall apply to the intermarried whites in the Cherokee Nation whose cases are now pending in the Supreme Court of the United States." And insert in said Act in lieu of the matter repealed, the following: Provided further, That nothing herein shall be construed so as hereafter to permit any person to file an application for enrollment or to be entitled to enrollment in any of said tribes, except for minors the children of Indians by blood, or of freedmen members of said tribes, of of Mississippi Choctaws identified under the fourteenth article of the treaty of eighteen hundred and thirty, as herein otherwise provided, and the fact that the name of a person appears on the tribal roll of any of said tribes shall not be construed to be an application for enrollment.

In the agreement with the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nation ratified by the act of July 1, 1903 (32 Stat. 541), it was provided (paragraphs 1 and 3) that the words "member" or "members" and "citizen" or "Citizens", "whenever used in this agreement", shall be held to mean members or citizens of the Choctaw or Chickasaw tribe of Indians in Indian Territory, not including freedmen."

The Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes in passing upon this case held that, in view of the above definition, the act of April 26, 1906, as amended, was not intended to apply to the children of freedmen in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, but only to those of the Cherokee and Creek Nations.

There would be some force in the argument that minors the children of freedmen members of the Choctaw Nation were not included

The Secretary of the Interior--

In the Act of April 26, 1906, if it were not for the proviso substituted by the amending act of June 21, 1906. That proviso was, as the Commissioner said, "in the nature of a construction by Congress of the meaning intended to be conveyed by the section as originally enacted." It says, in so many words, that "except the children of freedmen members of said tribes (referring to all of the tribes, which are separately named in the preceding part of section 2, among them the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes) may be enrolled."

This definition settles the doubt that otherwise might have arisen as to the children of freedmen members of said tribes, as well as the children of Mississippi Choctaws. If, therefore, the Choctaw freedmen are members of said nation, the right of their children to be enrolled can be questioned.

The Choctaw freedmen were adopted by an act of the General Council of the Nation approved May 21, 1866, entitled "An act to adopt the freedmen of the Choctaw Nation", which provided (Report of Commissioner of Indian Affairs, 1864, p. 107):

Whereas by the third and fourth articles of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, concluded April 26, 1866, provision was made for the adoption of laws, rules, and regulations necessary to give all persons of African descent resident in said nations at the date of the treaty of Fort Smith, September 13, 1866, and their descendants, formerly held in slavery among said nations, all the rights, privileges, and immunities, including the right of citizenship, of citizens of said nations, except in the service, money, and public lands claimed by or belonging to said nations respectively; and also to give to such persons who were residents as aforesaid, and their descendants, as soon as each of the lands of said nations on the same terms as Choctaw and Chickasaw, to be selected on the survey of said lands; until which said freedmen shall be entitled to as much land as they may cultivate for the support of themselves and families; and

Whereas the Choctaw Nation adopted legislation in the form of a memorial to the United States Government in regard to adopting freedmen to be citizens of the Choctaw Nation, which was approved by the principal chief November 2, 1880, setting forth the status of said freedmen and the inability of the Choctaw Nation to prevail upon the Chickasaws to adopt any joint plan for adopting said freedmen, and notifying the United States Government of their willingness to accept said freedmen as citizens of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the third and fourth articles of the treaty of 1866 as a basis; and

Whereas a resolution was passed and approved November 3, 1880, authorizing the principal chief to submit the aforesaid proposition of the Choctaw Nation to adopt their freedmen to the United States Government; and

Whereas a resolution was passed and approved November 3, 1880, to provide for the registration of freedmen in the Choctaw Nation, authorizing the principal chief to appoint three competent persons in each district, citizens of the nation, whose duty it shall be to register all freedmen referred to in said third article of the treaty of 1866 who desire to become citizens of the nation in accordance with said treaty, and upon proper notification that the Government of the United States had acted favorably upon the proposition to adopt the freedmen as citizens, to issue his proclamation notifying all such freedmen as desire to become citizens of the Choctaw Nation to appear before said commissioner for identification and registration; and--

Whereas in the Indian appropriation act of Congress May 17, 1882, it is provided that either of said tribes may adopt and provide for the freedmen in said tribe in accordance with said third article: Now, therefore,

Be it enacted by the general council of the Choctaw Nation, that all persons of African descent resident in the Choctaw Nation at the date of the treaty of Fort Smith, September 13, 1866, and their descendants, formerly held in slavery by the Choctaws or Chickasaws, are hereby declared to be entitled to, and invested with all the rights, privileges, and immunities, including the right of suffrage, of citizens of the Choctaw Nation, except in the annuities, monies and the public domain of the nation.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, That all said persons are hereby declared to be entitled to forty acres each of the lands of the nation, to be selected and held by them under the same title and upon the same terms as the Choctaws.

once with the terms of the treaty of 1866, and the money authorized to be paid by that treaty upon a compliance therewith were turned over to the Nation.

I am of opinion, therefore, that the Assistant Attorney General for the Interior Department was right in his conclusion that, since, the children of Charles Freeman, dying March 4, 1866, are entitled to be enrolled.

This disposes of the several cases submitted. The papers therein are herewith returned.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Flora Anderson, the infant daughter of Merton and Mary Anderson, born December 12th, 1899.

The same is returned to you herewith for the reason that the Commission is unable to identify the mother of this child as having been listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

It is stated in the affidavit of the mother that she is 25 years of age and a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. If this is true you are requested to inform the Commission as to her maiden name, the time and place she appeared before the Commission as applicant for enrollment, the names of other members of her family making application at the same time and any other information that may lead to her identification.

The Commission would also suggest that you forward either the original or certified copy of your marriage license and certificate to your wife as authority for the changing of her name upon our records from her maiden name to her married name.

Upon receipt of the information requested, the marriage license and certificate and the return of the application, the same will receive further consideration.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 20, in which you state that you and your family are part Choctaw and part Chickasaw and desire to have your names placed on the Chickasaw roll.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Green Thompson and his son Lee Edward Thompson not having been recognized and enrolled by the Chickasaw tribal authorities and their names having been identified upon the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation, have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and their enrollment as such has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior. It is therefore impossible to comply with your request to be transferred to the Chickasaw roll.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Clemmie Thompson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Clemmie Thompson (nee Gammons) appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by reason of her marriage to Cyrus R. Thompson, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13740 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 7, 1896, in the case entitled "Clemmie Thompson, et al., vs. Choctaw Nation", (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 75), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage with the said Cyrus R. Thompson, and on December 1, 1896, the said Clemmie Thompson was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that her status as an intermarried citizen remained unchanged from the date of her said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Clemmie Thompson should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Austin Moore,

No. 2699,

Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 16th instant, in which you desire to be advised if you are enrolled and if it would be a violation of law for you to execute a power of attorney to some person to select your allotment for you.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Austin Moore, of Weatherston, Indian Territory, is listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been identified from the 1896 census roll of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation as a resident of Sans Bois county.

The act of Congress of July 1, 1902, entitled "An Act to ratify and confirm an agreement with the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes of Indians, and for other purposes", ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, on September 25, 1902, provides as follows, relative to the selection of allotments for prisoners:

"Allotments may be selected and homesteads designated for minors by the father or mother, if members, or by a guardian or curator, or the administrator having charge of their estate, in the order names; and for prisoners, convicts, and and infirm persons by duly appointed agents under power of attorney, and for incompetents by guardians, curators, or other suitable person skin to them; but it shall be the duty of said Commission to see that said selections are made for the best interests of such parties."

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Aaron Arpealer,

Arpealer, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the sevent instant to the United States Indian Agent, which has been by him referred to this Commission for appropriate action. Therein you state that Ida and Elsie Eddy and Joe, Simon, and Sallie Ott are the children of Mrs. Kitsie Ott, a Chickasaw Indian and the father of the Ott children was one Willie Ott, a Choctaw Indian and the father of the Eddy children was Samuel Eddy, a Chickasaw Indian.

You further state that all of these children have been enrolled as Choctaw Indians and it is now your desire to have their names transferred from the Choctaw roll and placed upon the roll of Chickasaw Indians in order that they may receive their per capita payment of $40.00 which is now being made to citizens of the Chickasaw Nation.

In reply to your inquiry you are advised that Kitsie Ott, Joe, Simon and Sallie Ott and Ida O. and Elsie O. Eddy, have been finally enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and their enrollment as such was, on March 19, 1903.

approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

You are further advised that these children have always been recognized and carried upon the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation as members of that tribe; they drew the 1893 leased District money as members of the Choctaw Nation and also were enrolled upon the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation, and having been fully identified from the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation they were enrolled as citizens by blood of the Choctaw nation and their enrollment as such has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, and the Commission has no further jurisdiction in the matter of their enrollment.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 27, stating that Kitisie Ott, Joe, Simon and Sallie Ott and Ida and Elsie Eddy never drew money with the Choctaws in 1893, but that they drew money with the Chickasaws.

In reply you are advised that it is not known for what purpose you furnish this information. It appears from our records that Kitisie Ott and her children, Joe, Simon Ott, Ida O. Eddy, Elsie O. Eddy, and her step son, Sam Ott, having been identified from the 1896 census roll of the citizens of the Choctaw nation, Tombigbee County, have been enrolled as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and their enrollment as such approved by the secretary of the Interior.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of David Freeman Spears as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that the applicant, David Freeman Spears, appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with Caroline Spears (formerly Thompson), now deceased, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Blue County, number 11584, enrolled on said roll as a citizen by blood of said
nation.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 7, 1896, in the case entitled "D. F. Spears vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 805), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by reason of his marriage with the said
Caroline Spears, and on December 4, 1896 the said David Freeman
Spears was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the record herein that the applicant and said Caroline Spears lived together continuously as husband and wife in the Choctaw Nation from the date of the said admission of the applicant herein in 1896 until the death of the said Caroline Spears on April 14, 1899; that on November 14, 1900 the applicant was lawfully married to Lizzie Rankin, a white woman having no rights of Choctaw Citizenship by blood, and that the applicant had continued to reside in the Choctaw Nation from the date of the death of said Caroline Spears up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton D.
Pearce (I. T. D. 4060-1904), David Freeman Spears should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 28, in which you state that Mrs. Biddie Caroline Bushy, nee Thompson, Mrs. Julia Ann Spears, nee Thompson, and Miss Dora Ellen Thompson are entitled to enrollment in the Chickasaw Nation; that they now find themselves on the Choctaw rolls, and wish to be transferred to the Chickasaw rolls.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it not appearing from the records of the Chickasaw Nation in the possession of the Commission that Biddie Caroline Bushy and Dora Ellen Thompson had been recognized and enrolled by the Chickasaw tribal authorities as citizens of that nation, and their names having been identified from the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw nation, they have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and their enrollment as such has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior. It is, therefore, impossible at this time to comply with their request to be transferred to the Chickasaw rolls.

You are informed that it appears from our records that the only Julia Ann Spears who is an applicant to this Commission for en-

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 1, in which you ask who will inherit the property of Dora Ellen Thompson, deceased, a Choctaw by blood, who died in the early part of 1904.

In reply you are advised that this is a matter which does not come within the jurisdiction of the Commission and it is, therefore, impracticable to give you any information on this subject.

Replying to that part of your letter in which you inquire if an intermarried citizen who has been married thirty years, successfully apply for citizenship at this time you are informed that you do not state the name of the person to whom you refer and it is, therefore, impracticable to give you any information as to whether or not application has been made for his enrollment, but you are informed that under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, the Commission is now without authority to receive or consider original applications for enrollment in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

Mr. A. T. Polson,

Dennington, Indian Territory

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of February 15, enclosing a marriage certificate between Robert Polson and Laura Davis, both of Indian Territory, married at Sherman, Texas, according to the laws of the State of Texas. It appears from your letter that this certificate was forwarded to the Commission for the enrollment as an intermarried citizen of Laura Davis.

You are informed that, while this certificate has been accepted merely as a matter of record, if Laura Polson desires further to advance her claim for recognition as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, it will be necessary for her to appear in person before the Commission. In the matter of the intermarriage of Chickasaw citizens it is required that they shall marry under the Chickasaw law, and the certificate of marriage in accordance with the laws of the State of Texas, would not entitle her to recognition in the Chickasaw Nation. While the Commission would hear any testimony which she or witnesses may desire to make on behalf of her claim, you are informed that the chances of her recognition as an intermarried citizen in the Chickasaw Nation are very remote.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 19th instant, enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Roy M. Fulson, the infant son of Robert and Laura Fulson, and the same is returned to you herewith.

It is stated in the affidavit of the mother that her name is Laura Fulson, that she is nineteen years of age, and a citizen by marriage of the Choctaw Nation, and the lawful wife of Robert Fulson. If it be correct that Laura Fulson is a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, you are requested to state the time and place she made application for enrollment as such. You are informed that it will also be necessary that legal evidence of her marriage to Robert Fulson be furnished the Commission in the matter of the application for the enrollment of her child.

Dear Sir:

On February 25, 1908, the Commission returned to you the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cheetaw Nation of Roy R. Folsom, the infant son of Robert L. and Laura Folsom for further information relative to the mother than that contained in her affidavit concerning the birth of the child, and also for legal evidence of the marriage between the parents.

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 18th instant in which it is stated that Robert L. Folsom is a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and that the mother is a non citizen.

It is found upon an examination of our records that your statement relative to the enrollment of Robert L. Folsom, is correct, and you are requested to advise him that if he desires to make application for the enrollment of his infant child such application should be made as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

For the purpose of assisting him in the matter

there is enclosed a blank application for the enrollment of an infant child, which, if properly completed and returned to this office, accompanied by legal evidence of his marriage to the mother of the child, will receive proper consideration.

You request to be advised whether the child of a non-citizen who is lawfully married to a duly recognized citizen of the United States under a United States license, is entitled to an citizenship.

You are informed that no decision as to the rights of a child born under the circumstances indicated in your letter can be passed upon prior to the receipt of such application. Such an application, however, properly executed and forwarded to this office accompanied by legal evidence of the marriage of the parents of the child for whom application is made would receive due consideration by the Commission.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 8, 1903, requesting to be advised whether you have been enrolled as a Choctaw, stating that you were registered as a Chickasaw Indian at Colbert, Indian Territory, in 1898, and you ask if you can draw money with the Chickasaw.

It not appearing from the tribal rolls of the Chickasaw Nation in the possession of the Commission that you have been recognized and enrolled as a citizen by blood of that nation by the tribal authorities thereof, and your name having been identified from the rolls of the Choctaw Nation in our possession; under the authority vested in the Commission by the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) you were on February 18, 1904, enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and your enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior, March 19, 1903.

Relative to your right to participate in the per capita payment now being made to citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, your attention is called to a provision of Section 72 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, as follows:

There shall be no sale or disposition of the

Gentlemen:

After Dilligent search I find it Impossible to secure the wheareabouts of Danl Edwards the former husband of Jennie or Jency N. Folsom wife of Alfred N. Folsom whose Post Office is Atoka Indian Territory.

In your office litter of May the 11th 1905 you state that you desire that Jansey N. Folsom either show that she was Divorced from her former husband Denis Edwards or that Denis Edwards was dead at the time that she was married to Alfred Folsom, it seems that it is impossible to secure this testimony.

Mrs. Folsom thinks that Denis Edwards is living in some where in East Vergina and says that she cannot furnish the evidence desired.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Robert A. Woods as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Robert A. Woods on August 2, 1891, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Mary A. Woods (nee Thompson), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13782 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Robert A. Woods should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

- Q Both citizens of the United States? A Yes sir.
- Q Did either of your parents ever make claims as members of any Indian tribe? A A Well yes sir, I think so, on my mother's side, but their claim was not allowed. It was said that they was Indian but I don't know whether they were or not.
- Q Did they ever make application for enrollment as members of any Indian tribe? A Yes sir.
- Q Did your mother ever make claim? A No her brother has but I don't suppose they have any Indian as they failed to get their right.
- Q Your mother then never made application? A No sir.
- Q Have you ever been before the Commission claiming to be a member of any Indian tribe before this? A No sir.
- Q Are you now applying for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
- Q What is the name of your husband? A Robert L. Pierce.
- Q Is he a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.

The name of the applicant's husband, Robert L. Pierce, appears upon the records of the Commission on Chickasaw Roll Card Field number 1168; his name having been identified on the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll Kiamichi County 10444 and transferred to the Chickasaw Roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

Chickasaw D. #369-2

- Q When were you married to Robert L. Pierce? A First day of January 1902.
Q Where did this marriage take place? A At Antlers.
Q Have you evidence of that marriage with you? A I have the license.

There is offered in evidence, marked exhibit "A" and made a part of the evidence in this case, marriage license, issued by the clerk of the United States Court for the Central District of Indian Territory, to R. L. Pierce and Maude Wood, and attached thereto is the certificate of W. M. Kiett to the effect that on January 1, 1902 he united the above named parties in marriage. Said license and certificate were filed on January 8th with the records of the United States Court, Book 1, page 200.

- Q Were you ever married before your marriage to your present husband?
A No sir.
Q Was he ever married before his marriage to you? A No sir.
Q Have you been living together continuously since that marriage?
A Yes sir.
Q There has been no separation? A No sir.
Q At the time of this marriage was there any legal obstacle in the way of said marriage? A No, I suppose not.

Chas. Diffendaffer after being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported the proceedings had in the above entitled cause, taken on September 22, 1902 and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said cause on said date.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

-:::-

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Maudie May Pierce as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that Maudie May Pierce (nee Wood) was lawfully married, on January 1, 1902, to Robert L.
Pierce, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13792 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both parties above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 25, 1903.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Maudie May Pierce should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is acknowledged of your letter of May 8, enclosing a letter from the Clerk of Court of Washington County, Ohio, relative to the divorce suit commenced by Dennis Edwards against Jane Edwards, which is submitted in the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jenay N. Folsom as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

Mrs. Folsom testified November 20, 1902, that her former husband, Dennis Edwards, had secured a divorce from her at Marietta, Ohio. The letter of the Clerk would merely go to show, if anything, that no divorce was ever secured.

Before the application for the enrollment of Jenay N. Folsom can be finally passed upon it will be necessary to show either that said Dennis Edwards, her former husband had secured a divorce from her prior to the time she married Alfred Folsom, or that he was dead at that time.

We shall be glad to have such evidence as you may be able to present along this line submitted at the earliest practicable date.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Jensy N. Folsom as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation:

DECISION.

It appears from the census card record in this case that on October 12, 1898, Jensy N. Folsom appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and made application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It appears from the record herein that said applicant claims her right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of her marriage in 1888 to Alfred W. Folsom, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13799 upon a list prepared by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903.

It appears, however, from the record herein that at the time of said marriage, the applicant had a living husband from whom she had never been divorced.

It does not appear from the record herein that said applicant has ever been admitted to Choctaw citizenship by a duly constituted court or committee of the Choctaw Nation, or by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, or by a decree of the United States Court in Indian Territory under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stats., 321).

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of this office, it appears that the applicant is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Tobacco County, number 14523, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage.

I am, therefore, of the opinion that the application made for the enrollment of Jensy N. Folsom as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation should be denied under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and it is so ordered.

January 12, 1907.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

There is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated August 20, 1906, transmitting the record relative to the application of Jency N. Folsom for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

On October 12, 1898, Jency N. Folsom applied to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage.

On August 20, 1906, the Commissioner held that the applicant was not entitled to such enrollment.

The record shows that the applicant was married in 1888 to Alfred W. Folsom, identified at No. 13799 on a list of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation approved by the Department on March 19, 1903, through whom she claims the right to be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of that nation.

It is further shown that at the time of this marriage in 1888 she was the wife of one Dennis Edwards, a non-citizen, from whom she had never been divorced.

The brief of R. P. Coleman, attorney for the applicant, filed October 26, 1906, has been received and considered.

In view of the record the decision of the Commissioner adverse to the applicant is recommended for approval.

Before the Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs, Washington District of Columbia.

Jensy M. Folsom,
Appellant,

VS.

Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations,
Appellee,

Involving the right to enrollment of the Appellant as a citizen and member of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians in the Indian Territory.

To the Honorable Commissioner of Indian Affairs, your Appellant Jensy M. Folsom, comes now on appeal from a judgment rendered in an application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians, rendered by the Honorable Tamm Birby Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes on the 20th day of August 1905. Adversely to your appellant. And she feeling aggrieved by said judgment, Appeals on the following counts, as error by the Commissioner of the five Civilized Tribes.

1st that appellant has been recognized as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians since about 1885, when she was married to George Fusley, who was a recognized who was a fully recognized Choctaw Indian of the half blood, and after his death in 1888, appellant was married to Alfred W. Folsom, a full blood Choctaw Indian, who is still living, and is the husband of the appellant and they live together near Atoka in the Choctaw Nation Indian Territory.

The appellant has continuously lived in the Choctaw Nation since her first marriage to George Fusley, and has been always since been recognized as a citizen by intermarriage of said Tribe. That Alfred Folsom present Husband of the appellant appears upon the approved Choctaw citizen Rolls opposite No. 13799 as approved by the Honorable Secretary of the Interior on March the 19th 1903.

That the Commissioner erred in as much as he states in the judgment here referred to that the appellant at the time of making application, for enrollment had a living husband from whom she had never been Divorced, this we conclude was presumption on the part of the Commissioner, as there is no testimony in our possession showing this fact, and the Choctaw and Chickesaw Nations never did introduce any witness to establish this fact. It is a fact that at one time the appellant had a husband in the State of West Virginia, who has been dead so far as the appellant knows for many years prior to her first marriage to George Pusley the former husband, who his brother Liran Pusley killed in the Year 1856, two years before her marriage to Alfred W. Folsom.

Your appellant has always and yet does deny having a husband living from whom she has never been Divorced and that the Commissioner erred in the presumption that she had such husband.

Your applicant was duly placed upon the 1896, Choctaw Rolls by the Tribal authorities as an intermarried citizen and member of said Choctaw Tribe, and her rights as such citizen has never been denied by the Tribal authorities of the Choctaw or Chickesaw Tribes of Indians in the Indian Territory, but has at all times been recognized as such intermarried citizen by the tribal authorities, and the members of said Choctaw Tribe.

The appellant has been identified by the Tribal authorities upon the 1906, Choctaw Rolls as an intermarried citizen opposite number 2422, and no opposition taken by the Attorney for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Tribes to her final enrollment as a member of said Tribe but only opposition taken by the Commissioner to the Five Tribes.

The appellant was lawfully married to George Pusley a half breed Choctaw Indian and he was killed and then she was lawfully married to Alfred W. Folsom a full blood Choctaw Indian who still lives with appellant, and appellant is recognized as his lawful wife by the Tribal authorities and by all the members of said Tribe that know her, and her intermarried citizenship has never been denied only by the Commissioner to the Five Tribes. The Act of Congress of enrollment provides that the Commission must enroll all persons who have been placed upon the Tribal rolls, except such persons who have been placed there through fraud or without authority of law, and neither of said charges have been proven against the appellant.

Therefore in view of all the facts your appellant believes that she is clearly entitled to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and Prays that your Honorable Commissioner set aside the judgment so rendered by the Commissioner and order said appellant enrolled as such citizen and member of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians in the Indian Territory.

Jensy N. Folsom

By her Attorney of Record R. B. Coleman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

BEFORE THE COMMISSIONER OF INDIAN AFFAIRS.

In the matter of the application of Jansy N. Folsom to be enrolled as a citizen and member of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians in the Indian Territory, by Intermarriage.

Comes now the applicant Jansy N. Folsom and makes the following Affidavit in the aforesaid case.

My name is Jansy N. Folsom, my age is years, my Post Office is Atoka Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. I am the wife of Alfred W. Folsom who is a Choctaw Indian by blood and a member of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians in the Indian Territory. I have applied to be enrolled as a citizen and member of said Choctaw Tribe of Indians in the Indian Territory by Intermarriage, and have been denied enrollment by the Commissioner to the Five Tribes, from the fact that the Commissioner held that I had a living husband from whom I had not been legally divorced, living in either Virginia or Ohio, not stated where.

I once had a husband in west Virginia whose name was E. B. Edwards, whom I have not known the whereabouts of for the past twenty years or more and do not at this time know whether he is alive or dead. I have been living in the Choctaw Nation for the past twenty-three years, and have been recognized as a citizen and member of said Choctaw Tribe for the past twenty years by Intermarriage having married two Choctaw citizens by blood, and am now living with my last Choctaw husband Alfred W. Folsom.

I have every reason to believe my former husband dead having not seen or heard from him for many years. I believe that the decision of the Honorable Commissioner to the Five Tribes denying me the right to enrollment was erroneous and with out proper proof, the Choctaw Nation not having proven that I had a living husband that from whom I had not been Divorced. And I believe the burden of proof rested upon the Nation in this matter. I have always been a faithful and law abiding citizen of said Choctaw Nation and have always been recognized by the Tribal Authorities as such citizen, having been placed upon all of the rolls of Citizens of said Choctaw Nation that has been made since I became such citizen by Intermarriage, and was placed upon the 1896 roll of such citizens.

I believe I am clearly entitled to enrollment as such citizen, under the laws customs and usages of the Choctaw Tribe of Indians in the Indian Territory and under the treaties and Acts of Congress relating thereto.

And respectfully request that the Honorable Commissioners of Indian Affairs carefully review my case and grant me the privilege of Enrollment as such citizen of the Choctaw Nation by Intermarriage.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Chaney Noel as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on April 3, 1898, the applicant, Chaney Noel, was lawfully married to Ben Noel, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 13800 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they resided continuously in said Nation, as husband and wife, from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that Chaney Noel should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), and July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Edward Neal, the infant son of Ben J. and Emma Neal, born January 20, 1901.

The same is returned to you herewith for the reason that the records of the Commission show that you are listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation and not of the Choctaw nation. Therefore, the application for the enrollment of your child should be as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Upon return of the application with this correction, the matter will be given further consideration.

Waskagoo, Indian Territory, April 23, 1902.

Cherry Tree,

Waskagoo, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 15th instant, referring to our communication of March 17, 1902, in which you were advised that the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation would be taken up for final consideration by the Commission at its office at Waskagoo, Indian Territory, on May 8, 1902.

In your letter you desire to be informed if the Commission will accept ex parte affidavits of witnesses before a notary public in support of your application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Replying to your inquiry, you are advised that the Commission is averse to the acceptance or consideration of ex parte affidavits or written testimony of any description in support of the applications of persons for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and cannot consider testimony of this character in support of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation.

The Commission will on May 6, 1908, take up for final consideration the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation and if on that date no appearance is made by or on your behalf or witnesses introduced in person by you, the Commission will consider the case closed and as early thereafter as practicable pass upon your rights to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation.

In the event that the decision of the Commission is unfavorable to you, you will be duly advised thereof and of the forwarding of the record in the case to the Secretary of the Interior for his review.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Chickasaw D-159.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, February 26, 1903.

Chassey Noel,

Stannard, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations April 1, 1903.

The act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides as follows:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at said place on one of the dates above named for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 30, 1903.

Ben Noel,

Sansbois, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 19th instant, requesting to be advised relative to the application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of your wife, Chaney Noel.

You are informed it appears from our records that Chaney Noel, now about twenty-two years of age, of Sansbois, Indian Territory and wife of Ben Noel, is an applicant to this Commission for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, but no decision relative to her right to final enrollment as such has yet been rendered by the Commission. As soon as a decision has been reached in her case due notice of the action taken by the Commission therein will be forwarded to her at Sansbois, Indian Territory.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Dear Madam:

In the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation you were on February 26, 1903 notified to personally appear before the Commission and testify as to your intermarried status on September 25, 1902. To said notice no response has been made.

You are again advised that it will be necessary for you to appear before the Commission at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory and testify as to your intermarried status on September 25, 1902, and that until you do so appear nothing further can be done in the matter of your enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

75437

Broken Bow, Indian Territory, May 20, 1905.

Ben Noel,

Same Place, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 6, 1905, asking if you are entitled to an allotment for your daughter who was born February 16, 1903, and died November 3, 1904.

In reply to your letter you are advised that under the provisions of the act of Congress approved March 3, 1903, the Commission was authorized for a period of sixty days from that date to receive applications for the enrollment of children born to enrolled citizens by blood of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations subsequent to September 25, 1902 and prior to March 4, 1905, and living on that date. You will therefore see that the Commission is without authority to enroll children born subsequent to September 25, 1902, who were not living on March 4, 1905.

Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 29th inst., requesting to be advised relative to the enrollment of your infant child, Susan Riddle.

You are informed it appears from our records that there was received by the Commission at South McAlester, Indian Territory, December 22, 1902, an application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation of Susan Riddle, infant daughter of Coleman and Nancy Riddle, born May 31, 1902, at which time only the affidavit of the mother relative to the birth of said child was submitted, in which it was stated that the father of the child was a Choctaw freedman. Evidence having been taken this day established the identity of Coleman Riddle as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and complete affidavits relative to the birth of said child having been filed with the records of the Commission, Susan Riddle has this day been listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and her name will probably be included in the schedule of citizens of said Nation to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of John M. Lloyd as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that John M. Lloyd appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by reason of his marriage with Ida Lloyd (nee Watts), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13815 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 3, 1896, in the case entitled "John M. Lloyd, et al. vs. Choctaw Nation", (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 1253), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with the said Ida Lloyd (nee Watts), and on December 8, 1896, the said John M. Lloyd was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that his status as an intermarried citizen remained unchanged from the date of his said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1903.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that John M. Lloyd should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of March 19, in which you state that you understand that Mrs. Rose Leflore of Jackson, Indian Territory, appeared before the Commission at South McAlester and made application to be transferred to the Chectaw roll, and inquire as to whether it was done, and also inquire whether your family was transferred.

You are informed that the records of this Commission show that John M. and Ida Lloyd, his wife, together with their three children are duly listed for enrollment in the Chickasaw Nation. Also that Rosanna Leflore and her six children are duly listed for enrollment in the Chickasaw Nation.

The Commission is not able to clearly understand just what you mean by this application for a transfer to the Chectaw roll. It is true that all these parties appeared on the 1896 census roll of the Chectaw Nation, but their blood relations on the mother's side being Chickasaws, they were listed for enrollment in the Chickasaw Nation. If this information is not sufficient, if you will kindly furnish the Commission with the full status in the case of these two families, the matter will receive further attention.

Yours truly,

In replying to this letter, kindly refer to Chickasaw 1205.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 24th of November in which you desire to be informed if the names of Mrs. Nettie Thompson and her children appear upon the roll of citizens of the Chickasaw Nation as being prepared by this Commission.

Also if Charles and Preston Lloyd have been listed for enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw nation.

You are informed that the records of this Commission show that Mrs. Nettie Thompson, 34 years of age, together with her four minor children, Ray, Robert, Myrtle and Ethel Thompson were listed for enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw nation, September 25, 1900 in pursuance of a judgment of the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory, rendered at Ardmore, Indian Territory, January 24th, 1898 in court case No. 75.

On the same day, Charles Lloyd, 33 years of age and Preston Lloyd, 30 years of age, of Nowlston, Indian Territory were listed for enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw nation in pursuance of the court judgment above referred to.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Bensey Laflore as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

An examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission shows that the name of the applicant, Bensey Laflore, is found upon the 1896 Chickasaw Census roll, page 69, and is also found (as Bensey L. Wade) upon the 1896 Choctaw Census roll, number 13039, on each roll as a citizen by blood.

The record herein further shows that on December 20, 1902, the applicant was notified that she would be allowed until January 15, 1903, to personally appear before this Commission at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, and elect to be finally enrolled by this Commission as a citizen of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation, under the following provision of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495):

"The several tribes may, by agreement, determine the right of persons who for any reason may claim citizenship in two or more tribes, and to allotment of lands and distribution of moneys belonging to each tribe; but if no such agreement be made, then such claimant shall be entitled to such rights in one tribe only, and may elect in which tribe he will take such right; but if he fail or refuse to make such selection in due time, he shall be enrolled in the tribe with whom he has resided, and there be given such allotment and distributions, and not elsewhere."

A copy of which notice is attached hereto and made a part of the record in this case. No response has been made to such notice by or on behalf of the applicant.

It further appears that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, all applicants listed upon census cards having been first examined as to such fact, although their testimony was not reduced to writing.

The records of the Commission further show that on September 7, 1898, when application was made to the Commission for the enrollment of this applicant, she was a resident of the Choctaw Nation and has continued so to reside.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Bensey Laflore should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of section 21 of the act of Congress

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 28, inclosing the affidavits of Edmond M. Bond and Wallace Bond to the death of Richard C. Bond, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, November 16, 1902, and the same, being in proper form, have been filed with the records of the Commission in the matter of the death of the above named person.

In compliance with your request there are inclosed you herewith twelve blanks for proof of death. You are informed, however, that where citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have died subsequent to September 25, 1902, evidence of death should be filed by the administrator at the time he appears before the land office for the purpose of making selection of allotment for such deceased person.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Lula Elizabeth Scott, the infant daughter of John F. and Phoebe Scott, born August 26th, 1900.

The same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of this Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Washington, Indian Territory, January 20, 1902.

John P. Scott,

Must, Indian Territory.

Sir:

It does not appear from the records of the Commission that any proof of the birth of your child, Laura Scott, has been furnished in the matter of her enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. It is necessary that the same be supplied.

In order to assist you in this matter a blank for that purpose is enclosed you herewith. In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write and their signatures are by mark that such signatures be attested by two disinterested parties witnesses thereto.

The Notary public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

This matter should receive prompt attention as the affidavits are essential in the matter of the enrollment of your child.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the affidavits of John Scott and Salina Walton, relative to the birth of your minor child Laura M. Scott, on December 20, 1898, and the same being in proper form have been duly filed with the records of the Commission as evidence of the birth of this child.

You request to be advised whether your other children John P. and Lula B. Scott are enrolled.

We are informed that our records show that John Scott, three years of age, was listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation September 6, 1898, and that Lula Elizabeth Scott was duly listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation October 12, 1900.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

7-5446.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 14, 1903.

J. P. Scott,

Lula, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Your letter of June 16, 1903, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior has been referred to this Commission for consideration and appropriate action. You state therein that you and your family have always been recognized as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation and went to Fishominge to draw the forty dollars payment and there found that your names were upon the Choctaw roll; you further state that you thought you were entitled to enrollment in the Chickasaw Nation, and have bought farms and are now removing to that nation for the purpose of sending your children to the Chickasaw schools. You therefore ask that you and your family be transferred to the Chickasaw roll.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it not appearing from the tribal rolls of the Chickasaw nation in the possession of the Commission that Phoebe Scott has been recognized and enrolled as a citizen by blood of the said nation by the tribal authorities thereof and her name having been identified from the Choctaw tribal rolls, she and her children John, Laura and Lula Elizabeth Scott have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and their enrollment as such has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

J. P. C. 1-4

It is therefore impossible to comply with your request to have their name transferred from the Oneota to the Chickasaw rolls. You are informed, however, that citizens of the Oneota and Chickasaw Nations may select their allotments in either or both the Oneota or Chickasaw Nations.

You are further informed that it does not appear from our records that application has ever been made by you or in your behalf to this Commission for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of either the Oneota or Chickasaw Nations.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 24, 1903, in which you state that Becca Roberts and Edmund Burris are dead, but Josephine Roberts and Nash Burris are still living.

It is stated further in your letter that Becca Roberts died in October 1900, and Edmund Burris died in March 1901.

You are advised that it appears from our records that at Atoka, Indian Territory, you made affidavit as to the death of Josephine Roberts, stating that she died in November 1900, and also an affidavit as to the death of Edmund Burris in December 1900.

Enclosed herewith you will find two blanks for proof of death, also an envelope for return of the same when properly executed. You are requested to furnish the Commission with the affidavit of your self and an acquaintance, relative to the death of Edmund Burris and Becca Roberts, stating exact date of death if possible.

Please give this matter prompt attention.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 8, 1903.

Commissioner in Charge,
Chickasaw Land Office
Tishomingo, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 3rd inst., enclosing a copy of the testimony of Sampson Roberts and Abel Foster taken at your office on October 28, 1903, relative to Josephine Roberts, Choctaw card number 5447, Choctaw roll number 18080.

In your letter you advise that this testimony was taken in view of the fact that the following notation appears upon Choctaw card number 5447:

"No. 2 died in Nov. 1900; proof of death filed Nov. 26, 1902"

Your office has heretofore forwarded, and there is now on file with the records of this office, the testimony of Sampson Roberts and Solomon Frazier taken at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, dated July 21, 1903, to the effect that Josephine Roberts was then living.

You are further advised that there is a notation upon the face of Choctaw enrollment card field number 5447 as follows:

"Letter received from Sampson Roberts dated Feby. 27, 1903, stating that No. 2 is not dead filed herein March 24, 1903"

Chickasaw L. B. 2

You are further advised that at Atoka, Indian Territory, on November 21, 1902, Sampson Roberts made affidavit to the death of his daughter Josephine Roberts some time during the month of November 1902. It is presumed that such affidavit was intended to cover the death of his wife Willie Roberts.

You are further advised that Josephine Roberts having been enrolled by this Commission and her enrollment having been approved by the Secretary of the Interior October 15, 1903, and inasmuch as she was living on September 25, 1903, there is apparently no reason why an allotment of lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations should not be made to her.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of November 4, in which you state that both Edmund Burris and Rebecca Roberts are dead, but that Josephine Roberts and Noah Burris are living, and you request that death certificate be forwarded you for the purpose of making proof of the death of Rebecca Roberts and Edmund Burris.

In compliance with your request, there are enclosed you herewith blanks for proof of death, together with an envelope for the return thereof which requires no postage.

In reply to that part of your letter in which you say that you can not account for the statement in our letter of March 25, 1903, that your affidavit to the death of Josephine Roberts is on file with the Commission, but if this is the case the notary before whom the affidavit was made must have misunderstood you, you are informed that it appears from our records that the testimony of Sampson Roberts and Solomon Frasier shows that Josephine Roberts is still alive.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Daisy LeFlore as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION

It appears from the record herein that Daisy LeFlore (nee Smith) was lawfully married, on March 9, 1902, to William W. LeFlore, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13828 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both parties above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Daisy LeFlore should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 26, inquiring if the name of Bud Durant, son of Mary Durant, appears on the rolls of Choctaw citizens.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it does not appear from our records that any person by the name of Bud Durant has been listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. It does appear, however, that Ethelbert Durant, son of Pier and Melvina Durant, whose name appears on the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation as Bud Durant, has been listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

If this is not the person to whom you refer, and you will state when, where and under what name Bud Durant was listed for enrollment, the names of other members of his family who appeared at the same time and any other information you may possess which would enable the Commission to identify him upon its records, the matter of your inquiry will receive further consideration.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 10th instant, acknowledging receipt of a circular letter of the Commission of October 4, 1902, and calling attention to the census referring to new born children and deaths of citizens previously listed.

You state that your child, Cornelia Amelia Gray, died November 2, 1900.

For the purpose of making the death of this child a matter of record, there is enclosed you herewith a blank proof of death which you are requested to have executed and return to the Commission in the enclosed envelope which requires no postage.

In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures be attested by two disinterested persons,

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Carmine Durant as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

--- DECISION ---

It appears from the record herein that Carmine Durant, (nee Caruthers), on September 4, 1898 was lawfully married to Morgan J. Durant, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13854 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Carmine Durant should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Robert C. Bills as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Robert C. Bills on May 28, 1899, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Sarah Bills (nee Le Flore), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13857 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Robert C. Bills should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

-10:-

It appears from the record herein that Rose Hays (nee Elkin), on August 23, 1895, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Thomas Hays, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13858 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Rose Hays should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 2, 1903.

Thomas Hays,
Doagherty, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of November 25, asking if your wife, Rosa Hays, has been approved. You also ask if you can be definitely informed as to whether you can get an allotment for your baby, born January 5, 1903.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the Commission has not yet passed upon the application of Rosa Hays, wife of Thomas Hays, for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. As soon as a decision is reached in this case she will be notified of the action of the Commission.

Replying to that part of your letter in which you ask if you can secure an allotment for your child, born January 5, 1903, your attention is invited to the following provisions of the Act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902:

T.H. 2

"The names of all persons living on the date of the final ratification of this agreement entitled to be enrolled as provided in Section 27 hereof shall be placed upon the rolls made by said Commission; and no child born thereafter to a citizen or freedman and no person intermarried thereafter to a citizen shall be entitled to enrollment or to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws."

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Chickasaw-657.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, June 18, 1904.

Walter P. Bradley,

Bradley, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 2nd, in which you ask for a certificate of enrollment of your children, Frank, Clara, Ernest, Nellie and Holmes Bradley, in 1896 and also a certificate of enrollment of your wife, Texanna Bradley (nee Colbert), who died July 16, 1892.

In compliance with your request there is enclosed you herewith a certificate showing tribal enrollment of Frank, Clara, Ernest, Nellie and Holmes Bradley on the 1896 Census Roll, Chickasaw nation, Pickens County.

You are advised that your wife, Texanna Colbert, having died in 1892, her name would not appear upon the 1893 Leased District Payment Roll of citizens of the Chickasaw nation and we are unable to identify her as either Texanna Bradley or Colbert on the 1878 Annuity Roll of the Chickasaw nation.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Mr. E. C. Whiggen,

Acting Chairman.

Lawton, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of January 20, in the matter of the application for enrollment of Buck Shigman, with the enclosures of the decree of divorce between Ella Joel, the mother of Buck Shigman and your present wife, and her former husband, William Joel. Also the marriage license and certificate of E. C. Whiggen to Ella Joel. This will be sufficient evidence to identify Ella Joel as the mother of Buck Shigman, and the application has been filed with the records of this Commission. It will be necessary for the Commission to retain the decree of divorce and the marriage license and certificate to file with the application for enrollment of Buck Shigman and the same cannot at this time be returned to you unless you can supply certified copies of the same from the official records of the courts in which they were recorded to file in their place.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 20, 1901.

D. C. Shipman,

Eastman, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Willie Augustus Shipman, the infant son of D. C. and Ella Shipman, born August 23, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of this office and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

7-8458.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 18, 1902.

Mrs. Ella Shipman,
Addington, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:-

It appears from the birth affidavit of your daughter, Ailie Jeel, that she was born December 13, 1898, but her name is not found upon the 1898 Choctaw census roll. You should therefore send to the Commission in the form of an affidavit whatever explanation you may have as to the reason why your daughter's name does not appear upon this census roll.

This matter must receive your immediate attention as the information requested is absolutely necessary in the matter of the enrollment of your daughter as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

7-5459.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, January 30, 1903.

Mrs. Ella Shipman,

Eastman, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 1st inst., stating that three of your children have died since the time they were listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation. You state their names are Alice and Rhoda Joel and William Augustus Shipman.

For the purpose of making the death of these children a matter of record, blanks for proof of death are enclosed you herewith, together with an envelope for return of same when properly executed.

You are kindly requested to give the matter prompt attention.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your affidavit and that of Hettie Collins relative to the death of your minor child, Alice Joel, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, which occurred March 7, 1899; and the same being in proper form have been duly filed with the records of the Commission as evidence of death of the above named person.

Receipt is also acknowledged of your affidavit and that of Hettie Collins relative to the death of your minor child, William A. Shipman, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, which occurred September 3, 1901; and the same being in proper form have been duly filed with the records of the Commission as evidence of death of the above named child.

Further acknowledgment is made of receipt of your affidavit and that of Hettie Collins relative to the death of Hedy Joel, your minor child and a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, which occurred August 30, 1900.

You are reminded that it was the express purpose of the Board of Education to have Joel was duly listed for enrollment as a citizen by Board of the District of Columbia.
If application was ever made for his enrollment as a citizen at either the District or Washington National, you are requested to state how age, the time and place such application was made, and any other information you may have which will assist the Commission to identify Rudy Joel as having been duly listed for enrollment.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Memphis, Indian Territory, September 1, 1906.

Samuel G. Shireman,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Elberta Wilson, infant son of Samuel G. and Ella Wilson, born August 24, 1905; and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission, and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

---o---
In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Herman C. Thurlow as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.
-- -- -- -- --

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Herman C. Thurlow appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by reason of his marriage to Sophia Thurlow (nee Jones), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as Sophie Thurlow, number 12468, upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Atoka County; that he lived continuously with the said Sophia Thurlow as her husband until the date of her death on April 4, 1898; that on June 4, 1901, he was lawfully married to Lucinda Thurlow (formerly Wade, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13041 upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Tobucksy County; that he lived with her continuously as her husband until February 15, 1902, the date of her death; and that since the death of said Lucinda Thurlow (formerly Wade), up to and including September 25, 1902, he had not remarried.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in the case entitled "Herman C. Thurlow vs. Choctaw Nation", (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 285), the applicant herein made personal application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation by virtue of his marriage with the aforesaid Sophia Thurlow (nee Jones), and on December 2, 1896, the said Herman C. Thurlow was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

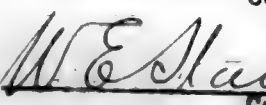

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that his status as an intermarried citizen remained unchanged from the date of his said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Herman C. Thurlow should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Gonnerville, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 15th instant, acknowledging receipt of a communication from the Commission relative to your marriage to a Choctaw woman by the name of Lucinda Wade.

Coalgate
You state in your letter that you married this woman at Coalgate, Indian Territory, on June 4, 1901 and that she has two daughters, Glennie Watson and Kitey Jefferson.

Relative to the enrollment of your wife and her two daughters as citizens of the Choctaw Nation you are informed that the Commission on November 16, 1901 listed them for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation upon an application made by Bradley Anderson, a son of Lucinda Wade.

It further appears from our records that on September 1, 1899, a Herman G. Thurlow of Linestown, Indian Territory, was listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation by reason of his marriage to a Chickasaw woman named Sophia Thurlow who is now deceased. This office is desirous of being informed if you are the identical Herman G. Thurlow who was at that time listed for marriage and for this purpose you are requested to state if you were ever married to a citizen of the United States, if not, the date and if you had any children by that former marriage, state their names.

It would also be desirable that you furnish either the original or certified copy of your marriage license and certificate to include both as authority for the change of the date from the records from Mr. James Earl of this to Mr. James Earl of Tharlow.

This matter should receive your prompt attention.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 1st instant, enclosing certificate of Marriage of H. C. Thurlow and Lucinda Wade of June 4, 1901.

The Commission has had made a certified copy of the said certificate and the original is today forwarded you under separate cover.

The information contained in your letter has enabled us to identify you as the former husband of Sophia Thurlow, now deceased and the father of her four children who have been duly listed for enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, December 8, 1901.

Herman G. Thurlow,

Pontotoc, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission has recent knowledge of your marriage to a Choctaw woman by the name of Lucinda Wade.

If this is correct, will you inform the Commission of the time and place that you married her, if she has any children, their names and such information as you may have relative to her family.

You are requested to give this matter your early consideration.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your affidavit and that of W. B. Anderson relative to the death of your wife, Lucinda Thurlow, which occurred February 18, 1902, and the same are returned to you herewith for the reason that the notary public before whom the affidavit of W. B. Anderson was acknowledged neglected to affix his notarial seal thereto.

You are kindly requested to have the seal of the notary public affixed to the affidavit of W. B. Anderson and return the same at your earliest convenience in the enclosed envelope which requires no postage.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Charles Bascom,

Peabodysburg, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of recent date, enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Lena Bascom, the infant daughter of Charles Bascom, a citizen of the Choctaw Nation by blood and of Jane Bascom nee Carney, a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation. The application contains the affidavit of Charles Bascom, the father of the child and Wallace Carney, as to its birth on the 21st of November, 1900.

You state in your letter that it is impracticable for you to obtain the affidavit of your wife and the physician who waited on her at the birth of this child.

The application is herewith returned to you for the reason that the same is not in proper form to be accepted by the Commission as evidence of the birth of this child. There is enclosed you herewith a blank which has been adopted and used by the Commission in the matter of the applications for enrollment of infant children. In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and in the event that either the father or attending physician making affidavit to the birth of the child are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such mark is attested by two witnesses.

Charles H. H. H.

was born in the Indian Territory. The State Public Health Commission of the United States has been notified of the birth of the child and the mother has been notified of the birth of the child and the mother has been notified of the birth of the child. The Commission must require that the affidavit of the mother and of the attending physician or nurse at the birth of the child be properly executed before the application and pending consideration.

The records of the Commission show that Charles H. H., 23 years of age, was listed for enrollment on August 2nd, 1909, as a citizen by blood of the Cherokee Nation at which time his post office address was given as London, Indian Territory. If you are the party so listed for enrollment, you are requested to so inform the Commission.

As to your wife's enrollment, the records of the Commission do not show that any party by the name of Jane Carney has been listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation but it does appear that on November 16th, 1909, Jane Carney, 21 years of age and the daughter of Wallace Carney, a Cherokee freedman and Susan Carney, deceased, a Chickasaw Indian by blood, was listed for enrollment by the Commission as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation. If this is your wife who has been so listed for enrollment you are requested to so inform the Commission and it will also be necessary that evidence of your marriage to Jane Carney be supplied as authority for the changing of her name upon our records from Carney to H. H.

The Commission has also to request that with the return of the application, her name appear thereon as Jane, under which name she made application for enrollment.

Langley, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 7th instant relative to the application for enrollment of Lena Haskins, the infant daughter of Charles and Jimmy Haskins, born November 14th, 1900.

From the information contained in your letter the Commission has been unable to identify the mother of this child as Jimmy Garney who has been listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation. The application for the enrollment of Lena Haskins is returned to you herewith for the reason that the application for the enrollment of this child should be made as a citizen of the Chickasaw and not of the Choctaw Nation, as the rules of the Commission require that children whose parents are both citizens by blood of one or more of the Five Tribes of the Indian Territory, that the child must follow the blood of the mother and be listed for enrollment with the tribe to which the mother belongs.

There is enclosed you herewith a new blank application which have filled out as an application for the enrollment of this child as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation in accordance with the notations in blue pencil made upon the old application which is returned you herewith.

Dear Sir:-

The Commission has information of the death of your son, William Carney, subsequent to the time application was made for his enrollment, November 16, 1899.

For the purpose of making the fact of his death a matter of record, there is enclosed you herewith a blank proof of death, which you will kindly have filled out and return to the Commission.

In having the same executed, you will notice that there is a blank for the affidavit of a relative and an acquaintance. Both of these blanks should be filled, all names written in full and the affidavits sworn to before a Notary Public. Should the relative or acquaintance making the affidavit be unable to write, and their signatures are by mark, it will be necessary to have such signatures attested by two disinterested parties as witnesses thereto.

The notary public acknowledging the affidavits must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit. The Commission will appreciate your prompt attention to this matter.

An envelope for reply is enclosed you herewith.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 20, asking if your name and the name of your grand daughter, Lucy Frasier, are found on the Choctaw rolls.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Melissa Belvin and her grand daughter, Rosa Frasier, nine years old, daughter of Joe and Emily Frasier, both dead, were listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation on August 20, 1899, having been identified from the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation. If this is not the grand daughter, Lucy Frasier to whom you refer, and you will give the full name, age and residence of the grand child in whose behalf you make inquiry, the names of her parents and other members of her family who were listed for enrollment at the same time, and any other information you may possess which would enable the Commission to identify her on its records, the matter will receive further consideration.

Treadwell & Lucas,

Attorneys at Law,

Fishomingo, Indian Territory,

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 10, asking if William Mosely and Sarah Mosely are enrolled as Choctaw or Chickasaw Indians.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that William Mosely and Ida Mosely have been listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and that Sarah Mosely and her minor children, Ava and Annie Mosely have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation and on December 13, 1902, their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 20th inst., stating that you recently received a blank for the enrollment of your child, Union Bond. It is stated in your letter that this child is dead.

You are advised that the Commission received proof of the death of this child October 25, 1908; and the same was duly filed with our records.

Respectfully,

Mrs. Lizzie Churchman,
Wailville, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

It does not appear from the records of this office that evidence of the birth of your daughter, Unice Bend, has been filed with the Commission. There is enclosed herewith a blank application for enrollment of infant children. In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full, and that the notary public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged attaches his name and seal to each affidavit. Signatures by mark must be attested by two disinterested witnesses. This evidence should be furnished at once as the same is necessary to determine the rights of your daughter, Unice Bend, as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and no further action can be taken relative to her final enrollment as such until this information is supplied.

An envelope for your reply is enclosed herewith, which requires no postage.

It further appears from our records that this woman is the wife of Reed Bond, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

If this is not the person concerning whom you inquire, it will be necessary before the matter can receive further consideration that you specify the time and place she made application to the Commission for enrollment, the names of other members of her family for whom application was made at the same time and such other information as you may have as will enable us to identify her upon our records.

Relative to the Malinda Kirk concerning whom you inquire, you are advised that it appears from our records that at Goshute, Indian Territory, November 13, 1899, John B. Kirk made application to this Commission for the enrollment of himself and his sister Malinda Kirk as citizens of the Choctaw Nation but their enrollment was at that time refused for the reason that their names were not found upon any of the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of the Commission and they were also denied citizenship in the Chickasaw Nation by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes under the provisions of the act of Congress of June 10, 1896.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 31, 1902 in which you desire to be furnished with a blank for the enrollment of an infant child.

A blank of such description is enclosed you herewith. In having the same executed, be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full, and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits, are unable to write, and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures be attested by two disinterested parties, witnesses thereto. The notary public before whom the acknowledgments of the mother and the attending physician or nurse are made must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

You also desire to be informed if the daughter of Clarence Phrasier appears upon the Chickasaw roll as Lissie Roberts or as Lissie Bond.

You are advised that it appears from our records that on August 20, 1890, Lissie Bond, 19 years of age, a full blood Chickasaw Indian and the daughter of Larsen and Kellany Roberts was

The records of this Commission show that you were listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation on August 24th 1899, with your son Edmund Loring. You were identified as being on the 1896 roll as a resident of Blue County. Was your son Edmund Loring in 1896 known by the name of Simsaliva and was he living in Asoka County at that time.

The 1896 roll of the Chickasaw Nation shows that Simsaliva residing in Asoka County, eleven years old and the child of Martha McCane.

If this is your child please notify the Commission and if he is the identical person who was listed for enrollment as Edmund Loring, please so state to the Commission. Your prompt attention to this matter will greatly oblige.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 29th of December, replying to the Commission's letter of the 16th of October relative to the enrollment of Edmund Loring.

The Commission desires information relative to this child for the reason that there appears upon the 1897 Census roll of the Choctaw Nation, the name of Simflayah who has been unaccounted for up to this time by the Commission. There is a notation made on said Census roll that this child is the son of Martha McGann and our records show that your wife, Martha Loring, was formerly named Martha McGann.

Will you now inform the Commission if Edmund Loring was at any time ever known by the name of Simflayah.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Fritz Sittel as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the census card record in this case that Fritz Sittel, on March 20, 1898, appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It appears from the record herein that Fritz Sittel, on September 2, 1883, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Marvina Sittel (nee Pitchlynn), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13908 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Fritz Sittel should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations April 1, 1903.

The act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides as follows:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear at said place on one of the above dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

Arpolar, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 3rd instant, requesting information relative to the enrollment of yourself and family.

You are informed it appears from our records that you are an applicant to this Commission for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, but no decision relative to your final right to enrollment as such has yet been rendered. As soon as a decision is reached in your case, you will be duly notified of the action taken by the Commission.

It further appears from our records that Malvina Sittel and her minor children, Edward, William B., Myrtle, Lottie, Jessie, Fritz, Jr., Farris G., and Melven Cornish Sittel, have been enrolled as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation by this Commission, and their enrollment as such approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

In the matter of the enrollment of Tealy Church as Choctaw by blood Tennessee Tisho being sworn and examined by Com. McKennon, testifies:

(Dukes, Interpreter.)

Q Name is Tennessee Tisho, 26 years old.

She says she don't know who the child is related to; says she knows the child; her uncle had the child and he died and then she taken it and then afterwards she gave the child to Loran Polson.

Q (Lewis) Who was the mother? A She don't know the mother.

She says the only person that would be likely to know the mother would be Sam McCain's wife.

Department of the Interior,

D-589.

On the 5th day of March, 1902, the applicant was notified by registered mail, and on the 6th day of March, 1902, the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations were also notified by registered mail that the application of Sealy Church for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation would be taken up by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 14th day of April, 1902, for final consideration.

Now on this 14th day of April, 1902, this cause coming on to be heard, pursuant to said notice, the Choctaw Nation failed to appear, and the applicant being called failed to appear either in person or by attorney.

Hal Belford, being first duly sworn, upon his oath states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes he reported in full all the proceedings in the above entitled cause on April 14, 1902, and that the above and foregoing is a full true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes in said cause on the said day of April, 1902.

Celia Church,

Summerfield, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

You are hereby notified that the Choctaw Nation, through its attorneys, Messrs McKennon, Mansfield, McMurray, & Cornish, has filed with this Commission a notice of protest to your enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

The Commission, commencing December 3rd, 1900, will hold a session at Atoka, Indian Territory. At that time both you and the Choctaw Nation will be permitted to offer additional testimony and written arguments in this case, and this hearing will be final.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 27th of November, enclosing the affidavits of Lisa McGasson, General H. McGasson and Gella Wuit offered by you in support of the application of Gella Church, applicant for enrollment as a citizen of the Chester Nation. The same have been filed with the other papers in this case.

The Commission cannot advise you as to whether the evidence submitted by you is sufficient but will consider the same when the case is finally taken up for disposition.

The Commission notified Gella Church that a protest has been filed by the Chester Nation to her enrollment as a citizen of that Nation and that oral testimony would be heard in her behalf at its session at Atoka beginning December 3rd, 1900. If it is her intention to appear before the Commission at its appointment at Atoka it would be well for her to arrange to do so as early as possible.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Madam:

The Commission is this date in receipt of a letter from Hon. R. S. McKennon, South McAlester, Indian Territory, enclosing your letter of the 14th instant and addressed to the Honorable Chickasaw Examining Commission in which you make inquiry relative to your witness fees to prove the right of Celie Wyatt as a Chickasaw Indian.

You state in said letter that you testified at Wister on June 5th, 1899 and at Howe in December, 1900 and McAlester December 12th, 1900.

Replying to your letter the Commission has to inform you that you have evidently been misinformed if directed to apply to the Commission for the collection of any witness fees in the matter of the application of the woman of whom you speak as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. Our records show that Celie Church who is now the wife of R. L. Wyatt, was on June 5th, 1899, listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw nation and it is possible that you at that time offered testimony before the Commission in her behalf but certainly no such testimony could have been offered at Howe during the month of December, 1900 or at McAlester on December 12th, for the reason that the Commission had no appointment at either of these places during the month of December and no

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 4th instant in which you asked that your marriage license be returned to you and also that you be informed as to the records, now held by you and Maria Lee Smith are only listed as married.

The records of the Commission show that there is no file the marriage license and certificate between William L. Smith and Maria Lee Church and it is necessary that the same be retained in the files of the Commission.

As to Maria Church and Maria Lee Smith, you are informed that the records of the Commission show that they are listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 5, 1902.

Celia Wyatt,

Now, Indian Territory.

You are hereby notified that the application of yourself for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation will be taken up for final consideration by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, on the 14th day of April, 1902.

On said date you may, if you desire, appear before the Commission in person or by attorney when an opportunity will be given you to introduce any additional testimony affecting said application which you may think proper or necessary.

You are further notified that the representatives of the Choctaw Nation will also, at the same time, be afforded an opportunity to introduce testimony affecting your right to enrollment, but said representatives will be required to notify you of their intention to introduce such testimony before they will be permitted to do so.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 26, 1902.

L. L. Wyatt,

Pittsburg, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 18th instant, in which you state that you have received the letter of the Commission of March 6, 1902, addressed to Oelia Wyatt and that you can appear before the Commission on April 14, 1902, if necessary.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it is not necessary for you to appear before the Commission as our letter of the 5th instant was addressed to your wife, Oelia Wyatt and informed her that the matter of her application for enrollment as a citizen of the Cherokee Nation would be taken up by the Commission at its office in Muskogee, Indian Territory, for final consideration on April 14, 1902, and that she might on that date if she desired, appear in person or by attorney before the Commission when an opportunity would be given her to introduce any additional testimony affecting her application which she might think proper or necessary.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, April 26, 1902.

Call Wyatt,

Pittsburg, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 22nd instant, referring to our communication of March 5, 1902, wherein you were advised that the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation would be taken up for final consideration by the Commission at its office at Muskogee, Indian Territory on April 14, 1902.

In your letter you state that you were unable to appear before the Commission on that date on account of illness and did not have time to secure the appearance of an attorney in your behalf.

You desire to be informed what action if any was taken by the Commission on that date relative to your right to enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are advised that at the office of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory on April 14, 1902, the matter of the application of Sealy Wyatt formerly Sealy Church was called for final consideration and no appearance was entered by or on behalf of the applicant nor was any appearance made on the part of the Chectaw Nation.

The Commission therefore, considering this case closed, will at as early a date as practicable render its decision relative to your right to enrollment as a citizen of the Chectaw Nation and in the event that such decision is unfavorable to you, you will be advised thereof and also notified of the forwarding of the record in the case to the Secretary of the Interior for his review.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw-D-388

Haskoge, Indian Territory, March 6, 1900.

Celia Wyatt,

Center, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

It appears from the records of the Commission that on November 1, 1900, you made application for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

It does not appear that any application has ever been made to the Commission for your identification as a Mississippi Choctaw. The authority vested in the Commission to determine the identity of so-called Mississippi Choctaws is contained in the provision of the Act of Congress approved June 25, 1898 (30 Stats., 496), as follows:

"Said Commission shall have authority to determine the identity of Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty, and to that end may administer oaths, examine witnesses and perform all other acts necessary thereto and make report to the Secretary of the Interior."

The fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830, above referred to, is as follows:

"Each Choctaw head of a family being desirous to remain and become a citizen of the states shall be permitted to do so by signifying his intention to the agent within six months from the ratification of this treaty and he or she shall thereupon be entitled to a reservation of one section of six hundred and forty acres of land to be bounded by sectional lines of survey; in like manner shall be entitled to one-half that quantity for each unmarried child which is living with him over ten years of age, and a quarter section to each child as may be under ten years of age to adjoin the location of the parent. If they reside upon said lands intending to become citizens of the states for five years after the ratification of this treaty, in that case a grant in fee simple shall issue; said reservation shall include the present improvement of the head of the family or a portion of it. Persons who claim under this article shall not lose the privilege of a Choctaw citizen, but if they ever remove are not to be entitled to any portion of the Choctaw annuity."

The Commission, in determining the rights of persons to be identified as Mississippi Choctaws, requires that applicants reasonably demonstrate that they are descendants of Choctaw ancestors who resided in the old Choctaw Nation in Mississippi and Alabama in 1830, and who complied or attempted to comply with the provisions of article fourteen above quoted, or who were subsequently adjudicated beneficiaries thereunder by either of the two commissions authorized for this purpose by the Acts of Congress approved March 3, 1837 and August 23, 1842.

The Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior, in an opinion of December 3, 1901, defining the power of this Commission to identify so-called Mississippi Choctaws under the provision of the Act of Congress of June 28, 1898, used the following language:

"There is no escape from the conclusion that the provision in the act of June 28, 1898, contemplated the identification of only those 'Choctaw Indians claiming rights in the Choctaw lands under article fourteen of the treaty between the United States and the Choctaw Nation, concluded September twenty-seventh, eighteen hundred and thirty.'"

It would, therefore, be necessary, in order for the applicants to obtain rights as Mississippi Choctaws, under the provisions of the Act of Congress of June 28, 1898, and the fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830, to show that their ancestors who were living at the date of the conclusion of the treaty of 1830 were beneficiaries under the provisions of article fourteen thereof.

The rules and regulations of the Commission require that applicants who are over twenty-one years of age, or who are married, must present themselves in person before the Commission for examination under oath, at which time a proper record is made of their cases. Parents and guardians may apply for their children and wards.

The Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902, provides:

"The application of no person for identification as Mississippi Choctaw shall be received by said Commission after six months subsequent to the date of the final ratification of this agreement."

If it is your desire and intention to make application to this Commission for identification as a descendant of a Choctaw Indian who complied or attempted to comply with the said fourteenth article of the treaty of 1830, under the provisions of the law above quoted, it will be necessary for you to appear in person before the Commission prior to March 25, 1903, for examination as to said rights. If at that time you have made no such appearance, the Commission will then proceed to determine your right to enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation on the record as now made.

Respectfully,

Registered.

Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 7, in which you ask relative to the status of the enrollment of Frank Henry, W. H. Latham, Susie Latham and her daughter Milzie.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Scott Latham, husband of Susie Virginia Latham, has been listed among the doubtful claimants to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation and his final right to such enrollment has not yet been determined.

It further appears from our records that Susie Virginia Latham and her daughter Milzie Johnson have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation and on December 15, 1908, their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

It also appears from our records that Belle and David Lee Wyatt, wife and child of M. L. Wyatt have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation and on March 19, 1908 their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

It appears from our records that Frank Henry has been listed among the doubtful claimants to surveillance as an interviewed officer of the Wisconsin Native and his final right to such surveillance has not yet been determined.

The matter of the classification of the lands referred to by you has been made the subject of another communication.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Very truly yours,

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 19th instant concerning the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Mary Lee Cook, the infant daughter of E. Cherman, Texas.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 27, in which you ask if Nat Jones can be transferred from the Choctaw to the Chickasaw Rolls, as his father was Choctaw and his mother a Chickasaw Indian.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it not appearing from the records of the Chickasaw Nation, in the possession of the Commission, that Nat Jones had been recognized and enrolled as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation by the tribal authorities thereof, and his name having been identified upon the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation, he has been enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on March 19, 1903 his enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior. It is therefore impossible at this time to comply with your request that he be transferred to the Chickasaw roll.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 31, asking if you can hold the allotment of your deceased wife, Levina Folsom, who has been enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Levina Folsom, daughter of Thomas and Jennie Folsom, has been enrolled by this commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and her enrollment has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Your attention is invited to section twenty two of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902, copy of which is herewith inclosed you.

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of November 18, 1904, in which you ask if the money for George Reed, minor son of Josiah and Mollie Reed whose name appears upon the Chickasaw roll can be receipted for at a payment near that place, or what procedure would be required by the Commission in a case of this character.

In reply to your letter you are informed it appears from our records that George Reed, minor son of Josiah and Mollie Reed, has been enrolled by the Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and his enrollment as such approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903.

You are informed, however, that the payment of moneys to the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations is a matter which is within the jurisdiction of the United States Indian Agent, and for information relative to the procedure in this matter you should address him at Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of April 9, stating that there was born a child to Mrs. Eddie Waklotuba on the 18th. of October, 1899, and desiring to be informed as to what procedure is necessary to have the same listed for enrollment. There is inclosed with herewith a blank birth certificate, upon which may be forwarded to the Commission the necessary information for the enrollment of a child. In having the same executed, care should be used to see that all blanks are filled out, all names written plainly, and that both affidavits provided for thereon are acknowledged before a Notary Public, and the Notary's name and seal attached to each affidavit. When returned to this Commission in proper form, the matter of the enrollment of the child will receive proper attention.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Henry Stephen Bell infant son of W. M. and Malena Bell born January 12, 1902 and the same is returned to you herewith for the reason that it appears from our records that the mother of the child for whom application is made is a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

It will therefore be necessary that application be made for the enrollment of this child as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

It is noted that the name of the mother and that of the attending midwife as affixed to their affidavits respectively appear to have been written by the same person.

You are informed that if the mother or the attending midwife are unable to sign their names and their signatures are by mark the same must be attested by two disinterested parties who can write their own names as witnesses thereto.

You are advised that the rules of the Commission require that the notarial jurat and seal of the notary public before whom such affidavits are acknowledged must be affixed to each separate affidavit.

Upon return of the application for the enrollment of your child with the seal of the notary public affixed to each separate affidavit the matter will receive further consideration.

was at the home of the said Jack Pusley's - one Sarah Dunford who was ill and from the signs of the said Sarah Dunford's bed and bed cloths she - the said Sarah Dunford - had just given birth to a child.

There was also a male child where the said Sarah Dunford was and to the best of my knowledge the said child did not look to be more than 24 hours old.
When I left the said Jack Pusley's home the said Sarah Dunford was up out of her bed but was weak and unable to walk ~~any~~ farther than 50 ft without resting.
I never had personal knowledge of the birth of this child but from all appearance I do believe the said
Sarah Dunford was the mother of this child.

Mr. Jack Pusley,

Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 17th instant, in which it is stated that you have living with you a woman by the name of Seal Dunford who is unmarried and is the mother of a child now nine or ten months old.

It is further stated in your letter that the father of the child is unknown; that the mother has never had any kind of her own, and you desire to be advised whether her child can be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that the records of this office do not show that any person by the name of Seal Dunford has ever been listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. The records do show, however, that Sarah Dunford, twenty-three years of age, of Guertle, Indian Territory, is listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, her name having been transferred by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, August 9, 1899, from the Choctaw roll to the Chickasaw roll.

It is possible that the Seal Dunford referred to in your letter and the Sarah Dunford mentioned herein are one and the same.

person. For the purpose of having the matter properly presented to this office there is enclosed you herewith a blank application for the enrollment of an infant child.

In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full, and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write and their signatures are by mark, that such signatures be attested by two disinterested parties, witnesses thereto. The notary public before whom the acknowledgments of the mother and the attending physician or nurse are made must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

You are also requested to state the time and place application was made for the enrollment of the person, Eval Dunford, referred to in your letter, the names of her father and mother, whether either were citizens of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations, and such other information as you may have that will assist this office in determining whether or not she is identically the same person who is listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation by the name of Sarah Dunford.

Upon return of the application properly executed, together with all the information requested herein, the matter will receive further consideration.

Yours truly,

Enclosure--B.G.

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 2, 1901.

Jack Fusley,

Guertie, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 20th ultimo, enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Turner Dunford, the infant son of Sarah Dunford, born January 15, 1901, and the same is returned to you herewith for the reason that there is not sufficient evidence of the birth of the child to be accepted by the Commission in the matter of its enrollment.

If you state in your letter, Sarah Dunford is an incompetent and it is impossible to secure from her reliable affidavit as to the birth of the child, the Commission will accept in lieu thereof, the affidavits of two reliable parties, citizens of either the Cherokee or Chickasaw Nations having actual knowledge of the birth of the child.

Upon the return of the application now submitted to you with the two affidavits requested the matter will receive further consideration.

Yours truly,

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 20, 1901.

Jack Pusley,

Quartie, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 11th instant, enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Turner Dunford, the infant son of Sarah Dunford, born January 15, 1901.

Such application has been duly filed with the records of this office and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Madam:

It does not appear from our records that evidence of the birth of Hubert Lewis, infant son of Ell: Lewis and Peter Hokter has been filed with the Commission. It will be necessary that the Commission be supplied with evidence of his birth, and for this purpose there is inclosed you herewith a blank application for the enrollment of infant children. In making the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are filled out, all names written in full, and that the Notary Public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged affixes his name and seal to each affidavit. Signatures by mark must be attested by two disinterested witnesses. Kindly give this matter your prompt attention. There is also inclosed herewith envelope for reply which requires no postage.

Dear Madam:

On April 24, 1902, you were advised that no evidence of the birth of Halbert Lewis, son of Ellen Lewis and Peter Hokeby, had been filed with the Commission, and that the same would be necessary in the matter of his enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and a blank application for the enrollment of infant children was inclosed you. To this letter no reply has been received. There is inclosed you herewith a second blank, which kindly have completed and return to this office immediately. Be careful to see that all blanks are filled out, all names written in full, and that the Notary Public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged affixes his signature and seal to each affidavit. Signatures by mark must be attested by two disinterested witnesses. There is also inclosed you an envelope for reply which requires no postage.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 6th instant, in which you desire to be informed if the Commission received the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of your child, Clarence Cobb, born October 10th, 1900.

You are informed that the records of the Commission show that Clarence Cobb, the infant son of Frances and Charles Cobb, was listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation on September 18th, 1900, the date of the birth of this child being given as August 10th, 1900. On September 18th, 1900 the Commission with you recommended receipt of the application for the enrollment of this child.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Dear sir;

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 5th inst. enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Clarence Cobb, the infant son of Charley and Frances Cobb, born August 10th, 1900.

The same is returned to you herewith for the reason that in the notarial certificate to the affidavit of the mother the date of acknowledgement is given as Aug. 1st, 1900, while the date of the birth of the child is not given until Aug. 10th, 1900.

Upon this correction being made and the application returned to the Commission in proper form the matter will receive further consideration.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 7th inst., referring to our letter of October 28th acknowledging receipt of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Edward Cobb, infant son of Charley J. and Frances Cobb, born September 24, 1902.

It is stated in your letter that the application made for this child was for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and that if it read Choctaw Nation it was a mistake and you desired to have same corrected.

You are advised that yourself and family appear upon our records listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, having been transferred from a Chickasaw card to a Choctaw card by order of this Commission October 21, 1902.

Dear Sir:-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, of Nina Moore, infant daughter of C. D., and Ida Moore, born February 20, 1903, and the same is returned to you herewith for further information relative to the mother of the child.

It is stated in the affidavit of the mother, that her name is Ida Moore; that she is twenty-two years of age, and a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and the lawful wife of C. D. Moore, who is a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

If this be correct, you are requested to state her full maiden name, the time and place application was made for her enrollment, the names of other members of her family for whom application was made at the same time, and any other information that you may have which will enable the Commission to identify Ida Moore as being duly listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

If she is a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, who has been married to you since the time she was listed for enrollment as such, you are requested to furnish the Commission with legal evidence of such marriage as authority for changing her name on our records from her maiden name to her present married name.

You are informed that the records of the Commission show that Christopher D. Moore, thirty-two years of age, of Stringtown, Indian Territory, was duly listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, September 28, 1906. The records further show that Christopher D. Moore, is the husband of Tennessee Moore, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

If your wife, Tennessee Moore, is dead, you are requested to state the date of her death. If she is living and you and she have been divorced, either the original decree of divorce, or a certified copy thereof, should be furnished the Commission.

Upon receipt of the information requested herein, together with legal evidence of your marriage to Ida Moore, and return of the application for enrollment of your child, the matter will receive further consideration.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Martin Dick, infant son of Taylor and Josephine Dick, born August 2, 1908, and the same is returned to you herewith for further information relative to the mother of the child.

It is stated in the affidavit of the mother that her name is Josephine Dick, that she is 18 years of age, a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation and the lawful wife of Taylor Dick, a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

If this is correct, you are requested to state her full maiden name, the time and place application was made for her enrollment, the names of the other members of her family for whom application was made at the same time, and any other information you may have which will enable the Commission to identify Josephine Dick as being duly listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

Dear Sir:-

On October 17, 1902, the Commission returned to you the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Martin Dick, infant son of yourself and Josephine Dick, for information regarding the mother of the child, and the same has not since been received by the Commission. If this child is still living and you desire to have him enrolled, you should immediately return his affidavit of birth, and inform the Commission as to the full maiden name of Josephine Dick, the time and place application was made for her enrollment and the names of other members of her family. You should also forward legal evidence of your marriage to her in the form either of your original marriage certificate or a certified copy thereof.

This matter must receive your immediate attention.

Martin Dick,

Olney, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 18, asking if you can have your child, Martin Dick, enrolled.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it does not appear from your letter when your child, Martin Dick, was born, nor does it appear that any application has been made to this Commission for the enrollment of said child as a citizen of the Choctaw nation.

You are further advised that the Act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902, provides as follows:

"The names of all persons living on the date of the final ratification of this agreement entitled to be enrolled as provided in section 27 hereof shall be placed upon the rolls made by said Commission; and no child born thereafter to a citizen or freedman and no person intermarried thereafter to a citizen shall be entitled to enrollment or to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws."

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 13, 1904, requesting to be advised if it is too late to have your infant child born August 8, 1902, placed upon the rolls, stating that application for his enrollment was made before H. J. Hall, Vagamonah, Indian Territory, when said child was one month old and that you never received any acknowledgment of the same.

You do not state the name of your child, but you are informed it appears from our records that on October 17, 1902, there was received at this office an application for the enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Martin Dick, infant son of Taylor and Josephine Dick, born August 8, 1902, and the same was returned to you for information relative to the mother of the child which would lead to her identification as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation as stated in her affidavit.

It does not appear from our records, however, that the application for enrollment of Martin Dick was ever returned to the Commission.

If the child referred to in your letter of May 12, 1964, is the identical Martin Dick named in the application for enrollment received at this office October 14, 1963, as stated herein and you will furnish the Commission with proper evidence of his birth, the application for his enrollment will receive proper consideration, and a blank for that purpose is enclosed for your use.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ida Noel as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION

It appears from the record herein that Ida Noel (nee Deason) on June 18, 1899, was lawfully married to Moses Noel, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 146 upon the 1896 Choctaw Census roll, San Bois County; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife until the death of the said Moses Noel in October, 1900, since which time the applicant herein has continued to reside in the Choctaw Nation and had not remarried up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Ida Noel should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provision of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902
(32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

Enclosed herewith you will find a copy of the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, rendered November 27, 1903, granting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been furnished a copy of this decision and have been allowed fifteen days from this date within which to file protest against the action of the Commission in enrolling you as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. If at the expiration of that time no protest has been filed, your name will be placed upon the final rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation to be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

Gentlemen:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 14, asking if one Ida Noel, a white woman, is an applicant for Choctaw or Chickasaw citizenship as the wife of Moses Noel; if so, you wish to be informed the status of her case.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that on June 22, 1899, Ida Noel, wife of Moses Noel, was listed for enrollment by this Commission as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation; on October 21, 1902, Moses and Ida Noel were placed upon Choctaw card 5512, the name of Moses Noel having been identified from the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation, Sans Bois County, number 9646. The final right of Ida Noel to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation has not yet been passed upon by this Commission.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the applications for enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation of Winnie and Vina Atukko, the infant children of Simon and Retay Atukko, and the same are returned to you herewith for further information regarding the mother of these children for whom applications are now made.

It is stated in her affidavit that her name is Retay Atukko, that she is 38 years of age and a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation. If this is correct, you are requested to state her maiden name, the time and place application was made for her enrollment, the names of other members of her family for whom application was made at the same time and any other information as you can furnish as will enable us to identify her upon our records. If she has been married to you since the time she was so listed for enrollment, you are requested to forward either the original or certified copy of the marriage certificate between you.

The application for the enrollment of Winnie Atukko is returned for the further reason that the date of her birth is given as October 9, 1902, and such date should be corrected.

The receipt of the information requested and the nature of the information, the matter will be given further consideration.

Very truly,
Your obedient servant,

Dear Sir:

On July 14, 1902, the Commission returned to you the applications for enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation of Winnie and Vina Atukko, infant children of yourself and Betsy Atukko, for further information regarding the mother of the children. If these children are still living and you desire to have them enrolled, you should immediately return the applications for their enrollment, together with the information requested. You should give the maiden name of Betsy Atukko, the time and place application was made for her enrollment and the names of other members of her family, and you should also forward either the original or a certified copy of your marriage certificate.

The application for the enrollment of Winnie Atukko was defective in that it stated that she was born October 9, 1902. You should see that this date is corrected before returning the application.

This matter must receive your immediate attention.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the affidavit of Elizabeth James and Nellie Carter relative to the birth of Minnie James, infant daughter of Alex and Elizabeth James, September 10, 1901, which appears to have been forwarded to this office as an application for enrollment of the above named child as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Your attention is invited to a provision of Section 34 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), which was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902 as follows:

"During the ninety days first following the date of the final ratification of this agreement, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for enrollment only of persons whose names are on the tribal rolls, but who have not heretofore been enrolled by said Commission, commonly known as 'delinquents', and such intermarried white persons as may have married recognized citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in accordance with the tribal laws, customs and usages on or before the date of the passage of this Act by Congress, and such infant children as may have been born to recognized and enrolled citizens on or before the date of the final ratification of this agreement; but the application of no person whatsoever for enrollment shall be received after the expiration of the said ninety days."

Under the above legislation the Commission is now authorized to receive and consider applications for the granting of licenses to the public in various fields.

Dear Sir :-

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 3rd inst., requesting information relative to the disposition that has been made of the application for enrollment of Minnie James, daughter of Alex and Elizabeth James.

You are informed it appears from our records that there was received at this office, July 29, 1903, the affidavits of Elizabeth James and Nellie Carter, relative to the birth of Minnie James, infant daughter of Alex and Elizabeth James, September 10, 1901, which were presumably forwarded as an application for the enrollment of said child as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

Although born prior to the ratification, September 25, 1902, of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, it does not appear that any application for the enrollment of said Minnie James was received by this Commission within the time prescribed in said Act, and the Commission is now without authority to receive or consider the original application of any person whatsoever for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Minnie James as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

: DECISION : -

It appears from the record in this case that on March 18, 1905, there was filed with the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes an application for the enrollment of Minnie James as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

It further appears from the record herein, and from the records of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, that the applicant was born on September 10, 1901, and is a daughter of Alex James, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation whose name appears as No. 3561 upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, approved by the Secretary of the Interior December 18, 1902, and Elizabeth James, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation whose name appears as No. 13969 upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, approved by the Secretary of the Interior February 8, 1904, and that said applicant was living on March 4, 1905.

On September 19, 1905, there was filed with this office the affidavit of Elizabeth James, the surviving parent of said Minnie James, wherein, under the provisions of Section 21 of the Act of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), she elected that said Minnie James be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and that she receive her allotment of lands and distribution of moneys in said Nation.

The Act of Congress approved March 3, 1905 (33 Stats., 1060), provides:

"That the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes is hereby authorized for sixty days after the date of the approval of this act to receive and consider applications for enrollment of infant children born prior to September twenty-fifth, nineteen hundred and two, and who were living on said date, to citizens by blood of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes of Indians whose enrollment has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior prior to the date of the approval of this act; and to enroll and make allotments to such children."

I am therefore of the opinion that Minnie James should be enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of law above quoted, and it is so ordered.

Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Miss Bohanan, infant daughter of Robert and Lina Bohanan, born January 23, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

F. W. Hudson,

Tuskahoma, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 7th instant, enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Miss Bohanan, infant daughter of Robert and Lennie Bohanna, born January 3, 1901, and requesting that you be informed if a white girl who has been married to a Choctaw can be enrolled.

The application for the enrollment of Miss Bohanan is returned to you herewith for the reason that the records of this office show that the mother of the child for whom the application is made is a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, and therefore the application for the enrollment of this child should be as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

For the purpose of assisting you in this matter a new application has been correctly prepared in this office and is enclosed herewith. Upon the return of the same properly executed, the matter will receive further consideration.

Regarding to your inquiry you are informed that the Commission cannot render opinions upon hypothetical questions of enrollment. The rules and regulations of this Commission and of the Department of the Interior require that an applicant for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chester Nation must present himself or herself in person before the Commission for the purpose of examination under oath.

If the party in whose behalf you desire this information, wishes to make application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chester Nation, she will be heard upon her personal appearance at the office of the Commission at Muskogee, Indian Territory. If she anticipates making such application it is advisable that she do so as early as practicable.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Smith Jefferson Busby as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

-:o:-

It appears from the record herein that Smith Jefferson Busby, on August 19, 1892, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Biddie Caroline Busby (nee Thompson), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13978 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902, with the exception of two years, during which time the applicant herein was in the penitentiary.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Smith Jefferson Busby should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat. 641) and June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495), and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 24, 1905, in which you state that you believe your husband William T. R. Jackson to be entitled as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it does not appear from our records that application has been made to this Commission by or on behalf of William T. R. Jackson for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation and under the provisions of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, this Commission is now without authority to receive or consider original applications for enrollment in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

PLEAS BEFORE THE HON. STILES T. ROWE, JUDGE OF THE 12th, JUDICIAL CIRCUIT OF ARKANSAS, FOR THE GREEN
WOOD, DISTRICT. THEREOF.

On the 20th, day of March, 1899, when the following proceedings were among other things had, and done, to-wit:

Mary E. McMurtry,

Plaintiff.

vs.

No. 36.

John McMurtry,

Defendant.

On this 20th, day of March, A.D. 1899, upon the announcement in open court by Robert A. Rowe, the attorney of Plaintiff that he had learned that there would be no defense interposed in this case, this cause was submitted to the court upon the pleading and depositions and it appearing to the court that the defendant had duly acknowledged the service of summons the required time before the commencement of court, and in the required manner and that the cause of divorce existed within the State and within the last five years, and that there was borned the following children, to the parties hereto, Allen, Lora, (Elmore now dead), Lora, Joe, Berry and Alice aged 23, 20, 17, 14, 12 and 9 years respectively, that there was thirty dollars worth of household and kitchen furniture, two mules worth $150.00 and wagon worth twenty five dollars, two cows and calv es, worth thirty dollars.

It is therefore considered and adjudged that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the plaintiff, Mary E. McMurtry and the defendant John McMurtry, be dissolved set aside and held for naught, and that the plaintiff be restored to all the rights and privileges of a single and unmarried person and that she have and recover of the defendant all the house-hold and kitchen furniture and either one of two mules mentioned in plaintiff's complaint, or its value $75.00, and in the event of the failure to recover one of the mules or its value, then the two cows and calf mentioned in plaintiff's complaint and $45.
00, and that she be decreed the care and custody of the following minor children

Dora, Joe, Bery and Alice McMurtry until the further order of this court.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of John McMurtry for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record in this case that on July 1, 1899, the applicant, John McMurtry, was married, in accordance with the laws, customs, and usages of the Choctaw Nation, to Amelia McMurtry (formerly Prinzell), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13981 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both parties above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; and that the applicant herein and the said Amelia McMurtry lived together continuously as husband and wife, in the Choctaw Nation, from the date of their marriage to and including September 25, 1902. It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that John McMurtry should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Washington, Indian Territory, Nov. 2, 1904.

Mr. John H. Hargrave,
Wichita, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen of the United States, it appears from your testimony that you were married twice before your marriage to your present wife, Annie Hargrave. Before further consideration can be given your application, it is necessary that you forward to the Commission at Muskogee either the original or a certified copy of the two decrees of divorce granted you from your former wives.

This matter should receive your immediate attention.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 20, 1902.

Commissioner in Charge,
Choctaw Land Office,
Atoka, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

You are hereby advised that the following notation has this day been made upon original Choctaw enrollment card, No. 5527:

"Affidavits of William McBride and Nancy Smart relative to her divorce from No. 2, also copy of divorce proceedings between Mary B. and John McMurtry filed July 10, 1902."

You are therefore, requested to make like notation upon the duplicate card in your possession in accordance with the above information.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 2, 1903, in which you ask if Glenn McMurtrey, son of Lora and Irene McMurtrey, is enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Chectaw Nation, and whether proof of his death on the 6th day of March, 1903, is now on file with the records of the Commission.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Glenn McMurtrey has been enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Chectaw Nation, and on March 19, 1903, his enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior. It appears from our records that Glenn McMurtrey is a son of Lora McMurtrey, a non-citizen, and Irene McMurtrey, a citizen by blood of the Chectaw Nation.

It further appears from our records that proof of the death of Glenn McMurtrey, on March 7, 1903, has been filed with the records of the Commission.

EX
7 - 5528

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Le Roy Long as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record in this case that Le Roy Long appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with Martha Long (nee Downing), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13987 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 3, 1896, in the case entitled "Le Roy Long vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 854), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by virtue of his marriage with the said Martha Long (nee Downing), and on December 4, 1896, the said Le Roy Long was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that his status as an intermarried citizen remained unchanged from the date of his said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Le Roy Long should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Le Roy Long of Caddo, Indian Territory and the Choctaw Nation. He being first duly sworn upon stated the following facts to wit:
That my wife is Le Roy Long. I live in Caddo Choctaw Nation Indian Territory. My wife's name is Martha Downing Long. That the names of myself, my wife Martha and my son Le Roy R. Long are now upon the Chickasaw Rolls of Citizenship. The names were placed upon said Rolls of Citizenship at Colbert,

Sir:

It does not appear from the records of the Commission that any proof of the birth of your child, LeRoy D. Long, has been furnished in the matter of his enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. It is necessary that the same be supplied.

In order to assist you in this matter, a blank for that purpose is enclosed you herewith. In having the same executed be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full, and in event either of the persons whose names are to be affixed to the affidavits are unable to write and their signatures are by mark that such signatures be attested by two disinterested parties, witnesses thereto.

The notary public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

This matter should receive prompt attention as the affidavits are essential in the matter of the enrollment of your child.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 20th instant, in which you desire to be informed if Wendell Holman Long is properly enrolled, and enclosing the affidavits of Martha and LeRoy Long as to the birth of LeRoy D. Long on the 10th of March, 1899.

Replying to your inquiry you are informed that Wendell Holman Long, 5 months old, was on April 29, 1899 listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation upon presentation of proper affidavits as to his birth.

The affidavits of Martha and LeRoy Long as to the birth of LeRoy D. Long, being in proper form, have been accepted as evidence of the birth of this child and filed with the records of this office in the matter of the application for the enrollment of this child as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 20th, relative to the enrollment of your wife Mary Anglin and her sister Martha Long as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation. You state that they have always been recognized as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation but that you understand they have now been transferred to the Choctaw roll.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it not appearing from the tribal rolls of the Chickasaw Nation in the possession of the Commission that your wife Mary Anglin and her sister Martha Long had been enrolled as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation, and their names having been identified upon the 1890 census roll of the Choctaw Nation, they have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and their enrollment, as such, has been approved by the Secretary of the Interior. It is therefore impossible at this time to comply with your request that they be transferred to the Chickasaw roll.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 20th instant, in which you desire to be advised if your name is on the roll and if you can select part timber and part prairie land as your allotment.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Jackson Carnes, is listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

Relative to allotment of land, your attention is invited to the following provision of the Choctaw-Chickasaw agreement, ratified September 23, 1902:

"There shall be allotted to each member of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes, as soon as practicable after the approval by the Secretary of the Interior of his enrollment as herein provided, land equal in value to three hundred and twenty acres of the average allottable land of the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations."

Also,

In the making of allotments and in the designation of allottees for members of said tribes, under the provisions of this agreement, said Commission shall not be required to divide lands into tracts of less than the smallest legal subdivision provided for in paragraph eleven (above quoted) herein.

Under the above legislation you would be entitled to select as your allotment, three hundred and twenty acres of the average allottable land of the Choctaw- Chickasaw country and could select part prairie land and part timber land in tracts not smaller than ten acres.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

You state that you are nineteen years old, and have been trying to have a guardian appointed to select your allotment, but have been unable to get any one to act.

In reply to your letter you are advised that if you will forward a description of the land claimed by you, and on which you have improvements, which you desire to select in allotment, proper notation thereof will be made upon our records and you will be notified in the event any other citizen makes application for the same land or any portion thereof, and will be permitted to institute contest proceedings for the possession of the said land.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 17th instant requesting information relative to the application for enrollment of Maryann, or Marian, Carnes.

In reply you are informed that subsequent to December 24, 1904, there was received at this office from Jackson Carnes, of Antlers, Indian Territory, an application for the enrollment of a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Marion Carnes, infant daughter of Jackson and Levina Carnes, born January 23, 1902. This application was returned to him on December 29, 1902, with the request that he furnish the Commission with information from which the identity of the mother of the child could be determined, it being stated in the application that the mother was a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. He was also requested to return the application in question with the desired information. No reply was received to this letter, and on January 28, 1904, another letter was written to him at Atoka, Indian Territory, calling attention to our letter of December 29, 1902, and asking that he return the application for the enrollment of Marion Carnes. We have never received any reply from him to that letter. If you will now as-

You are advised that this matter has been investigated

Original
Intermarried Choctaw
Memorandum Case,
Act July 1, 1902.

In the matter of the original application of Ruthie Jones for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Ruthie Jones, having been first duly sworn, upon her oath testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A Ruthie Jones.
Q How old are you? A Fifteen.
Q What is your post office address? A Matoy, Indian Territory.
Q Is that in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q How long have you lived in the Choctaw Nation? A Twelve years.
Q Have you lived here continuously for the past twelve years?
A Yes sir.
Q Never made your home anywhere else during that time? A No
sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Jim Everett.
Q Is he living or dead? A Living.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Callie Everett.
Q Is she living or dead? A Dead -- Oh no, sir, she is living.
Q Are both of your parents white people? A Yes sir.
Q Did either one of your parents ever make claim to enrollment as a member of any Indian tribe? A No sir.
Q Do you now wish to make application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your Choctaw husband through whom you claim this right? A Billy Jones.
Q Is he a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation?
A Yes sir.

(The name of the applicant's husband, Billy Jones, appears upon the records of the Commission on Choctaw roll card, Field No. 5531, having been listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation upon the identification of his name upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Jackson County, No. 7130.)

- Q When were you married to Billy Jones? A 21st September.
Q This present year? A Yes sir.
Q Where was the marriage ceremony performed? A At Delph Gardner's near Bennington.
Q Who married you? A Delph Gardner.

The Commission has no jurisdiction over your case you having been married to your Choctaw husband subsequent to the passage of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, commonly known as the Choctaw-Chickasaw Agreement.

Harry C Risteen, being first duly sworn, upon his oath states

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application of Ruthie Jones for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

From the record in this matter it appears that Ruthie Jones appeared in person before the Commission, at Antlers, Indian Territory, on December 2, 1902, and made application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

From her testimony given at that time, it appears that she is 15 years of age, and has resided in the Choctaw Nation for twelve years last past; that she is a white woman, having no Indian blood; that she claims the right to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by reason of her marriage, September 21, 1902, to Billy Jones, a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

By Section 34 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats. 641), it is provided that -

"During the ninety days first following the date of the final ratification of this agreement, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes may receive applications for the enrollment only of persons whose names are on the tribal rolls, but who have not heretofore been enrolled by said Commission, commonly known as 'delinquents', and such intermarried white persons as may have married recognized citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations in accordance with the tribal laws, customs and usages, on or before the date of the passage of this Act by Congress" - &c.

It clearly appearing from the applicant's own testimony that the marriage of said Ruthie Jones to her Choctaw husband did not take place "on or before the date of the passage of this Act by Congress", it is the opinion of this Commission that it has no power or authority to receive or consider her said application, and that it should, therefore, decline to receive the same, and

Sir:

I enclose herewith, a report from the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated October 14, 1904, transmitting the record of the application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation by Ruthie Jones.

October 11, 1904, the Commission decided adversely to the applicant.

The record shows that the applicant, aged 15, a white woman having no Indian blood, was married under the name of Ruthie Everett to Billy Jones a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation on September 21, 1902:

In view of the record and of the provisions of section 34 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats 641), the approval of the Commission's decision adverse to the applicant is recommended.

Very Respectfully,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

June 14.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ruthie Jones as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

MOTION TO RE-OPEN AND REVIEW.

To The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Comes now your petitioner, Ruthie Jones, by and through her attorney, and respectfully moves the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior to re-open and review her application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and in support of this motion your petitioner would respectfully show the following:

That your petitioner, Ruthie Jones, is the lawful wife of Billy Jones, a duly recognized, enrolled and approved citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that the name of her said husband now appears upon the approved rolls of the citizens by blood of said nation; that she was married to the said Billy Jones prior to the final ratification of the Supplemental Agreement.

Your petitioner further represents that prior to December 24, 1902, she and her said husband appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes for the purpose of making application for the enrollment of your petitioner as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage to the said Billy Jones, a duly recognized, enrolled and approved citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation prior to the final ratification of the Supplemental Agreement, and before same became law; that the marriage license and certificate showing the marriage of your petitioner to her said husband have been filed with the Commission and testimony relative to the intermarried status of your petitioner taken by the Commission; that said Commission, by its order of October 14, 1904, declined to receive or consider the application of your petitioner, all of which will more fully appear from the records in the office of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes. That on November 22, 1904, said order of the Commission was by the Secretary of the Interior approved.

Your petitioner believes same to be in error and for that reason asks that said action be reopened and reviewed and that upon review said order of October 14, 1904, be set aside and held for naught and that the Commissioner be directed to enroll your petitioner. Supporting the contention of error your petitioner would respectfully show:

First: Referring to the report of the Honorable Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes of December 31, 1901, in the case of Martha Ann Jones, stating its practice, sanctioned by the Department, in cases of applications of intermarried persons for enrollment, the Commission used the following language, viz:

"..... That in the Commission's opinion, the intermarriage of a citizen and a white person, in strict conformity with tribal law, constitutes an act of admission of such white person to Indian citizenship....."

Article thirty-eight (38) of the treaty of April 25, 1866, between the United States Government and the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations or Tribes of Indians, provides as follows:

"Every white person who, having married a Choctaw or Chickasaw, resides in the said Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation, or who has been adopted by the legislative authorities, is to be deemed a member of said nation, and shall be subject to the laws of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations according to his domicile, and to prosecution and trial before their tribunals and to punishment according to their laws in all respects as though he was a native Choctaw or Chickasaw."

Second: Because your petitioner being married to a regularly recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation the same was equivalent to her enrollment, or admission, on the date of her marriage, which was prior to the final ratification of the Supplemental Agreement on September 25, 1902, and the Department, in the case of Nellie Askew, an applicant for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, has so held, in an opinion of April 24, 1905 (I. D. 1879-1905), a portion of which is as follows:

"If the allegations of this applicant can be established by satisfactory evidence, she is apparently entitled to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage with a regularly enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. Such marriage, if consummated in due time, was the legal equivalent of enrollment....."

And in the case of Benjamin J. Vaughan, et al., applicants for enrollment, the Department held:

"Intermarriage with enrolled citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations is equivalent to the enrollment of such intermarried person as of the date of their marriage....."

Third: Petitioner states that she should be enrolled by reason of and by virtue of her marriage to a regularly enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation, prior to the final ratification of the Supplemental Agreement, and she was, therefore, a duly recognized citizen of said nation on September 25, 1902, the date of said ratification. Section twenty-eight (28) of the Supplemental Agreement (Act of Congress of July 1, 1902, 32 Stat., 641), is as follows:

"The names of all persons living on the date of the final ratification of this agreement entitled to be enrolled as provided in section 27 hereof shall be placed upon the rolls made by said Commission; and no child born thereafter to a citizen or freedman and no person intermarried thereafter to a citizen shall be entitled to enrollment and to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Choctaw and Chickasaws."

Even if the applicant fell within the clause quoted by said Commission in its order of October 14, 1904, petitioner contends that said provision in section thirty-four (34) would not apply for the reason that the same did not become effective upon the individual rights of persons, members of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations, until the ratification of said treaty by the voters of said nations on September 25, 1902, and in support thereof the attention of the Department is respectfully called to the provision in section seventy-three (73) of said treaty and act of Congress which is as follows:

"This agreement shall be binding upon the United States and upon the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and all Choctaw and Chickasaws, when ratified by Congress and a majority of the whole number of votes cast be the legal voters of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes in the manner following.....

And if this agreement be ratified by said tribes as aforesaid, the date upon which said election is held shall be deemed to be the date of final ratification."

It is also respectfully contended by your petitioner that said Supplemental Agreement did not become effective and did not affect the rights of individual citizens of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations until it was ratified as provided above, and in the absence of any such provision as last above quoted, your petitioner contends that under the law said treaty could not be binding, nor affect the rights of any one save the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and the United States until it was ratified on September 25, 1902, by the voters of said nations, and the attention of the Department is therefore invited in support of this to the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of January 13, 1904, approved by the Secretary of the Interior on same date (I. T. D. 8310-1903), rendered in the matter of the enrollment of Cherokee Freedmen under the provisions of a treaty between the Cherokee Nation and the United States Government, signed July 19, 1866, wherein it was provided that the freedmen should return to said nation within a certain time, and said opinion, in part is as follows:

..... The Commission further states that it is not authorized to take the treaty as its guide, but by the terms of the act must follow the terms of the decree referred to. It then proceeds to an examination of the decree itself; in view of the Commission, the words of the decree, 'at the date of the treaty' must be held to have reference to 'the date when the treaty went into effect'. The Commission then argue to the point that treaties operate from their dates of signature, and not from their date of ratification, and consequently that their limitation must be construed to run from July 19, 1866, and not from August 11, 1866, when it was promulgated."

November 20, 1903, the Indian Office transmitted the report expressing its opinion at some length, with great clearness and force, that the period of limitation must be held to run only from the promulgation of the treaty, which it is clearly shown has been the construction of the provision ever since Departmental instructions of February, 1896, to the Commission, created by the Court of Claims, filed February 3, 1896, in the case of Whitely, Trustee v. the Cherokee Nation.

But a different rule obtains respecting personal rights to be asserted under or derived from a treaty. Thus, in United States v. Arredondo (6 Pet. 65, 742-4), the court held:

"It is lastly objected that the extension of time, by the intendant in December, 1820, was without authority, being subsequent to the ratification of the treaty by the King of Spain. But the ratification by the United States was in February following, and the treaty did not take effect, till its ratification by both parties, operated like the delivery of a deed, to make it the binding act of both. That it may, and does relate to its date, as between the two governments, so far as respects the rights of either under it, may be understood; but as respects individual rights, in any way affected by it, a very different rule ought to prevail."

"To exact the performance of the condition of settlement of two hundred Spanish families, or any great progress in its commencement, after the date of the treaty, and during the confused and uncertain state of things preceding its ratification, would be both unreasonable and unjust; and if the question were a new one in this court, we should have no hesitation in saying, that as to the grants of land, subject to the condition of settlement, the ratification of the treaty must be taken as its date."

"The obligation of the Cherokee Nation to receive into its citizenship the freedmen coming within the classes defined by the treaty of 1866 became fixed July 19, 1866, when the treaty was signed. But the limitation of time imposed by the article was affecting individual right only, and must under the authorities cited, begin to run, not from the date of the treaty, but from its promulgation. Until ratified and promulgated the public at large, and persons affected, can have no knowledge of its terms or of their privileges or liabilities under it. Until its promulgation it is not a law governing the rights and duties of private persons, but is a secret or private paper, belonging to the signatory nations, part of their secret archives. It may never have the force of law.

Under the rulings and decisions herein cited your petitioner would respectfully state that at the date of her marriage, prior to the ratification of the Supplemental Agreement, she ^{became} a duly recognized and enrolled citizen of the Choctaw Nation and under the provisions of Section thirty-four (34) was allowed ninety (90) days from the date of the ratification of the treaty to make application for enrollment; that at the date of her marriage, the Supplemental Agreement, which afterwards became law, was but a secret or private paper between the United States and the Choctaw and Chickasaw Governments and for this reason could not affect the individual rights of your petitioner acquired before same was ratified, nor could it affect her enrollment on the date of her marriage.

WHEREFORE, Your Petitioner, Ruthie Jones, prays that her application for enrollment be re-opened and reviewed, and that upon a review the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes be directed to enroll her as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully submitted,

Chilmon Riley

MEMORANDUM

To the Honorable,
Secretary of the Interior.

NOTION TO REVIEW.

Came now the applicant, Ruthie Jones, by and through her attorney, Chas. Riley of Ardmore, Indian Territory, and moves the Honorable Secretary of the Interior for a review and reconsideration of the decision of the Department of March 6, 1906 (I T D 133-1906), following the opinion of the Assistant Attorney-General, rendered on February 26, 1906 (I T D 13436-1906), upon the application of Birdie Rosenthal to reopen her case, and set aside the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes and the Department of the Interior, theretofore rendered, denying her enrollment, and for grounds of said motion assigns the following:

FIRST: That the original motion of the applicant to reopen her case raised a question of law as to when the act of Congress of July 1, 1906 (34 Stat., 841), went into effect, and said opinion of the Assistant Attorney-General for the Department (I T D 13436-1906), fails to pass upon that question as raised by the applicant.

Ruthie Jones--2

SECOND: That said opinion is based entirely upon sections twenty-eight and thirty-four of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, supra, and no force, effect, or consideration is given in said opinion to section seventy-three of said act of Congress, which provides as follows:

"This agreement shall be binding upon the United States and upon the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations and all Choctaws and Chickasaws, when ratified by Congress and a majority of the whole number of votes cast by the legal voters of the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes in the manner following....."

"And if this agreement be ratified by said tribes as aforesaid, the date upon which said election is held shall be deemed to be the date of final ratification."

It will be observed that said section seventy-three, just quoted, provides that this agreement shall not be binding upon the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations, or the individual members thereof, until it is ratified by Congress and the majority of the whole number of votes cast by the legal voters of these two nations in the manner provided therein, and further, that when so ratified, by the tribes, as provided by said section seventy-three, the date upon which said election is held is to be taken as the date of final ratification.

A plain and unambiguous meaning is certainly expressed in this section, seventy-three, that it is not binding upon the nations, or the people of these nations, until ratified by Congress and a majority of the whole number of votes cast by the legal voters of said nations.

What, then, would have become of sections twenty-eight and thirty-four, referred to in the opinion of the Assistant Attorney-General of the Department (I T D 13436-1905), rendered in the matter of the application of Birdie Rosenthal to reopen and reconsider her application, and in fact the entire act, had a majority of the legal voters of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations voted against the ratification of this agreement? Certainly, under the provisions of said section seventy three the entire act would have been ineffective and wholly without force to bind any one, or to effect in any manner the right of any claimant to citizenship in these two nations.

WHEREFORE, the applicant very respectfully asks that this opinion be reviewed and reconsidered, that the former decision of the Commission and the Department be set aside, and that the applicant, Ruthie Jones, be enrolled as a member by intermarriage of the Choctaw tribe of Indians.

Respectfully submitted,

Chilion Riley,
Attorney at Law,
Ardmore, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 24, 1906, inclosing in duplicate motion to review the decision of the Department of March 6, 1906 in the matter of the enrollment of Ruthie Jones as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of February 26, 1906 in the enrollment case of Birdie Rosenthal.

You are advised that the original of this motion has this day been transmitted to the Department in compliance with your request.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 30, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

On October 11, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decision declining to receive the application of Ruthie Jones for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. On October 14, 1904, the record in this case, together with copy of the decision was forwarded the Secretary of the Interior and this action was approved by the Department November 22, 1904.

December 19, 1905, a motion of Chilion Riley to reopen and review this case was forwarded the Department which was denied March 8, 1906.

I now have the honor to transmit herewith motion of Chilion Riley to review the decision of the Secretary of the Interior of March 8, 1906 (I T D 326-1906) in the Choctaw enrollment case of Ruthie Jones, following the opinion of the Assistant Attorney General of February 26, 1906, in the enrollment case of Birdie Monahan.

Respectfully,

Through the Commissioner of Indian Affairs.

Acting Commissioner.

Enc 14

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Office No. 35.

Case No. Mem 14

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ruthie Jones as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation or tribe of Indians.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER.

Now comes the applicant, Ruthie Jones, by her attorney Chilion Riley, and respectfully moves the Honorable, the Secretary of the Interior, to reconsider his opinion of May 24, 1906, denying the motion of this applicant to reopen and re-adjudicate her application for citizenship, and for grounds of this said motion shows the following:

FIRST: That notice of said judgment of the Honorable Secretary of May 24, 1906, was not sent out to the applicant or her attorney until August 14, 1906, and was not received by her said attorney until August 20, 1906, and that sixty (60) days have not elapsed since the receipt of said notice.

SECOND: That it appears from the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes that the applicant herein Ruthie Jones was denied enrollment NOT because she was married after July 1, 1902 and prior to September 25, 1902, BUT for the reason that the said Ruthie Jones made no application to the Commission for her enrollment UNTIL AFTER September 25, 1902, and the act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (public number 129), in section one (1) thereof provides:

Ruthie Jones--2

"That the Secretary of the Interior MAY enroll persons whose names appear upon any of the tribal rolls and for whom the records in charge of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes show application was made prior to December first, nineteen hundred and five, and which was NOT allowed SOLELY because not made within the time prescribed by law."

In the case of Omar R. Nicholson the Assistant Attorney General for the Interior Department on March 15, 1906 (LTD 4630--1906), rendered an opinion wherein he holds that those persons married between July 1 and September 25, 1902, and who applied PRIOR to September 25, 1902, were entitled to be enrolled, but that those who applied AFTER September 25, 1902, applied too late, and in the same opinion he holds that the marriage of a non-citizen with a citizen of the Choctaw Nation is equivalent to enrollment and this has been the uniform holding of the Department in all such cases.

Therefore, under the law above quoted the Honorable Secretary has the power to enroll Ruthie Jones as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation for the reason that she was denied enrollment SOLELY because she made her application subsequent to September 25, 1902.

WHEREFORE, the applicant asks that the Honorable Secretary re-consider his decision of May 24, 1906, and under the provisions of the law above quoted he order her enrolled.

Respectfully submitted,

(signed) Chilion Riley
Attorney for applicant.

Memo. 14.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ruthie Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chectaw Nation.

-----00000-----

It appears from the record herein that on December 2, 1902, Ruthie Jones appeared before the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Antlers, Indian Territory, and made application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chectaw Nation.

October 11, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decision therein, refusing to receive or consider any application for the enrollment of said Ruthie Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chectaw Nation for the reason that she was not married to her Chectaw husband within the time limited by the provisions of Section 34 of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 411). Said decision was approved by the Department November 23, 1904 (I.T.D. 11414-1904).

The Department on November 27, 1906 (I.T.D. 11414-1904, 9170-1906, 21956-1906), in view of the approved opinion of the Assistant Attorney General for the Department of the Interior of August 10, 1906, in the case of Elsie J. Oakes, returned the record herein for readjudication.

It appearing from the record herein that application was made for the enrollment of Ruthie Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chectaw Nation within the time limited by the provisions of Section One of the Act of Congress approved April 26, 1906 (34 Stats., 137), I am of the opinion that the decision of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes of October 11, 1904, should be rescinded, and that the application for the enrollment of said applicant should now be determined upon its merits, and it is so ordered.

Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory,

Memo. 14,

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ruthie Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that application was duly made for the enrollment of Ruthie Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of Congress approved April 28, 1906 (34 Stats., 137).

It further appears from the record herein that on September 21, 1902, the applicant was lawfully married to Billy Jones, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 13996 upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife in said nation from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 26, 1902.

I am, therefore, of the opinion that Ruthie Jones should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stats., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

October 11, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes entered an order declining to receive the application for the enrollment of Ruthie Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, and on October 14, 1904, the record in this case was forwarded the Secretary of the Interior. This action was approved by the Department November 23, 1904 (I.T.D. 11414-1904).

December 19, 1905, a motion filed by Chilson Riley, attorney at law, Ardmore, Indian Territory, for reopening and review of this case, was forwarded the Department. March 6, 1906 (I.T.D. 3170-1906), this motion was denied by the Secretary of the Interior.

March 30, 1906, a motion for review of Departmental decision of March 6, 1906, filed by Chilson Riley, was transmitted to the Department. May 24, 1906 (I.T.D. 11414-1904, 3170-1906), said motion was denied by the Department.

November 27, 1906 (I.T.D. 11414-1904, 3170, 21956-1906), the Department returned the record in this case for readjudication, and on December 23, 1906, further proceedings were had in this case.

January 7, 1907, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes rescinded the decision of October 11, 1904, and held that the application should be considered on its merits, and on January 9, 1907, a decision was rendered granting the application for the enrollment of Ruthie Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The applicant, her attorney of record, and the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations were notified of this action and the attorneys for the nations were allowed fifteen days from the date of notice within which to file protest to her enrollment, and they were advised that if no protest had been filed at the expiration of said time, the name of Ruthie Jones would be placed upon the next schedule of citizens by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation to be prepared for forwarding the Secretary of the Interior. The original record, together with the additional proceedings and the decision, in said case is transmitted herewith.

Charles Riley,

Attorney at Law,

Armore, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 28, 1906, inclosing motion for reconsideration of the decision of the Department of May 14, 1906, denying the motion for review in the Choctaw intermarried case of Rutie Jones and the same has been transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Acting Commissioner.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, September 8, 1906.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

October 14, 1904, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes rendered its decision declining to receive the application of Mathie Jones for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chectaw Nation, and on November 23, 1904 (I.T.D. 11414-1904), this action was approved by the Secretary of the Interior. On December 19, 1905, a motion was filed by Chilion Riley for review of this case and the same was transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior. March 6, 1906 (I.T.D. 126-1906), this motion was denied by the Department.

March 30, 1906, a second motion of Chilion Riley for reopening and review of this case was transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior and this motion was denied by the Department May 24, 1906 (I.T.D. 11414-1904, 9170-1906), but the applicant and attorneys were not notified of this action of the Department until August 16, 1906.

I now have the honor to transmit herewith motion of Chilion Riley filed August 31, 1906, for reconsideration of Departmental action of May 24, 1906.

Respectfully,

The Honorable,

February 19, 1907.

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

Referring to Department letter of November 27, 1906, (I.T.D. 21006), there is enclosed a report from the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, dated January 27, 1907, transmitting the record relative to the application for enrollment of Ruthie Jones as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation made within the time limited by the provisions of the Act of April 26, 1906, (34 Stat.L., 137). On January 9, 1907, the Commissioner held that the applicant was entitled to enrollment.

The record shows that on September 21, 1902, the applicant was lawfully married to Billy Jones, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that at the time of the marriage both parties were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously as husband and wife in the Choctaw Nation from the date of their marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

Under the provisions of the Acts of June 28, 1896 (29 Stat. L., 495), and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat.L., 841) and April 26, 1906, 34 Stat.L., 137), and the approved opinion of the Assistant Attorney General for the Department of August 10, 1906 (I.T.D. 9466) in the case of Elsie J. Oakes, the applicant is entitled to enrollment.

It is therefore recommended that the action of the Board be favorable to the applicant, be approved.

Very respectfully,

Q What action was taken upon your application at that time by the Commission? A It was granted.

Q Was your case ever appealed to the United States Court?

A No sir.

Statement by Simon E. Lewis:

Mrs. Osborne, I don't remember her given name, is the mother of this girl and are both Choctaws who came from Mississippi here but they neglected to ever apply to the Choctaw Council for admission and were never admitted as far as I know, but I understood they applied to the Dawes Commission as Chickasaws and were admitted under that head. They were never admitted by the Choctaw Council and we protest against her being enrolled as a Choctaw. She never took the trouble to be admitted as a Choctaw.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of
I. B. Coffee as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that I. B. Coffee appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming his right thereto by reason of his marriage to Laura Coffee, nee Pearson, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 14454 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on April 11, 1903.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 9, 1896, in the case entitled "I. B. Coffee, et al., vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, case number 960), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission, under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, by virtue of his marriage with the said Laura Coffee, nee Pearson, and on December 5, 1896, the said I. B. Coffee was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that his status as an intermarried citizen has remained unchanged from the date of his said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that I. B. Coffee should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 25, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter without date, in which you state that you are a Chickasaw Indian by blood and that you have always been recognized as a Chickasaw Indian and always shared in the Chickasaw annuities until the 1893 leased district payment, at which time, you were placed upon the Choctaw rolls. You therefore, request that your name and the names of your children, Emerson, Malissa, Winney, Roda and Maxwell Byington, be transferred from the Choctaw to the Chickasaw rolls in order that you may draw the per capita payment now being made to the citizens of the Chickasaw Nation.

In reply to your letter, you are informed that it not appearing from the tribal rolls of the Chickasaw Nation in the possession of the Commission that you and your children have been enrolled by the Chickasaw tribal authorities as citizens of that tribe, and your names having been identified from the tribal rolls of the Choctaw Nation in the possession of the Commission, you and your children

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Kate D. Love as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Kate D. Love (nee De Vor) appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage with Robert M. Love, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 14458 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on April 11, 1903.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 8, 1896, in the case entitled "Kate D. Love vs. Choctaw Nation" (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Packet, Case No. 1234), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896 (29 Stat., 321), for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage with the said Robert M. Love, and on December 8, 1896, the said Kate D. Love was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that her status as an intermarried citizen remained unchanged from the date of her said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Kate D. Love should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 26th inst., enclosing the affidavits of O.W. Cakes and H.W. Everidge relative to the death of Pitman C. Felton, a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, which occurred August 10, 1901, and the same being in proper form have been duly filed with the records of the Commission.

Replying to your request for information relative to the citizenship of certain parties named in your letter, you are informed that it appears from our records that George Davenport, of Kasaan, Indian Territory, 42 years of age, and Minie Wiley, of Goodland, Indian Territory, 63 years old, are both listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation.

You are also informed that proof of death of George C.
Selbert, of Adilars, Indian Territory, was filed with our records
March 22, 1901.

It does not appear from an examination of our records that any person by the name of [redacted] has ever been

In the matter of the application for enrollment of B. F. Locke as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.
Henry Williams, being sworn and examined by Commissioner McKennon, testifies as follows:

Q What is your name? A Henry Williams.

Q How old are you? A Forty-four.

Q You were Clerk of Towns County were you? A Yes sir.

Q At what time? A Ninety-seven and part of ninety-eight.

Q Were the records of that County destroyed by fire? A Yessir.

Q At what time? A About September 6th, 1897.

Q You were at that time custodian of those records were you, as Clerk?

A Yes sir.

Q Were all those records destroyed? A Yes sir.

Q How about the marriage records? A They were all destroyed in the fire. All the books and records of the County.

Q There are no marriage records then of Towns County back of 1897? A No sir, except some that may have been registered since that, where they had their certificates and had them recorded since.

Q But no records kept prior to that time that are now in existence? A No sir.

E. W. Tims, being sworn and examined by Commissioner McKennon, testifies as follows:

(B. F. Locke, -wit. E. W. Tins, 2)

Q What is your name? A E. W. Tins.

Q How old are you? A Fifty-eight.

Q Are you acquainted with B. F. Locke? A Yes sir.

Q How long have you known him? A Somewhere close to thirty years.

Q Are you a citizen of the Choctaw Nation by blood? A Yessir.

Q Have you been all your life a citizen? A Yes sir.

Q Do you know anything of his having married Hattie Wilson?

A Yes sir.

Q Was she a Choctaw citizen? A Choctaw or Chickasaw I don't know which; she was born and raised in the Choctaw Nation, and recognized as a citizen of one of the tribes.

Q What do you know about his marriage? A He complied with the laws of the Nation in marrying her lawfully; married Hattie Wilson.

Q Did he have a license? A Yes sir.

Q By whom was that issued? A By me.

Q Were you at that time an officer? A Yes sir.

Q What? A I was Judge of a County.

Q And authorized to issue licenses? A Yes sir.

Q Marriage licenses? A Yes sir.

Q You issued a license to him then at that time? A Yes sir, and a marriage certificate both.

Q You performed the ceremony also? A Yes sir.

Q He was a United States citizen? A Yes sir.

Q When was that? A That was along in, I believe it was the first of June, 1875, the license was issued on the 29th of May, 1875.

Q How do you remember that? A It was all recorded, but still all those I had married I kept a memorandum of it, and I had a memorandum of that. The old records have been destroyed by fire.

(B. F. Locke, -wit. E. W. Tims, #3)

Q Have you got that memorandum now? A Yes.

Q Where is it? A (Witness produces memorandum.)

(Statement by Commissioner McKennon: He exhibits an old memorandum book, in which the following entries are made: "Giving license to Dr. B. F. Locke on the 29th day of May, 1875." "Dr. B. F. Locke was married to Harriet Wilson W. Wilson on the first day of June, A. D. 1875." Memorandum shows to have been made as stated by witness.)

Q (Judge Dukes) Did you state that you was Clerk at the time you issued this license? A No, I was County and Probate Judge at that time; they had authority to issue licenses.

B. F. Locke, being sworn and examined by Commissioner McKennon, testifies as follows:

Q Your name is B. F. Locke? A Yes sir.

Q What is your age? A I don't know exactly, not far from forty-five.

Q What have you ^{to state} ~~stated~~ about your marriage?

A I married Hattie Wilson 1st day of June, 1875, and I lived with her I think until in 1887, she died in '86 or '87.

Q You lived with her until she died? A Yes. I have got three children living by her now, and four dead by her; and then I married another Indian woman and she is dead; I have not no wife now at all; my other wife has been dead two years. I don't remember ever having the license; I don't know what became of them.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Bird Q. Smith as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Bird Q. Smith, on March 17, 1887, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Deliah Smith (nee Harrison), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census roll, Kiamitia County, number 11530; that at the time of said marriage, both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife until the death of the said Deliah Smith on December 4, 1901, since which time the applicant herein has continued to reside in the Choctaw Nation and had not remarried up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Bird Q. Smith should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Emma King as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Emma King (nee Lolley) on February 17, 1891, was lawfully married to Robert King, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 14645 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Emma King should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Sarah Hunsack, the infant daughter of Willis and Jincy Hunsack, born January 17, 1901, and the same is returned to you herewith for the reason that the mother being listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, it will be necessary that application be made for the enrollment of her child as a citizen of that nation. For the purpose of assisting you in the matter there has been prepared and filed set a new application for the enrollment of this child, which is enclosed you herewith. Upon return of the same duly executed, the matter will receive further consideration.

Yours truly,

Lee Cruce, being duly sworn by Commissioner T. B. Needles, on his oath, testified on behalf of the Chickasaw Nation as follows:

Direct Examination by Mr. Johnson:

Q Mr. Cruce, you are a brother-in-law of the applicant, are you not? A. Yes sir.

Q Did Mr. Chivers ever live here? A. Yes sir.

Q How? A. He was here during the summer.

Q Where was he? A. Arthur Walcott's.

Q Visiting, was he not? A. Yes sir.

Q He came with Dr. Hailey's son on a visit here? A. I don't know.

Q Did they not come here together and stay here together and went back to New York to school? A. Yes sir.

Q And on the following summer he visited here again? A. Yes.

lived here.

Q Lived how? A. Part of the time he was at my house.

Q That's when he was courting his wife? A. No sir.

Q Before he went back? A. Yes sir.

Q How long was he married before he left here? A. I don't know. I was not here when he married, I was in Colorado when he married. He married and left here before I came home.

Q His wife was staying at your house? A. Yes sir.

Q And he married there and then he left, and has he ever returned since? A. No sir, he has been in school.

Q In Chicago? A. Yes sir.

Q I will ask you if it is not a fact that he was a boy under age, claimed to be? A. Under age?

Q Yes sir? A. No sir, it is not.

Q Was he of age? A. He was of age.

Q Was he not living with his parents in the City of New York?

A Living with his parents?

Q Yes sir? A. I don't know about that.

Q Was they not sending him to school? A. He was going to school on his own money. I think his parents were living at that time in New York.

Q I will ask you if he paid any board, - if he was not simply visiting here? A. I don't suppose he did. I know he never paid any at my house, because I never charged him any.

Q (By Mr. McKennon) How long did he remain here the first summer? A. My recollection is that he came here about the first of June and remained until sometime in September. He remained about two weeks after his school opened. He should have been in Brooklyn about two weeks before he did get there.

Q How long was he here the next summer? A. The next summer he came back as soon as school was out, he came back to the Chickasaw Nation, and married sometime in August. It was either August or September that he left here. I will state this to the Commission, that Mr. Chivers always in his conversation said that he intended to come to the Chickasaw or Choctaw Nation as soon as his education was completed to locate for the practice of his profession, and I think Dr. Hailey had made an arrangement to give him a position in one of these mines.

(By Mr. Cruce) I will introduce this affidavit in evidence.

Which said affidavit, last above offered in evidence, is the affidavit of Edgar E. Chivers, taken on the 13th day of October, 1898, in Cook County, Illinois; is marked Exhibit A., hereto attached and made a part hereof.

(By Mr. Cruce) There seems to be some contest over this matter, and we will ask to have it set down for some time while you are in the Choctaw Nation.

(By Mr. Johnson) There is one other witness' testimony which I desire to take before the Commission leaves here.

(By Mr. Bixby) Proceed,

(By Mr. W. B. Johnson) He is not here now, but he lives in town.

(By Mr. Bixby) Well, you can have him examined to-morrow.

The affiant, Edgar E. Chivers, after being first duly sworn, upon oath, says:

That he is 23 years of age; that he went to the Indian Territory in July, 1896, where he intended to locate, and has ever since said time claimed and considered the Indian Territory of the Five Civilized Tribes his home; that at that time he ^{was} attending lectures in the city of New York preparing himself for the practice of medicine, and spent the Summers of 1896 and 1897 in the Indian Territory, Chickasaw Nation, and only left there temporarily to attend said medical lectures in the city of New York and the city of Chicago; that it has been his intention all the time, as soon as he completes his course in medicine, (which will be in May, 1899,) to locate permanently in the Chickasaw or Choctaw Nation and practice his profession.

He says that on the 23rd day of August, 1897, he was duly and legally married to Miss Maud La Flore, who was and is a Choctaw and Chickasaw Indian by blood, her mother being a Chickasaw Indian by blood and her father a Choctaw Indian by blood; that he was married in the town of Ardmore, Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory, and was married in compliance with the laws of the Chickasaw Nation; that he procured his license from the then County Judge of Pickens County, Chickasaw Nation, and paid therefor the sum of Fifty Dollars; that at the time of his said marriage it was his intention to leave his wife in the city of Ardmore and go to the city of New York and finish his course in school; that soon after he went to the city of New York, he concluded to change his school to that of the city of Chicago; that after he had left his wife in the town of Ardmore for quite awhile, as at first determined, he found that it was very inconvenient to live in that way, besides he ascertained that he could take his wife to Chicago and do light housekeeping for less money than it would take to board himself; that he was away from his family and could not do as good in school in that condition, and he therefore had his wife go to the city of Chicago that she might be with him until he completed his course in college; that he will complete his said course in May, 1899, as aforesaid, and expects to return immediately upon the completion of his said course to the Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory, together with his family, and take up his abode there and follow his profession for a livelihood.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Edgar E. Chivers as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N.

It appears from the record herein that on August 23, 1897, the applicant, Edgar E. Chivers, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Chickasaw Nation to Maud A. Chivers (nee La Flore), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and whose name appears as number 15505 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior, May 9, 1904; and that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Chickasaw Nation, and lived together continuously as husband and wife in said Nation from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902, except that the applicant was temporarily absent attending medical school in the city of New York and at Chicago, Illinois.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Edgar E. Chivers should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation in accordance with the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

The plaintiff says, that he was, on the 28th day of August, 1897, duly and lawfully married to Miss Maud LaFlore, and married her under license issued by E.F. Colbert, Judge of the County and Probate Court of Pickens County, Chickasaw Nation, Indian Territory; that in and about the procurement of his said license, and the marrying thereunder, he complied, in every respect, with the laws in force in the Indian Territory concerning marriages between citizens of the Territory and non-citizens.

He here files his said license, and makes it a part hereof.

He says that his said wife, Maud Chivers, whose maiden name was Maud LaFlore, is a daughter of Captain Charles LaFlore and Angie LaFlore, wife of Chas. LaFlore. That Captain Charles LaFlore is a Choctaw Indian by blood, and his wife, Angie LaFlore, who is now dead, was a Chickasaw Indian by blood; and that his wife, Maud Chivers (nee Maud LAFLORE) is both Choctaw and Chickasaw by blood. But that her name is upon the Choctaw roll as a member of said tribe. That she drew her proportional part of the Lease District Money in 1893, and is on that roll made out by the Choctaw Nation; that her name is on all rolls made out by the Choctaw Nation since her birth.

That he is now living with his said wife at Ardmore, Chickasaw Nation, ~~Indian~~ Ardmore, I.T. is his present post office address. ^{alleged}

He says that by reason of the facts herein ^{alleged} ~~said~~ he is a member of the Choctaw ^{and Chickasaw} tribe of Indians by intermarriage, and should be enrolled as such.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of your letter of September 22nd, requesting that there be forwarded to the Commission at Tishomingo the following papers:

M.S. Montrey - Chickasaw Nation
Ransom Moore "
G.W. Seay, et al. "
Mattie Ross "
Edgar E. Shivers-Shawler "

With the exception of the papers of M.S. Montrey the documents asked for are enclosed herewith. I do not find that we have any papers on file under the name of Montrey.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.

Res.

Muskogee, Indian Territory.

August, 18th 1900.

Edgar E. Chivers,

Ardmore, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

You are hereby notified that the Chickasaw Nation, through its attorneys, Messrs McKennon, Mansfield, McMurray & Cornish, has filed with this Commission a notice of protest to your enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

The Commission, commencing December, 3rd, 1900, hold a session at Atoka, Indian Territory. At that time both you and the Chickasaw Nation will be permitted to offer additional testimony and written arguments in your case, and this hearing will be final.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

9-1487.

Indian Territory, September 15, 1900.

Major W. C. Calkins,

Armed Forces, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:-

Since notifying you on August 12, 1900, of the protest filed by the Chickasaw Nation to your enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, the Commission has been furnished by the Nation with the grounds upon which objection is made to your enrollment. The question raised is as to your residence.

The Commission is in possession of a sufficient statement of facts upon which a decision may be rendered and in your case it will not be necessary for you to appear at the appointment at Atoka beginning December 3rd, 1900.

The Commission will accept and consider any written arguments on questions of law submitted on behalf of the Chickasaw Nation at any time prior to February 1st, 1901, and on your behalf at any time prior to March 1st, 1901.

As soon thereafter as practicable the Commission will consider and finally determine your right to enrollment and the decision of the Commission, stating fully its reasons for any action that may be taken, will be mailed to you.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Mr. Earl E. Brown,
Arkansas, United States.
Dear Sir:-

The Commission is in receipt of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Charles Ryan Brown, the eldest son of Major B. and Mrs. A. Brown, born April 4, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission and the same being for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

E. E. Chivers,

Barl, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the twenty fourth instant, in which you desire to be informed as to the action taken by the Commission in regard to your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation.

Replying to your communication you are advised that at the office of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, at Muskogee, Indian Territory, on May 9, 1902, the matter of the application of Edgar E. Chivers for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation was called for final consideration and an appearance was made by or on behalf of the applicant or on behalf of the Chickasaw Nation. The Commission, therefore, considering this case closed will render its decision relative to your rights to enrollment upon the record now before it. Such decision will be rendered at as early a date as practicable and you will be furnished with a copy thereof, and also be advised of the forwarding of the record in the case to the Secretary of the Interior for his review.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 31, 1908, in which you desire to be informed what action was taken by the Commission in the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation on May 26, 1908.

In reply to your letter of May 24, the Commission on the 29th day of that month fully answered you in regard to this matter, our letter being addressed to you at Earl, Indian Territory.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Mustang 3032.
Mustang, Indian Territory May 25, 1901.

E. H. Chivers,

Manassville, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 18th, in which you request to be informed why the names of your wife Maud A. Chivers and your two children Charles Byron and Jennie A. Chivers appear on the doubtful list. You ask to be informed as early as possible what steps to take in this matter as your wife and children are both unable to draw the land and money due them as Chickasaws.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Maud A. Chivers and her children, Jennie A. and Charles Byron Chivers have been listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation but their names have not yet been placed on the schedules of citizens by blood of said nation prepared for forwarding to the Secretary of the Interior.

You are advised that the name of Maud A. Chivers not having been found on the tribal rolls of the Chickasaw Nation, is the possession of the Commission, and it appearing that she had been enrolled by the Choctaw tribal authorities as her name is found on the 1920 Census roll of the Cherokee Nation, and the children have been listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Cherokee Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Wadsworth, Indian Territory, July 8, 1902.

H. B. Chivers,

Wadsworth, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 29, asking that the names of your wife and children, Haud A., Jennie A. and Charles Hymen Chivers, be transferred from the Choctaw to the Chickasaw roll.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it not appearing from the records of the Chickasaw Nation in the possession of the Commission that your wife, Haud A. Chivers had been recognized and enrolled by the tribal authorities as a citizen of that tribe, and her name having been identified from the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation, she and her children have been listed for enrollment as citizens of that tribe, and it is impossible to comply with your request to have them transferred from the Choctaw to the Chickasaw roll.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 31, 1902, advising of the death of Thomas Macintosh, and asking if his name has been dropped from the roll, as you say he died in October 1901.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it does not appear from our records that evidence of the death of Thomas Macintosh has been filed with the Commission. For the purpose of making his death a matter of record there is inclosed herewith a blank form for proof of death, which kindly have executed at your earliest convenience and return in the inclosed envelope which requires no postage. You will note that there is an affidavit for a relative and one for an acquaintance. Be careful to see that all blanks are properly filled, all names written in full and that the Notary Public before whom the affidavits are acknowledged affixes his name and seal to each affidavit. Mr. John Gann, Durand, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of an Application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Edna Gann, the daughter of John and Julia Gann. A careful search of the records of this Commission do not show that any parties by the name of Gann have ever been listed for enrollment in this Commission in either the Choctaw or the Chickasaw Nation, and before this application can receive further consideration, it will be necessary to identify the mother as a rightful claimant for enrollment in one of these Nations. You are therefore requested to inform the Commission the name of your wife, the time and place that she appeared before the Commission as an applicant for enrollment, the names of other members of her family who made application at the same time, her age, and any other information that may lead to her identification as a rightful claimant to enrollment in either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation. It will be necessary for the Commission to have this information before further consideration can be given the application for enrollment of Edna Gann.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of April 16, containing information as to the name and enrollment of James Conn, in the matter of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Edna Conn, and such information has enabled the Commission to identify her as Minnie J. Conn, the wife of John Conn, a non-citizen who has been duly listed for enrollment by this Commission, together with her daughter Agnes Conn and her two sons, James and Billy Robinson by her former husband Jake Robinson. The application for enrollment of Edna Conn has been duly filed with the records of the Commission.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Leona Conn, infant daughter of John and Minnie Jane Conn, born November 3, 1902.

You are advised that the Commission is without authority to enroll this child as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation, it appearing that said child was born November 3, 1902, subsequent to the ratification by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902, of an act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stats., 641).

Section twenty-eight thereof provides as follows:

"The names of all persons living on the date of the final ratification of this agreement entitled to be enrolled as provided in section 27 hereof shall be placed upon the rolls made by said Commission; and no child born thereafter to a citizen or freedman and no person intermarried thereafter to a citizen shall be entitled to enrollment or to participate in the distribution of the tribal property of the Choctaws and Chickasaws."

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 3, 1903, giving the full names of your sons as James Frederick and William Jesse Robinson. You state that they have never lived with their mother since the youngest child was two years old, and that she is now preparing to select allotments for them, not knowing whether the children are living. You request to be advised what steps to take in the matter.

From the information contained in your letter, it appears that the children referred to are listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation under the names of James and Billy Robinson, respectively; and that they are the children of Minnie J. Gorn, a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and Jake Robinson, a non-citizen.

Relative to the selection of allotments for minor children. Your attention is invited to the following provision of section 76 of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations September 25, 1902:

"Allotments may be selected and homesteads designated for minors by the father or mother, if members, or by a guardian or curator, or the administrator having charge of their estate, in the order named."

Dear Sir:

Your letter of September 12, 1903, addressed to the United States Indian Agent has been by him referred to this Commission for appropriate action. Therein, you state that you desire to make application for allotments for your two children, James and Billy Robinson, that you and their mother have been separated for about eight years and that you have had the care and custody of the children during that time.

You further state that you are a non-citizen and for that reason the Choctaw Courts have refused to appoint you guardian for said children.

In reply to your letter you are informed that the matter of the appointment of guardians for minor citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations is one which does not come within the jurisdiction of the Commission and it is, therefore, impracticable to give you any information upon this subject.

You are informed, however, that for the present the Commission will recognize in the selection of allotments for such citi-

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Maud Downing as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Maud Downing (nee Miller) on August 5, 1899, was lawfully married to Sam Downing, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 14068 on the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Maud Downing should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of William Fronterhouse as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record in this case that, in April, 1879, the applicant, William Fronterhouse, was married, in accordance with the laws, customs, and usages of the Choctaw Nation, to Lucy Fronterhouse (nee Folsom), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, who is identified upon the 1885 Choctaw Census Roll, Atoka County, number 1215, and also upon the 1893 Choctaw Leased District Payment Roll, Atoka County, number 278, enrolled thereon as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; that they lived together continuously as husband and wife, in said Nation, from the date of their marriage until the death of the said Lucy Fronterhouse, on November 4, 1897; that on September 21, 1899, the applicant herein was married to Nellie Fronterhouse (formerly James), a white woman, having no rights of Choctaw citizenship by blood; and that the applicant was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation from the date of his marriage to the said Lucy Fronterhouse up to and including September 25, 1902.

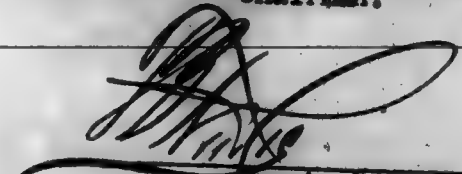

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission, the applicant is identified upon the 1885 Choctaw Census Roll, Atoka County, number 1214, and also upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Atoka County, number 14544, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

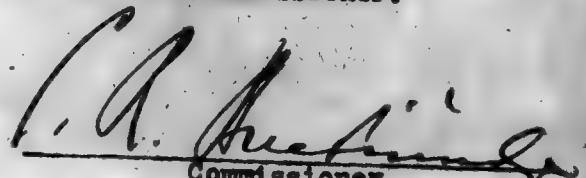

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton D. Pearce (I.T.D. 4060-1904), relative to the question of forfeiture, William Fronterhouse should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

Chairman.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Alvin Suragins, the infant son of George V. and Lucinda Suragins, born August 28, 1902, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of this office and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Receipt is also acknowledged of the marriage license and certificate between G. V. Suragins and Miss Lucinda Frankelmann, and the same has been duly filed with the records of this office.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Washington, Indian Territory, November 8, 1900.

McKee, Mansfield, McWhorter & Co.,

Attorneys at Law,

South McAlester, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 8th instant relative to the enrollment of William Prenterhouse as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation.

You desire to be advised of the number of the card upon which Mr. Prenterhouse appears as listed for enrollment, the date and place of such enrollment and the name of his wife through whom he claims his right to intermarried citizenship.

You are informed that the records of this Commission show that William Prenterhouse, 31 years of age, of Atoka, Indian Territory, together with his five minor children, Dick, Lucinda, Addie, Willie and Ward Prenterhouse, were listed for enrollment as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation, October 14th, 1900, William Prenterhouse as an intermarried citizen of that Nation and the children as citizens by blood.

It further appears from the records of this Commission that William Prenterhouse was married to Lucy Falcon, a Chickasaw Indian in the year 1878 and lived with her until her death November 28th, 1897, Lucy Falcon being the daughter of Brandon Falcon, a Choctaw Indian and her mother a full blood Chickasaw. The name of her mother does not appear in any of the testimony submitted by the Commission in the matter of the enrollment of William Prenterhouse.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, November 21, 1902.

Manafield, Mowbray & Dornish,

Attorneys at Law,

South McAlester, Indian Territory.

Gentlemen:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 15th instant, in which you state that you are informed that William Prenterhouse, of Atoka, Indian Territory, heretofore listed for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation, has since the death of his Indian wife, remarried to a non-citizen, and in which you desire to have his name included upon your list of those contacted.

The records of this Commission show that William Prenterhouse, 41 years of age, of Atoka, Indian Territory, and his five minor children, Dick, Lucinda, Addie, Willie and Ward are listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, having been identified from the 1894 Census Roll of the Cherokee Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory. - October 24, 1908.

William Fronterhouse,
Camey, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

In your testimony, taken at Antlers, Indian Territory, on December 2, 1908, in the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, and from the records in the possession of the Commission, it appears that you claim rights to enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation by virtue of your marriage to Lucy Fronterhouse (nee Polson), a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. It further appears, from your testimony taken on the above named date, that you were married to Lucy Fronterhouse, about the year 1879, under a Choctaw tribal license obtained from Ben Smith, County Clerk of Atoka County; and that the license was destroyed.

You are advised that, if you can not furnish the Commission the original marriage license and certificate between yourself and Lucy Fronterhouse, you will have to obtain, from the Clerk of Atoka County, a certified copy of said marriage license and certificate.

This matter should be attended to at once, for, until the evidence above requested is furnished to the Commission, no further action can be taken in the matter of your application.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Laura Gibson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the Census Card record in this case that, on October 20, 1898, application was made to the Commission for the enrollment of the applicant herein, Laura Gibson (nee Hale), as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation. Further proceedings were had in the matter of this application at Tishomingo, Indian Territory, on September 8, 1904.

It further appears from the record herein that, on June 27, 1894, the applicant, Laura Gibson, was lawfully married to Thomas Gibson, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 14078 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both parties above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; and that the applicant herein and the said Thomas Gibson lived together continuously as husband and wife, in the Choctaw-Chickasaw Country, from the date of their marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls is the possession of the Commission, the applicant is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Jacks Fork County, number 14583, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Laura Gibson should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Mr. William W. Howerton,
Foster, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of July 24th, inclosing application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Jesse Gibson, the infant son of Laura and Thomas Gibson, born May 1st, 1900, and the same, being in proper form, has been duly filed with the records of the Commission.

Yours truly,

Hawthorne, Indian Territory, August 20, 1904.

Thomas Gibson,

Factor, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Hawthorne is hereby acknowledged of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of John Gibson, infant daughter of Thomas and Laura Gibson, born January 6, 1904; and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission, and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

7-5333.

Muskogee, Indian Territory. January 30, 1903.

Thomas Gibson.

Foster, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your affidavit and that of Silas Gibson relative to the death of your daughter, Verda Gibson, which occurred March 19, 1900; and the same being in proper form have been duly filed with the records of the Commission as evidence of death of the above named person.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Chectaw-3545

Muskogee Indian Territory, February 28, 1903.

Laura Gibson,

Foster, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

It is the present intention of the Commission to establish land offices in the Chectaw and Chickasaw nations April 1, 1903.

The act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides as follows:

"No person whose name does not appear upon the rolls as herein provided shall be entitled in any manner to participate in the distribution of the common property of the Chectaw and Chickasaw tribes."

It will be necessary, before your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chectaw Nation can be determined, that you appear before the Commission and testify as to your status on September 25, 1902.

For this purpose the Commission has made an appointment at Atoka, Indian Territory, March 10 to 13, 1903, and you should personally appear before the Commission one of these dates for the purpose herein indicated. No further action can be taken relative to the determination of your right to enrollment until this testimony is received.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Choctaw-1904.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 12, 1904.

Laura Gibson,
Care of Thomas Gibson,
Foster, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

In the matter of your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, it will be necessary, before your rights as such citizen can be determined, for you to appear in person before the Commission for the purpose of giving your oral testimony relative to your intermarried status on September 26, 1902.

You are, therefore, requested to appear before the Commission at its general office at Muskogee, Indian Territory as soon as possible; or you may appear at the Choctaw Land Office, Atoka, Indian Territory, September 6-7, 1904; or at the Chickasaw Land Office, Tishomingo, Indian Territory, September 8-9, 1904.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Elba Sharp,

Antlers, Indian Territory,

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 7, asking whether you and your child, your sister, Mattie Thompson and her children, and your aunt, Ellen Stevens and her family, have been enrolled as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation. You state that you have heard that you were transferred but have not been notified of that fact by the Commission.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Elba Sharp and her child, Lee C. Sharp, Mattie Thompson and her seven minor children, Juanita, Eugene, Edgar, Daisy, Grace, Atwood and Georgia Thompson, and Ellen Stevens and her five minor children, Samuel, Eva, Mary, Martha, and John D. Stevens have been transferred from the Chickasaw to the Choctaw roll by this Commission for the reason that their names appear upon the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Choctaw 1866.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, March 31, 1903.

Sam A. Stephens,

Antlers, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 27, in which you state that you have been informed that your mother, Ellen Stephens, and her children have been transferred from the Chickasaw to the Choctaw roll, and you further state that you desire to be enrolled as citizens of the Chickasaw Nation.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it does not appear that the names of your mother, Ellen Stevens, and her children Samuel, Eva, Mary, Martha and John D. Stevens, are found on the tribal rolls of the Chickasaw Nation in the possession of the Commission, and as their names are found on the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation, as citizens by blood of said nation, they have been enrolled by this Commission as such, and on March 19, 1903, their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior. It is, therefore, impossible to comply with your request that the names of your mother and her children be placed on the Chickasaw roll.

Respectfully,

Ed. Green.

McAlester, Indian Territory, March 27, 1908.

W. L. Stephens,

South McAlester, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 18, 1908, asking for your enrollment number.

In reply to your letter you are advised that information contained therein is not sufficient to enable the Commission to identify you upon its records. If you will state your age, the names of your parents, and the names of your children if any, and any other information which will enable the Commission to identify you upon its records the matter of your inquiry will receive further consideration.

Respectfully,

Chairman.

Muskogee, Indian Territory, August 21, 1906.

Mary Stevens,
Antlers, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of August 8, 1906, in which you state that you are eighteen years old and, according to your family record, was born July 18, 1888; that you have a guardian appointed by the United States Court and wish to have a settlement with him but your age appears on the roll as twelve years. You, therefore, ask how you can prove that you are of age and secure a settlement.

In reply you are advised that Mary Stevens, child of Ellen and Alexander Stevens, has been enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and her name appears upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of said Nation, which was made as of September 25, 1903, as twelve years. You are advised that your age was given at the time application was made for your enrollment, November 21, 1899, as eight years, and from this statement your age was computed for the approved roll.

You are further advised that this office can give you no information as to how to proceed to prove that you are of age and secure a settlement with your guardian as this is a matter not within its jurisdiction.

L. V. Garrison,

Monroe, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of January 31, 1903, in which you ask if S. E. Garrison is on the approved roll.

In reply to your letter you are advised that Sarah E. Garrison has been listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation. Her enrollment, however, has not yet been approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

Respectfully,

Acting Chairman.

Choctaw 3367

Muskogee, Indian Territory, July 8, 1903.

Tom Griggs, Jr.,

Musge, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of June 11, asking if you are enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw or the Chickasaw Nation. You state that you have been informed by your father, T. L. Griggs, that you have been enrolled on the Choctaw roll.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Thomas Griggs, son of Thomas L. and Mary Griggs, has been enrolled by this Commission as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and on March 19, 1903, his enrollment as such was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

It does not appear from our records that Thomas Griggs has been enrolled by the Chickasaw tribal authorities as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and his name having been identified from the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw Nation, he was accordingly enrolled as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

Mr. Arthur Thompson,
National Indian Secretary.

Dear Sir:

The Commission has information of the death of your husband, George W. Thompson, subsequent to the time application was made for his enrollment, November 22, 1935.

For the purpose of making the fact of his death a matter of record, there is enclosed you herewith a blank proof of death, which you will kindly have filled out and return to the Commission.

In having the same executed, you will notice that there is a blank for the affidavit of a relative and an acquaintance. Both of these blanks should be filled, all names written in full and the affidavits sworn to before a Notary Public. Should the relative or a acquaintance making the affidavit be unable to write, and their signatures are by mark, it will be necessary to have such signatures attested by two disinterested parties as witnesses thereto.

The notary public acknowledging the affidavits must affix his notarial seal and seal to each separate affidavit. The Commission will appreciate your prompt attention to this matter.

An envelope for reply is enclosed you herewith.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

Dear Madam:

Information has been received at this office of the death of your husband George W. Thompson, subsequent to the time application was made for his enrollment. For the purpose of making the fact of his death a matter of record there is enclosed you a blank for proof of death, which you are kindly requested to have executed and return with as little delay as possible.

In having the same executed you will notice that there is a blank for the affidavit of a relative and an acquaintance. Both of these blanks should be filled, all names written in full, and the affidavits sworn to before a notary public. Should the relative or acquaintance making the affidavits be unable to write and their signatures are by mark, such signatures must be attested by two disinterested parties, witnesses thereto. The notary public before whom the acknowledgments of the relative and acquaintance are made must affix his notarial jurat and seal to each separate affidavit.

Please give this matter prompt attention.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 10th instant, in which you advise that the family of Mattie Thompson, including yourself, belong to the Choctaw tribe of Indians; that you omitted to make this statement in your former letter, dated December 2, 1902.

You ask whether the claims of these persons have been sufficiently established to warrant a selection of lands as allotments.

In reply you are informed that it does not appear from the records of the Commission that any of the persons named in your communication are listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation or are applicants for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

If applications have been made kindly advise the names in full of the applicants, their ages and postoffice addresses, the character of their applications, and give such other information as will enable the Commission to identify them as applicants, when the matters contained in your letter will receive further consideration.

Perant, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 20, stating that you desire that your wife's children, Ben, Gland, Beulah, Frank and Virgie Thompson should receive the benefits of the Choctaw schools, and ask what steps you should take in this matter.

In reply to your letter you are advised that you should write John D. Benedict, Superintendent of Schools for Indian Territory, Muskogee, Indian Territory, for information as to the schools of the Choctaw Nation.

You are advised, however, that it does not appear from our records that Ben, Gland, Beulah, Frank and Virgie Thompson have been listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation under these names. If they are applicants for enrollment in the Choctaw Nation and you will state when, where and under what name the applications were made, the names of their father and mother and such other information as you may possess which would enable us to identify them on our records the matter will receive further consideration.

Respectfully,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of December 27, 1902, giving information relative to the enrollment of your wife, Mattie Newson, formerly Mattie Reed, or Mattie Thompson, and her children, and you are advised that the Commission is unable to identify them on its records as ever having made application for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation or for identification as Mississippi Choctaws.

You are further informed that under the provisions of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902, the rolls of citizenship of these nations closed as of September 25, 1902, and on December 31, 1902, the ninety days specified therein within which the Commission could receive and consider applications for enrollment expired, and since that date the Commission is without authority to receive or consider any original applications for enrollment in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of February 9, in the matter of the enrollment of your wife, Mattie Thompson, in which you state that she has been informed by the Commission at different times that she and her children were duly enrolled.

The information contained in your letter is not sufficient to enable us to identify Mattie Thompson upon our records. If you will forward one of the letters of the Commission advising her that she and her children have been enrolled, and state her age, and the names of other members of her family who appeared at the same time, the matter will receive further consideration.

Dear Madam:

Your letter of February 14, addressed to the Secretary of the Interior, has been by him referred to this Commission for consideration and appropriate action. You ask therein to be advised if Mattie Thompson and Inez Harrison are on the rolls. You also give the numbers of a part of the land claimed by you and state that you will forward the numbers of the other land held by you if it is necessary.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that Mattie Thompson, thirty four years of age, wife of George W. Thompson now deceased, and her seven children, Juanita, Eugene, Edgar, Daisy, Grace, Atwood and Georgia Thompson, have been listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation. If you are not the Mattie Thompson referred to above and will furnish information as to your age, your maiden name, the names of your parents and the names of your children the matter of your inquiry will receive further consideration.

You are further advised that it will not be necessary at this time for you to forward the numbers of the land which you desire to select in allotment, for the reason that the Commission had no means of recording the applications of citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations. Matters of this character will receive its consideration upon the establishment of land offices, which will be April 19, 1903, at which time the citizens of these two tribes may appear at the land office for the nation in which their land is located and make formal application for their allotments.

It does not appear from our records that any application has ever been made to this Commission for the enrollment of Inez Harrison as a citizen of either the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation, under that name. If application has been made for her enrollment, kindly state the nature of the same, when, where and under what name, application was made, her age, the names of her parents and other members of her family who appeared at the same time, and the matter will receive proper consideration.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of March 14, asking if you will be permitted to have an agent represent you at the land office in the selection of your allotments.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the rules and regulations of the Commission governing the selection of allotments in the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have not yet been promulgated. Your attention, however, is invited to the following provision of the act of Congress of July 1, 1902, which was ratified by the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902:

"Allotments may be selected and homesteads designated for minors by the father or mother, if members, or by a guardian, or curator, or the administrator having charge of their estate, in the order named; and for prisoners, convicts, aged and infirm persons by duly appointed agents under power of attorney; and for incompetents by guardians, curators, or other suitable person akin to them; but it shall be the duty of said Commission to see that said selections are made for the best interests of such parties."

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 22, asking why your child, Virgie Newson, has not been duly enrolled so that you can file on lands for her. You state that you made application for the enrollment of your child the last time the Commission was at Tishomingo, and when you went to Atoka to file they allowed you to select allotments for your children by the name of Thompson but had no record of your child by your last husband. You ask to be advised whether or not you can file for Virgie Newson.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it does not appear from our records that application has been made by you for the enrollment of your child, Virgie Newson under this name. If you will state whether affidavits relative to the birth of this child were forwarded by you to this Commission, as evidence of birth of the above named child, and if so about when the same were forwarded the matter of your inquiry will receive further consideration.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of July 31, relative to the enrollment of your child, Virgie Newsom.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it does not appear from our records that any application has been made to this Commission for the enrollment of your child, Virgie Newsom.

In our letter of July 25, you were requested to state whether affidavits relative to the birth of your child had been forwarded to the Commission by you, and if so about when same were forwarded. This you did not state and it is therefore impossible to give you any further information than was given in our letter of July 25, 1903.

If you will advise the Commission whether you have ever forwarded affidavits to the birth of your child Virgie Newsom and if so at what time, the matter of your inquiry will receive further consideration.

Durant, Ind. Ter.

Dec. 27, 1902.

Hon. Tams Bigsby,
Acting Chairman,
Muscogee, Ind. Ter.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your favor of the 19th, I want to say that my wife, Mattie Thompson, was enrolled first as Mattie Reed, Daughter of Oliver Reed, a Choctaw Indian, when the rolls were first being prepared.

Afterwards she was married to Frank Thompson, a Choctaw Indian, and during said marriage, they had born to them four children, Claud, Bulah, Frank, Belle, the last one having been dead some time. Frank Thompson died in 1897, and I married his widow, Mattie Thompson in 1900, and have one child, Vergie.

My wife persented herself first before the Commission at Muscogee in 1892, as the wife of Frank Thompson, and while there gave the Commission the name of our only child, Claud, which was enrolled.

The next time she appeared before the Commission was at Tishomingo, I think in 1893, and at that time she was the mother of another child, Bulah, whose name was furnished the Commission and was enrolled, so she was informed.

The next time she appeared before the Commission was in Pauls Valley, in 1895, and was assured by the Commission that all the members of her family were properly enrolled.

The next time she appeared before the Commission was at Tishomingo, after we were married, and only a short while ago when the Commission informed her that all was necessary for her to do was to select her lands for herself and children.

We have been persuaded to believe that the claims of Mattie Thompson, Glue Thompson, Bulah Thompson, Frank Thompson and Vergie Newsom, in addition to Nennie Thompson, a son of Frank Thompson before his marriage to my wife, Mattie, were duly enrolled and not having employed any Council to look after this matter for us, I relied on what was told us by the Commission, and now have an opportunity to get our lands and would like to know our standing as soon as possible so that the lands will not be all taken up before we know what to do.

We infer from your letter that you believe us to be newcomers or Mississippi Choctaws, when as a fact my wife has resided in this Country for the last 32 years, and there can be no doubt about her and her children being entitled to their part of the lands and money.

Awaiting your reply,

Very truly,

(Signed) W. M. Newsom.

When the Commission was in Tishomingo the last time their number before the Commission was 211, I mention this, hoping that it will be of some benefit to you in locating the papers.

If you can find any record concerning her and her children and will let me know at your earliest convenience it will be of great benefit to me in selecting their allotments if they are enrolled.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Marion Witt as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Marion Witt, on September 1, 1896, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Peggy Witt (formerly Darden), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 14101 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in Indian Territory as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Marion Witt should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 15th instant enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Charles C. Wall, the infant son of Chris and Delila Wall, born November 29, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Yours truly,

Commissioner in Charge.

Choctaw 2973

Washington, Indian Territory May 28, 1908.

Chris Wall,

Welf, Indian Territory.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of May 20th, in which you state that the names of yourself, your wife and children are on the Choctaw roll through error and request that they be transferred to the Chickasaw roll.

In reply to your letter you are informed that it appears from our records that Deborah Wall, wife of Chris Wall, and her minor children Sarah S., Pearl, James H., Benjamin F., Mary D. and Charles C. Wall have been enrolled by this Commission as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and on March 19, 1905 their enrollment was approved by the Secretary of the Interior.

It further appears from our records that Chris Wall has been listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation but his final rights to such enrollment have not yet been determined.

You are advised that the names of Deborah Wall and her minor children not having been found on any tribal roll of the Chickasaw Nation in the possession of the Commission, and it appearing that their names were found on the 1896 census roll of the Choctaw

...they have been enrolled as citizens by virtue of the ...

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 10th instant, asking how you may know the classification and value of your land.

You also ask to be informed if Criss Waule is on the roll as an Indian.

In conclusion you ask relative to the status of your claim.

In reply to your letter you are advised that if you will forward to the Commission a description of the land which you desire to take in allotment you will receive a plat showing the classification thereof and the schedule of the appraised values of the land of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations.

You are informed that it appears from our records that Cris Wall has been listed for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, and his wife, Delilah Wall, and six minor children have been listed for enrollment as citizens by blood of said Nation.

You are further informed that it appears from the records of the Commission that H. M. Byford has been listed among the dead-

-----:-----

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Charles Robert Anglin as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

--: D E C I S I O N :--

It appears from the record herein that Charles Robert Anglin, on June 15, 1892, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Mary Anglin, nee Downing, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as number 14115 upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Charles Robert Anglin should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 24th instant requesting to be advised whether or not a citizen can hold 160 acres of land as his prospective allotment, and other lands to the extent of 800 acres, or what would equal his just share of the whole, without molestation until final allotment, having held, improved and used it as a bona fide residence for years.

You are informed that the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have not yet been completed and neither has the appraisement of lands. At this time it is impossible to say how many acres each citizen will be entitled to; it is, however, safe to say that no citizen will be entitled to 800 acres of good land. Your attention is called to a provision of section 22 of the Act of Congress of June 22, 1898, which reads as follows:

"That each member of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Tribes residing in Choctaw and Chickasaw Counties, where it is possible, has the first to take his allotment of land, the improvements

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of September 12, inclosing a letter from the United States Indian Inspector for Indian Territory, relative to the selection by noncitizens of allotments for Indian children whom they have taken from relatives, and cutting and selling timber thereon. You state that these persons have not been appointed guardians of the said children, and ask to be informed as to the ruling of the Department in the premises.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the agreement recently entered into between the United States and the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations as ratified by an act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, provides as follows:

"Allotments may be selected and homesteads designated for minors by the father or mother, if members, or by a guardian or curator having charge of their estate, in the order named."

This agreement is not effective at this time, being subject to ratification by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations at a special election to be held September 25, 1902.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 17th instant, in which you desire the classification of certain land in the Choctaw Nation.

You also desire to be informed if a citizen does not want the land on which he has valuable improvements, is there any provision by which he can get pay for them, and you further desire to be advised when the forty dollar payment will be made to the Chickasaws.

In reply to your letter you are advised that the Commission is now preparing a schedule of classification and appraisement of the lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nation and as soon as the same is completed, it will be made public. We are unable at this time to furnish citizens with the classification and appraisement of any certain tracts of land in the Choctaw-Chickasaw country.

You are further advised that there is no provision of the agreement ratified September 25, 1902, by which a citizen can receive pay for improvements on land not desired by him in allot-

Next, the only provision in such agreement relative to compensation for improvements being as follows:

"Whenever any tract of land shall be set aside for town-site purposes, as provided in said Act of May 31, 1900, or by the terms of this agreement, which is occupied by any member of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nations, such occupant shall be fully compensated for his improvements thereon, out of the funds of the tribes arising from the sale of town sites, x x x."

As to when the forty dollar payment will be made to the citizens of the Chickasaw Nation, your attention is invited to the following provision of the agreement ratified September 25, 1902:

"There shall be paid to each citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, immediately upon the approval of his enrollment and right to participate in distribution of tribal property as herein provided, the sum of forty dollars."

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 18th instant, addressed to the United States Indian Agent and which has been by him referred to this Commission for appropriate action.

Therein you state that several men in your neighborhood are holding land in excess of the amount to which they are entitled and desire to be advised if you can take your allotment on these lands.

In reply to your letter your attention is invited to the following provisions of the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, entitled, "An Act to ratify and confirm an agreement with the Choctaw and Chickasaw tribes of Indians, and for other purposes," ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on September 25, 1902:

"It shall be unlawful after ninety days after the date of the final ratification of this agreement for any member of the Choctaw or Chickasaw tribes to enclose or hold possession of in any manner, by himself or through another, directly or indirectly, more lands in value than that of three hundred and twenty acres of average allottable lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations, as provided by the terms of this agreement, either for himself or for his wife, or for each of his minor children if members of said tribes; and any member of said tribes found in such possession of lands, or having the same in any manner enclosed after the expiration of ninety days after the date of the final ratification of this agreement."

J Nov 2

And,

"Any person convicted of violating any of the provisions of section 18 (above quoted) and so of this agreement shall be punished by a fine not less than one hundred dollars, and shall stand committed until such fine and costs are paid (such commitment not to exceed one day for every two dollars of said fine and costs) and shall forfeit possession of any property in question, and each day on which such offense is committed or continues to exist, shall be deemed a separate offense. And the United States district attorneys for the districts in which said nations are situated, are required to see that the provisions of said sections are strictly enforced, and they shall immediately after the expiration of ninety days after the date of the final ratification of this agreement proceed to dispossess all persons of such excessive holdings of lands, and to prosecute them for so unlawfully holding the same."

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Henry Brown as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Henry Brown, on October 1, 1895, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Eliza Brown (nee Riddle), a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 14128 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Henry Brown should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Gentlemen:

The Commission is in receipt of your letter of the 22nd instant in which you desire to be informed if Sarah M. McGinnis and her children, Melvin and George Dewey Coffman, have been listed for enrollment as citizens of the Choctaw Nation. Also the same information relative to Alice and Mary McGinnis. Likewise as to Austin McGinnis.

You are informed that the records of this Commission show that Sarah M. McGinnis, 23 years of age at LeFlore, Indian Territory, together with her two children, Melvin and George Dewey McGinnis, were listed for enrollment by this Commission as citizens of the Choctaw Nation, June 22nd, 1899 and their names appear upon Choctaw roll card field No. 3070.

In accordance with your request there is enclosed herewith a copy of the testimony of Mrs. McGinnis at the time of her appearance before the Commission, in the matter of the enrollment of herself and children. You are requested to return the same as soon as you have made a copy thereof.

The records of this Commission show that Mary McGinnis, 27 years of age, of Wilberton, Indian Territory, was listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, September 10th, 1898 and appears upon Chickasaw roll card, field No. 291. Please

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 11th instant, enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation of Darward Arthur Wilkinson, the infant son of Henry I. and Mary Ada Wilkinson, born September 13, 1901 and the same is returned to you herewith for the reason that the mother appears to be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation and not of the Chickasaw Nation.

It is stated in the affidavit of the mother that her name is Mary Ada Wilkinson; that she is 16 years of age and a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation and the lawful wife of Henry I. Wilkinson she is a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed that the records of this office do not show that any person by the name of Mary Ada Wilkinson was ever listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

You are informed however that the records do show that Ada Wilkinson, 16 years of age whose last office address was given as Durant, Indian Territory, the daughter of John and Louisa Vails, deceased, was listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, October 14, 1898.

The records further show that she was transferred from the Choctaw roll to the Chickasaw roll by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.

If the mother of this child is the Ada Wilkinson referred to herein it will be necessary that application be made for the enrollment of her child as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation. For the purpose of assisting you in the matter a new application has been prepared and is enclosed you herewith and you will note that the statement is made therein that the father of the child is a citizen of the United States for the reason that the records do not show that he ever made application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

If the mother of this child is the identical person listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation under the name of Ada Wilkinson as stated herein, you are requested to state why she signs her name now as Mary Ada Wilkinson.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Pearl
E. Nail as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Pearl E. Nail (nee Brewer), on December 7, 1897, was lawfully married to David Oscar Nail, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 13468 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Pearl E. Nail should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Peter Haytubbe,
Caddo, Indian Territory,

Dear Sir:

On June 11, 1902, you sent to the Commission the affidavits of Joel H. Nail and J. D. Freeny, relative to the death of Claud Nail, in which affidavits it appeared that said Claud Nail was a son of Joel H. Nail, and the affidavits were returned to you for the reason that it did not appear from the records of the Commission that any application had ever been made for the enrollment of Claud Nail, son of Joel H. Nail, as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

It is thought possible that the Claud Nail referred to in the affidavits sent by you, was the son of David Oscar Nail who is listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, and if this is the case, will you kindly correct the affidavits to correspond with the facts and return the same to the Commission at your earliest convenience.

An envelope for your reply is enclosed herewith, which requires no postage.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Nellie Fronterhouse as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation.

D E C I S I O N .

It appears from the record in this case that, on July 15, 1893, the applicant, Nellie Fronterhouse (formerly James) was married, under a United States License, to Thomas James, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, who is identified upon the 1885 Choctaw Census Roll, Blue County, number 659, and also upon the 1893 Choctaw Leased District Payment Roll, Atoka County, number 606, enrolled thereon as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; that at the time of their marriage both persons above named were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation; that they lived together continuously as husband and wife, in said Nation, from the date of their marriage until the death of the said Thomas James, about 1896; that on the 21 day of September, 1899, the applicant herein was married to Wm. Fronterhouse, a white man, having no rights of Choctaw citizenship by blood; and that the applicant was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation from the date of her marriage to the said Thomas James up to and including September 25, 1902.

Upon an examination of the tribal rolls in the possession of the Commission, the applicant is identified upon the 1896 Choctaw Census Roll, Atoka County, number 14708, enrolled thereon as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that, following the ruling of the Department in the case of Thornton D. Pearce (I.T.D. 4060-1904), relative to the question of forfeiture, Nellie Fronterhouse should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Gentlemen:

Enclosed herewith you will find a copy of the decision of this Commission rendered January 10, 1908, granting the application of Nellie Fronterhouse for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chectaw Nation.

You are hereby advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date of this notice within which to file protest against the action of the Commission in enrolling said applicant as a citizen of the Chectaw Nation. If at the expiration of said time no protest has been filed, her name will be placed upon the final rolls of the citizens of the Chectaw Nation to be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

Nellie James,

Cabey, Indian Territory.

Dear Madam:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 17th instant, referring to circular letter of the Commission of October 4, 1902, and desiring that you be informed if it is necessary for you to again appear before the Commission.

In reply to your letter you are advised that it appears from our records that on October 14, 1902, Nellie James, 25 years of age, of Phillips, Indian Territory, was listed for enrollment by this Commission as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation.

You are also advised that on September 25, 1902, there was ratified by the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations, an agreement closing the rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations on that date.

The rolls as now being made by this Commission of the citizens of these two tribes will be as of September 25, 1902, and it is necessary that the Commission ascertain the status of all applicants for enrollment as intermarried citizens on the date of the final ratification of such agreement.

It will therefore be necessary that you personally present yourself before the Commission at one of the appointments specified in the circular referred to by you in order that your status as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation on September 23, 1902, may be determined.

Respectfully,

Commissioner in Charge.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Lou Nail as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record herein that Lou Nail (nee Daily) on May 10, 1897, was lawfully married to Joel H. Nail, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 13439 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage the applicant herein was a resident of the State of Missouri, and that the said Joel H. Nail was a resident in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they lived together continuously in said Nation as husband and wife from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Lou Nail should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

The record in the matter of the application for the enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation of--

ALBERT M. ROBERTSON----- 9 D-348.

Department of the Interior
Commission to the Five-Civilized Tribes.
Muskogee, I. T. August 29, 1901.

In the matter of the application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation of Albert M. Robertson.

Albert M. Robertson being first duly sworn by Commissioner Needles testified as follows:

- Q What is your name? A Albert M. Robertson.
Q What is your age? A 27.
Q What is your post office address? A Caddo, I. T.
Q How long have you lived in the Indian Territory? A Since September '97.
Q Have you ever resided in the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q At what time? A From September '97 until about September 1900.
Q Have you maintained a continuous residence there for that length of time? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your father? A Wesley L. Robertson.
Q Is he living or dead? A Living.
Q Is he a white man? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Mattie Robertson.
Q Is she living or dead? A She's dead.
Q Did either your father or mother ever claim to be citizens of either of the Nations in Indian Territory? A No sir.
Q They were both citizens of the United States? A Yes sir.
Q You do not claim to be a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation? A No sir.
Q You want to make application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Are you married? A Yes sir.
Q To whom are you married? A Miss Vivian Nail.
Q Is she a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q What is the name of her father? A Joel R. Nail.
Q Is he living or dead? A Living.
Q Is he a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes sir.
Q Does his name appear upon the rolls of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes I think so.
Q What is the name of your wife's mother? A Nettie Nail.
Q Is she living or dead? A Dead.
Q Was she a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation? A I think not.
Q When were you married? A The 14th of July 1900.
Q Who married you? A Judge E. M. Payne the first time.
Q What official position does E. M. Payne occupy? A U. S. Commissioner.
Q Have you the marriage license and certificate with you under which this ceremony was performed? A Yes sir.
Q Do you wish to offer it in evidence? A Yes sir.

W. Albert H. Robertson

There is offered in evidence, filed and made part of the records in this case the marriage license issued by the clerk of the United States Court for the Central District of the Indian Territory to Albert H. Robertson to marry Miss Vivian Nail July 14, 1900 and a certificate that the marriage ceremony was performed by H. M. Payne, United States Commissioner July 14, 1900; this license and certificate appears to have been filed in the office of the clerk of the United States Court for the Southern District of the Indian Territory July 24, 1900 in Book N. of marriage records page 40.

The records of the Commission examined and the name of Vivian Nail 23 years of age, daughter of Joel H. and Nettie Nail deceased appears upon Chickasaw roll card field number 1395.

A further examination of the records shows that the name of Vivian Nail appears upon Choctaw census record for 1896 on page 248 number 8794.

The records further show that Joel H. Nail 49 years of age, Lou Nail his wife 24 years of age and an intermarried white person, Vivian Nail 23 years of age, Ethel Nail 21 years of age, Ishtoyopi Nail 18 years of age and Catherine Fulson 65 years of age the mother of Joel H. Nail were transferred from the Choctaw roll of Blue County to the Chickasaw roll May 21, 1899.

Q Were you married to Vivian Nail under this United States license?
A Yes sir.

Q And upon the 14th day of July 1900? A Yes sir.

Q Were you ever married before? A No sir.

Q Was your wife ever married before? A No sir.

Q Have you any further statements that you desire to make? A I would like to state that I was afterwards married according to the Choctaw law.

Q Did you prepare a Choctaw license? A Yes sir.

Q Do you wish to offer that in evidence? A Yes sir.

There is offered in evidence filed and made part of the records in this case a license to marry issued to A. H. Robertson and Vivian Nail October 15, 1900 by F. E. Fulson, county and probate clerk of Blue County, and a certificate that the parties named in the license were duly married by J. T. Eloyd a minister of the Gospel December 5, 1900. There is attached to the license the certificate of the clerk of the County Court Blue County Choctaw Nation that the marriage license and certificate were recorded in the office of the county clerk Blue County February 14, 1901 in Volume A page 80 duly signed and sealed by F. E. Fulson clerk of the County Court Blue County.

Q How much did you pay for this license? A $100.00

Q Was the name of the woman to whom you were married under this Choctaw license Vivian Nail at the time of the marriage? A According to the Choctaw law it was. My understanding is that the Indian law does not consider an Indian married when they are married according to the United States law.

Q As a matter of fact however her name was legally and lawfully Vivian Robertson at the date of her second marriage? A According to the United States law it was.

Q Your understanding in other words is that the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations do not recognize the validity of a marriage unless it is performed according to the marriage laws of the Nation? A Yes sir.

Q You and your wife have lived together continuously since you were first married to her? A Yes sir.

Clara Mitchell Wood being duly sworn states that as stenographer for the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes she reported in full all proceedings had in the above entitled cause on the 29th day of August 1901 and that the above and foregoing is a full true and correct transcript of her stenographic notes of said proceedings on said date.

-:O:-

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Albert M. Robertson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw
Nation.

- D E C I S I O N -

It appears from the record herein that Albert M. Robertson, on December 5, 1900, was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Vivian Nail, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as Vivian Robertson, number 13440, upon the lists prepared by this Commission, under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior on March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation and that they have lived together continuously in said nation as husband and wife from the date of their said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Albert M. Robertson should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, under the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898 (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902 (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Mansfield, McKimsey & Gorman,

Attorneys for Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations,

South McAlester, Indian Territory,

Gentlemen:

Inclosed herewith you will find a copy of the decision of the Commission rendered March 16, 1904, granting the application of Albert M. Robertson for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

You are hereby advised that you will be allowed fifteen days from the date of this notice in which to file protest against the action of the Commission in enrolling said Albert M. Robertson as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. If at the expiration of that time no protest has been filed his name will be placed upon the final rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation to be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes.
Muskogee, I. T., September 4, 1902.

In the matter of the application of Ormal H. Perkins for the enrollment of himself as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw
Nation.

Ormal H. Perkins being first duly sworn testified as follows:

Examination by the Commission:

- Q What is your name? A Ormal H. Perkins.
Q What is your age? A Twenty-five.
Q What is your post office address? A Durant, I. T.
Q Durant is in the Choctaw Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q How long have you been a resident of the Choctaw Nation? A About five years.
Q Where did you live before you removed to the Choctaw Nation? A
I came from Texas.
Q What is the name of your father? A T. J. Perkins.
Q Is he living? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your mother? A Ophelia Perkins.

bers of any of the Indian tribes? A No, sir.
Q You are now claiming as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q What is the name of your Chickasaw wife? A Ethel Nail.
Q Is your wife a recognized and enrolled citizen of the Chickasaw Nation? A Yes, I suppose she is.

The name of applicant's wife, appearing as Ethel Nail, is found on Chickasaw roll card, field number 1395, having been listed for enrollment by the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, having been transferred to the Chickasaw roll by this Commission upon her identification on the 1896 Choctaw census roll, Blue County,
No. 9795.

Q Where did this marriage take place? A At Caddo, Indian Territory.
Q Was that the residence of your wife? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you married according to the Choctaw law? A Yes.
Q Have you evidence of that marriage with you? A I have.

There is offered in evidence, marked Exhibit "A", and made a part of the record in this application, marriage license issued by the County and Probate Clerk, Blue County, Choctaw Nation, authorizing the marriage of O. H. Perkins and Ethel Nail, and there is attached thereto the certificate of W. P. Dickey, Minister of the Gospel, to the effect that on September 3, 1902, he united the above named parties in the bonds of matrimony.

- Q Were you ever married before this marriage? A No.
Q Was your wife ever married before? A No.
Q At the time of this marriage was there any legal obstacle in the way of its consummation? A No, sir.
Q You are at present living in the Choctaw Nation? A My home is in the Choctaw Nation.
Q You intend to live there? A Yes, sir.

R. B. Eisenberg, being first duly sworn, states that as stenographer to the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes, he reported in full the proceedings had in the above entitled cause, taken on September 4th, 1902, and that the foregoing is a full, true and correct transcript of his stenographic notes taken in said cause on said date.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Ormal H. Perkins as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw
Nation.

---: D E C I S I O N :---

It appears from the record herein that on September 3, 1902, Ormal H. Perkins was married in accordance with the laws, customs and usages of the Choctaw Nation to Ethel Nail, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name (as Ethel Perkins) appears as No. 13441 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641), of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903; that at the time of said marriage both persons above mentioned were residents in good faith of the Choctaw Nation, and that they resided together continuously in said Nation from the date of said marriage up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is therefore the opinion of this Commission that Ormal H. Perkins should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation under the provisions of the Acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stats., 495), and July 1, 1902, (32 Stats., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 10th instant enclosing the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Wesley Leroy Robertson, infant son of A. M. and Vivian Hall Robertson, born November 6, 1901, and the same being in proper form has been duly filed with the records of the Commission and the child listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

You request to be advised what disposition has been made of your application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

You are informed that whenever a decision as to your right to enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation has been rendered by the Commission, a copy of such decision will be mailed to you at your present post office address.

Yours truly,

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of the 11th instant, enclosing the affidavits of Joel H. Hall and J. D. Freemy relative to the death of Claude Hall, son of Joel H. Hall, a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation, which occurred November 2, 1899, and the same are returned to you herewith for the reason that it does not appear from the records of the Commission that any application has ever been made for the enrollment of Claude Hall, son of Joel H. Hall, as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

You are advised that the name of Claude H. Hall, 24 years of age, appears upon page 505 of the 1895 Choctaw census roll as No. 9702. Opposite his name is the notation "dead."

It is therefore probable that no application was ever made to this Commission for his enrollment.

Reference is also made in your letter to Silas Steel, or Kilitantabba, proof of whose death was returned to you under recent date. You state that he was about 40 or 42 years of age and that he might have been enrolled as Silas Kilitantabba. For information

You are advised that the name of Silas Kilitantabba appears

Perkins that the same may be attached to his marriage certificate now on file with the records of the Commission.

You are informed that your request has been complied with and the certificate of the County Clerk attached to the certificate of marriage and duly filed with our records in the matter of the application for enrollment as an intermarried citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Samuel H. Perkins.

Nail as being upon the 1896 Choctaw census roll of Blue County, and transferred therefrom to the Chickasaw roll by this Commission.

It also appears from the 1896 Choctaw census roll that Claud H. Nail was dead at the time such roll came into the possession of this Commission. It is therefore believed that it will not be necessary for you to furnish proof of his death, or take any further steps in the matter.

Dear Sir:

Receipt is hereby acknowledged of your letter of October 29, in which you ask if protest to the enrollment of your wife, Lou Nail, was filed within the fifteen days allowed for that purpose, and whether or not your wife can now make selection of allotment.

In reply to your letter you are informed that no protest having been filed by the attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations to the enrollment of your wife, Lou Nail, as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation, her name will be placed upon the next schedule of intermarried citizens prepared for forwarding to the Secretary of the Interior.

Her enrollment not having been approved by the Secretary of the Interior, she would not, therefore, be permitted to make selection of allotment at this time.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSION TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.

In the matter of the application for the enrollment of Sarah Robinson as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

DECISION.

It appears from the record in this case that Sarah Robinson appeared before the Commission and made personal application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage to Jesse Robinson, a recognized and enrolled citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, whose name appears as No. 13445 upon the lists prepared by this Commission under the act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641) of persons entitled to enrollment as citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and approved by the Secretary of the Interior March 19, 1903.

It further appears from the records of the Commission that on September 7, 1896, in the case entitled "Sarah Robinson vs. Choctaw Nation," (1896 Choctaw Citizenship Docket, Case No. 684), the applicant herein made original application to this Commission under the provisions of the act of Congress approved June 10, 1896, (29 Stat., 321) for admission to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation, claiming her right thereto by virtue of her marriage with the said Jesse Robinson, and on December 3, 1896, the said Sarah Robinson was by this Commission admitted to citizenship in the Choctaw Nation as a citizen by intermarriage, from which decision of the Commission no appeal was taken.

It further appears from the evidence in this case that the applicant herein was a resident in good faith of Indian Territory on June 28, 1898, and that her status as an intermarried citizen remained unchanged from the date of her said admission in 1896 up to and including September 25, 1902.

It is, therefore, the opinion of this Commission that Sarah Robinson should be enrolled as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation, in accordance with the provisions of the acts of Congress approved June 28, 1898, (30 Stat., 495) and July 1, 1902, (32 Stat., 641), and it is so ordered.

Dear Madam:

Enclosed herewith you will find a copy of the decision of the Commission, rendered October 10, 1903, granting your application for enrollment as a citizen by intermarriage of the Choctaw Nation.

The attorneys for the Choctaw and Chickasaw Nations have been furnished a copy of this decision and have been allowed fifteen days from this date within which to file protest against the action of the Commission in enrolling you as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation. If at the expiration of that time no protest has been filed, your name will be placed upon the final rolls of the citizens of the Choctaw Nation to be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for his approval.

Dear Sir:

The Commission is in receipt of the application for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation of Walter Robinson, the infant son of Jesse and Sarah Robinson, born December 18th, 1900.

The same is returned to you herewith for the reason that the records of the Commission show that you are listed for enrollment as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation and your wife as a citizen by intermarriage of the Chickasaw Nation, and your child will therefore have to be listed for enrollment as a citizen of the Chickasaw Nation.

Upon return of the application with the proper corrections, the matter will be given further consideration.

Yours truly,

Acting Chairman.

The Honorable,

The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:-

On March 23, 1903, the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes had the honor to transmit for the consideration and approval of the Secretary of the Interior, a schedule constituting a part of the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, Nos. 14471 to 14880, inclusive, copies of which have been returned, approved, by the Secretary of the Interior, under date of May 28, 1903.

I have the honor to report that the enrollment of Lewis Lawechubbe, appearing upon said schedule opposite No. 14836, is erroneous and should be cancelled.

On February 20, 1905, Willie Wachubbe appeared before the Choctaw Land Office of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes at Atoka, Indian Territory, and from his testimony given at that time it is conclusively demonstrated that the said Lewis Lawechubbe, appearing upon the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation opposite No. 14836, is identical with Lewis Wachubbe, whose name appears upon the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation opposite No. 13449.

Secretary---2.

A copy of the testimony above referred to has this day been forwarded the Department in connection with the duplicate enrollment of William Lawchubbe and Willie Wachubbe upon the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation opposite Nos. 13508 and 832, respectively.

Allotment has been selected for Lewis Wachubbe, whose name appears upon the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation opposite No. 13449.

I have, therefore, the honor respectfully to recommend that the enrollment of Lewis Lawchubbe, whose name appears upon the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, as approved by the Secretary of the Interior, opposite No. 14836, be cancelled from the schedules of such citizens in the possession of the Department and the Indian Office, and that I be authorized to make like cancellation upon the copies of such schedules and the letters of transmittal in my possession.

Respectfully,

September 11, 1906.

SIR

Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes,
Muskogee, Indian Territory.

Sir:

August 10, 1906, you recommended the cancellation of the enrollment of Lewis Laweschubbe opposite No. 14836 on the approved schedule of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation, it appearing from the testimony of Willie Wachubbe, taken February 20, 1906, that said Lewis Laweschubbe is identical with Lewis Wachubbe, whose name appears upon the final roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation opposite No. 13449, and for whom an allotment has been selected.

Reporting September 4, 1906, the Indian Office concurs in your recommendation. A copy of its letter is inclosed.

The Department also concurs. Proper steps will be taken for the cancellation of said name on the schedules in the Department and Indian Office, and you are authorized to make such cancellation upon the proper schedule in your possession.

Respectfully,

DEPT.
DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
LAND.
69333-1906. OFFICE OF INDIAN AFFAIRS,
WASHINGTON.

September 4, 1906.

To the Honorable,
The Secretary of the Interior.

Sir:

I have the honor to invite your attention to the enclosed letter of August 10, from Tams Bixby, Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes, who refers to the fact that on March 26, 1903, the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes transmitted for departmental action a schedule constituting a part of the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation containing numbers 14471 to 14838 inclusive, copies of which were returned, approved under date of May 28, 1903.

Mr. Bixby reports that the enrollment of Lewis Laweschubbe appearing on the schedule opposite 14836 is erroneous and should be cancelled for the reason that on February 20, 1906, Willie Wachubbe appeared before the Choctaw land office of the Commissioner to the Five Civilized Tribes at Atoka and from his testimony given at that time it is conclusively demonstrated that Lewis Laweschubbe appearing on the final roll opposite No. 14836 is identical with Lewis Wachubbe whose name appears on the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation opposite number 13449. A copy of the testimony was forwarded to the Department in connection with the duplicate enrollment of William Washube and Willie Washube on the final roll of the citizens by blood of the Choctaw nation opposite numbers 13506 and 892 respectively.

The Commissioner further reports that an allotment has been selected for Lewis Laweshubbe whose name appears on the final roll opposite number 13449.

Mr. Bixby recommends that the enrollment of Lewis Laweshubbe whose name appears on the final roll at 14836 be cancelled from the schedule of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation and that he be authorized to make like cancellation on the copies of the schedule in his possession. I concur in his recommendation.

Very respectfully,

F. E. Leupp.
Commissioner.

Dear Sir:

There is inclosed herewith for your information copy of Departmental letter of September 11, 1906 (I.T.D. 15622-1906) authorizing the cancellation of the enrollment of Lewis Laweschubbe at No. 14636 upon the approved roll of citizens by blood of the Choctaw Nation.

You are therefore directed to cancel the name of this citizen from the copy of the approved roll and the letter of transmittal in the possession of your office.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
COMMISSIONER TO THE FIVE CIVILIZED TRIBES.
CHICKASAW-CHICKSAW REVIS 200.

MEMPHIS, Indian Territory, March 28, 1906.

In the matter of the enrollment of Rhoda Lawechubbe, on Choctaw Roll of citizens by blood, Card Number 8419, Roll Number 14838; also on Roll of Chickasaws by blood, Card Number 1337, Roll Number 2803, as Rhoda Washubbe.

Testimony taken one mile northeast of Grant, Indian Territory, March 14, 1906:

SILVEY MAINTOSH, E., being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY THE COMMISSIONER:

- Q What is your name? A Silvey McIntosh.
Q What is your age? A 32.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation?
A Yes, sir.
Q Were you intimately acquainted with Rhoda Lawechubbe?
A Yes, sir.
Q Did you also know this woman as Rhoda Washubbe?
A Lawechubbe or Washubbe are the only names I know her by.
Q You know one and the same woman by the name of Rhoda Washubbe and also by the name of Rhoda Lawechubbe?
A Yes, sir.
Q Who was her husband?
A Willie Washubbe, or Willie Lawechubbe.
Q Did she have a son named Lewis Washubbe or Lewis Lawechubbe?
A Yes, sir.
Q Are Lewis and Rhoda Washubbe or Lawechubbe now living or dead?
A Both dead.
Q When did Rhoda Lawechubbe or Washubbe die?
A The last of May or first of June 1900?
Q Where did she die?
A She died out here at the old Spring place right near Hugo.
Q Was there any town of Hugo at that time?
A No, sir, they had to meet the trains at Goodland.
Q Was this woman away from home when she died?
A Yes, sir.
Q You state she died away from home: what business was she when she died at the Spring place?
A She started to meet her son at Goodland, Lewis Lawechubbe, who was returning from school at Jones Academy at Hartsheer, and took sick and died at the Spring place.
Q Were you present while Rhoda Washubbe or Lawechubbe was a corpse?
A Yes, sir, I went up there after she died and saw her.

In RE Rhoda Lawechubbe or Washubbe—J. G. McIntosh, Witness.

Q On the records of the Bureau of the Five Civilized Tribes appears the name of Rhoda Lawechubbe, as a Choctaw by blood, on Field Card Number 5619, Roll Number 14035; it further appears that the name Rhoda Washubbe, as a Chickasaw by blood, appears on Field Card Number 1337, Roll Number 3803. Do you consider the Rhoda Lawechubbe and the Rhoda Washubbe to be one and the same and identical persons?

A Yes, sir.

Q You state positively and upon oath that Rhoda Washubbe or Rhoda Lawechubbe died the last of May or first of June of the year 1900?

A Yes, sir.

Q How do you fix in your mind that Rhoda Lawechubbe or Washubbe died the last of May or first of June 1900?

A My little sister, Hallel Roberts, died the 4th of October 1900, and I knew it was in the May or June before that that Rhoda died.

Q How long have you known Rhoda Washubbe or Rhoda Lawechubbe?

A I have known her ever since I have been old enough to know anything until she died.

Witness Excused.

Testimony taken one mile northeast of Grant, Indian Territory, March 14, 1906:

Follows: JOHN G. MCINTOSH, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY THE COMMISSIONER:

Q What is your name? A John G. McIntosh.

Q What is your age? A 55 years last October.

Q What is your post office address? A Grant, I. T.

Q Your name appears on what Bureau Commission rolls?

A It appears as a citizen by blood of the Creek Nation, and as an intermarried citizen of the Choctaw Nation?

Q Were you acquainted with Rhoda Lawechubbe?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did this woman also go by another name, if so state what name?

A Rhoda Washubbe.

Q Who was her husband?

A Willie Washubbe or Lawechubbe.

Q Did she have a son named Lewis Washubbe or Lewis Lawechubbe?

A Yes, sir.

Q Why was this family known by the name of Lawechubbe and also as Washubbe?

A Well, Willie Washubbe's father was named Lawechubbe, and I suppose they just called Willie some times Washubbe and some times Lawechubbe. The old man mostly went by the name of Washubbe, but when he signed his name in Choctaw he signed it Lawechubbe.

Q The name Rhoda Lawechubbe appears as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation on Field Card Number 5619, Roll Number 14035; and also as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation on Field Card Number 1337, Roll Number 3803 (said cards are here exhibited witnesses): Do you consider the Rhoda Lawechubbe and the Rhoda Washubbe to be one, the same and identical persons?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long have you known this Rhoda Washubbe or Rhoda Lawechubbe?

A I have known her since 1873; she has lived right in this community since then.

Rhoda Lawachubbe or Washubbe--J. J. Jones, Chickasaw, Vicksburg.

Q Were her parents Chickasaw or Washubbe?
A She claimed they were Chickasaw; her mother, I think, was called Rhoda and she was called after her mother in the Chickasaw Nation.
Q When did Rhoda Lawachubbe or Rhoda Washubbe die?
A She died the last of May or last of June 1900.
Q How do you fix in your mind that Rhoda Lawachubbe or Rhoda Washubbe died the last of May or last of June 1900?
A Well, she died in the summer before my wife's little sister died right here in this house in the fall of the year 1900.

Witness Examined.

Testimony taken at Hugo, Indian Territory, March 17, 1906:

WILLIE WACHUBBE, being first duly sworn, testified as follows:

BY THE COMMISSIONER:

Q What is your name? A Willie Wachubbe.
Q What is your post office address? A Frogville, I. T.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation?
A Yes, sir, a full blood Choctaw.
Q How old are you?
A About 53.
Q Who was your father?
A A Choctaw, Charlie Lawachubbe most people called him, but they call me now Wachubbe all the time.
Q You are generally known as Willie Wachubbe or Willie Lawachubbe?
A Yes.
Q Did you formerly live at or near Goodland, Indian Territory?
A Yes, I used to live north of Goodland two miles.
Q What was your wife's name?
A She was named Rhoda Wachubbe; I do not think anybody much called her Rhoda Lawachubbe.
Q Who was her father?
A I do not know him, he has been dead a long time; he was a Chickasaw.
Q Did you know the name of Rhoda's mother?
A No, I did not know her.
Q Was she a Chickasaw too?
A Yes, sir, she was a Chickasaw, for my wife told me she was a full blood Chickasaw.
Q Can you read and write, Mr. Wachubbe?
A Very little, I have never been to school; I guess I went to school one week but I was small and learned nothing.
Q On the records of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes appears, on Field Card Number 8619, Roll Number 14836, the name of Rhoda Lawachubbe, Choctaw by blood, as wife of William Lawachubbe and mother of Lewis Lawachubbe; the name of Rhoda Wachubbe, a wife of Willie Wachubbe and mother of Lewis Wachubbe, appears as a Chickasaw by blood on Field Card Number 1337, Roll Number 1803 (said cards are here exhibited to witness): Do you consider the Rhoda Lawachubbe and Rhoda Wachubbe to be one and the same person?
A The same person--the same.
Q Do you consider the William Lawachubbe, as husband of Rhoda Lawachubbe, and Willie Wachubbe, as husband of Rhoda Wachubbe, on the aforesaid cards to be yourself?
A Yes, the same.

Rhoda Lawachubbe or Wachubbee --4-- Willie Wachubbee, Witness.

- Q Were you intimately acquainted with all the Choctaws and Chickasaws residing in the vicinity of Goodland, Indian Territory.
- A I know most of them, but I did not know any Chickasaws round there.
- Q You did not know any Chickasaws other than your wife?
- A Yes, she told me she was a Chickasaw.
- Q When did your wife, Rhoda Lawachubbe or Rhoda Wachubbee, die?
- A The first time I made an affidavit I know I had it right, as I had the date of my wife's death in my day-book, but when I moved I lost the book and I never thought about it any more, but a man asked me and I studied, but I did not know exactly, and I told him the date I thought I gave on the other affidavit.
- Q The records of the Commission to the Five Civilized Tribes show that on the 29th of August, 1902, before V. O. Surbaugh, Notary Public, you appeared, as Willie Wachubbee, husband of Rhoda Wachubbee, and made affidavit that said Rhoda Wachubbee died on the 31st of May 1900; it further appears that on the 20th of September, 1904, before R. E. Howells, Notary Public, you appeared and made affidavit as husband of Rhoda Lawachubbe, that she died on the 16th of October 1902 (the affidavits are here exhibited witness): Which one of these affidavits are correct?
- A The one made before Surbaugh is correct, because I had my note book at that time and had the date down in it.
- Q When you appeared before R. E. Howells, you gave the date off-hand and did not know whether it was correct or not?
- A Yes, I had lost my note book and told him I might make a mistake; but the first time I had my book and know I was right.
- Q Affidavit before R. E. Howells, executed on the 20th of September, 1904, is here exhibited witness: Is that your handwriting, that Willie Lawachubbe?
- A Yes, sir, I think I wrote it, but sometimes I can't see good without my "specks" and I haven't got them to-day.
- Q This is signed Willie Lawachubbe; you consider that your name, do you?
- A Yes, it's my name, Willie Lawachubbe's mostly Willie Wachubbee.
- Q How many years has passed since the death of your wife, Rhoda Lawachubbe or Rhoda Wachubbee?
- A Well, I do not know exactly, but if I first say in 1900 it must be six years.
- Q Where did your wife die?
- A At William Spring's house.
- Q From whom did you purchase the coffin?
- A Joel Spring.
- Q Did you pay cash for the coffin?
- A No, not at the same time.
- Q You bought the coffin on credit: did Ambers Rice secure the debt for you?
- A Yes, Ambers he got it for me.
- Q On Page 630 of Joel Spring's ledger there is shown that you were charged for a coffin on May 31, 1900; that said coffin was secured by Ambers Rice, and that said account was settled on December 21, 1900: Do you know positively that you bought this particular coffin to bury your wife, Rhoda Lawachubbe or Rhoda Wachubbee?
- A That was to bury my wife.
- Q Do you re-affirm that your wife, as Rhoda Wachubbee died on the 31st of May 1900, as shown in your affidavit before V. O. Surbaugh?
- A Yes.
- Q Do you acknowledge that you were in error as to the death of your wife as Rhoda Lawachubbe, as shown by the affidavit executed before R. E. Howells on the 20th of September 1904.
- A Yes.

WILLIE WACHUBBE, being first duly sworn, testifies as follows:

Examination by the Commission.

- Q What is your name? A Willie Wachubbe.
Q How old are you Mr. Wachubbe? A Well I don't know exactly, my mother died when I was small, but I guess about 49.
Q What is your post office address? A Frogville.
Q What was your post office address before it was Frogville?
A Goodland.
Q What is the name of your father? A Charley.
Q What was his last name? A Lawechubbe, but after he died it was called Wachubbe.
Q What was the name of your mother? A Vincy.
Q Are you a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation? A Yes, sir.
Q Are you a full blood Indian? A Yes, sir.
Q Were you ever known by any other name than Willie Wachubbe?
A All the people that know me calls me Willie Wachubbe.
Q You state that your father was known as Charley Lawechubbe
A Yes, sir that was it.
Q Were you ever known under the name of Willie Lawechubbe, or William Lawechubbe? A When people write me letters they sometimes put it Willie and sometimes William Lawechubbe, when I myself I always say Willie Wachubbe (name)
Q What was the name of your wife? A Rhoda.
Q What was her last name? A It would be on the papers either Rhoda Wachubbe, or Rhoda Lawechubbe.
Q What was the name of your wife's father? A She is from the Chickasaw Nation, I don't know what her father's name was.
Q Do you know the name of her mother? A No I do not know that exactly.
Q Is your wife, Rhoda Wachubbe, or Rhoda Lawechubbe living or dead?
A She is dead.
Q When did she die? A It is now nearly two years.
Q Have you any children? A There was children, but none are now living.
Q What were the names of your children? A One named Lewis?
Q Was Rhoda Wachubbe or Rhoda Lawechubbe the mother of Lewis?
A Yes, sir.

- Q When did Lewis die? A He died about the time his mother died.
- Q Did you ever know a child by the name of Betsey Roberts? A Yes I know Betsey Roberts, she was the child of Mollie Roberts who was a daughter of my wife by a prior marriage.
- Q She was a grand-daughter of your wife, Rhoda? A Yes, sir.
- Q When did you first make application for enrollment as a citizen of the Choctaw Nation? A At South McAlester.
- Q Do you know in what year? A I do not know.
- Q You state that your name is Willie Wachubbe, that your father was Charley Wachubbe or Charley Lawechubbe, and that your mother was Vicoy Wachubbe, or Vicoy Lawechubbe? A Yes, sir.
- Q That your wife's name was Rhoda Wachubbe or Rhoda Lawechubbe? A Yes, sir.
- Q That you had a child named Lewis, and was Lewis sometimes called Lewis Wachubbe and sometimes Lewis Lawechubbe? A Yes, sir.
- Q Were your wife, Rhoda, and your child, Lewis, citizens of the Choctaw or Chickasaw Nation? A My wife was enrolled as a Chickasaw, Lewis was a Choctaw.
- Q How old was Lewis Wachubbe or Lewis Lawechubbe when he died? A Nearly 18 years old.
- Q How old was your wife, Rhoda Wachubbe, or Rhoda Lawechubbe when she died? A About 43 years old.
- Q It appears that Willie Wachubbe, the son of Wachubbe and Vicoy Wachubbe, is enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; it also appears that one William Lawechubbe, son of Charley Lawechubbe and Vicoy Lawechubbe is also enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation. Do you know whether the Willie Wachubbe and the William Lawechubbe above named are one and the same person and is that person yourself? A Others always call me different name but when I name myself I always say Willie Wachubbe.
- Q What do others sometimes call you? A Some that knew my father knew his name to be Lawechubbe, when they write me letters they call me Willie Lawechubbe.
- Q It appears that one Rhoda Wachubbe was enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Chickasaw Nation, as the daughter of Wm. Garland and Ah-to-ag-gey or Liza; it also appears that one Rhoda Lawechubbe is enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, as the daughter of Garland and Liza Garland, do you know whether the persons above named as Rhoda Wachubbe, and the person named as Rhoda Lawechubbe are one and the same person, and that person your wife? A I believe that is who it was.
- Q It also appears that one Lewis Wachubbe, son of Willie Wachubbe, and Rhoda Wachubbe, is enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation; and that one Lewis Lawechubbe, son of Wm. Lawechubbe, and Rhoda Lawechubbe, is enrolled as a citizen by blood of the Choctaw Nation, do you know whether the person just named as Lewis Wachubbe, and the person named as Lewis Lawechubbe are the same person, and that person your son to whom you have referred in this examination? A I believe that's who it is.
- Q You state that your wife, Rhoda, and your child, Lewis, are both now dead? A Yes, sir.
- Q Do you know in what year they died? A I believe it was in 1902.
- Q Do you know what month? A I have forgotten, but I have the papers at home. I believe the mother died in the month of June.
- Q In the month of June 1902? A Yes, sir.
- Q Did Lewis die before or after his mother? A Just a little after his mother.
- Q About how long after? A I don't know exactly but I believe about three months after.
